American youth takes stock

Here we are . . . a free nation 150 million strong . . . half way through the Twentieth Century . . . a nation to which the world's free people look for leadership. We are a nation vigorous, resourceful, unafraid . . . and dedicated to progress. Let's take a look at what we have accomplished and how we have been able to do it.

of the World at Mid Century . . .

After 50 years nearly every family owns an automobile, a radio, telephone. Real wages (wages in terms of what they will buy) have doubled and working hours have been reduced from 58 hours to 40 hours per week.

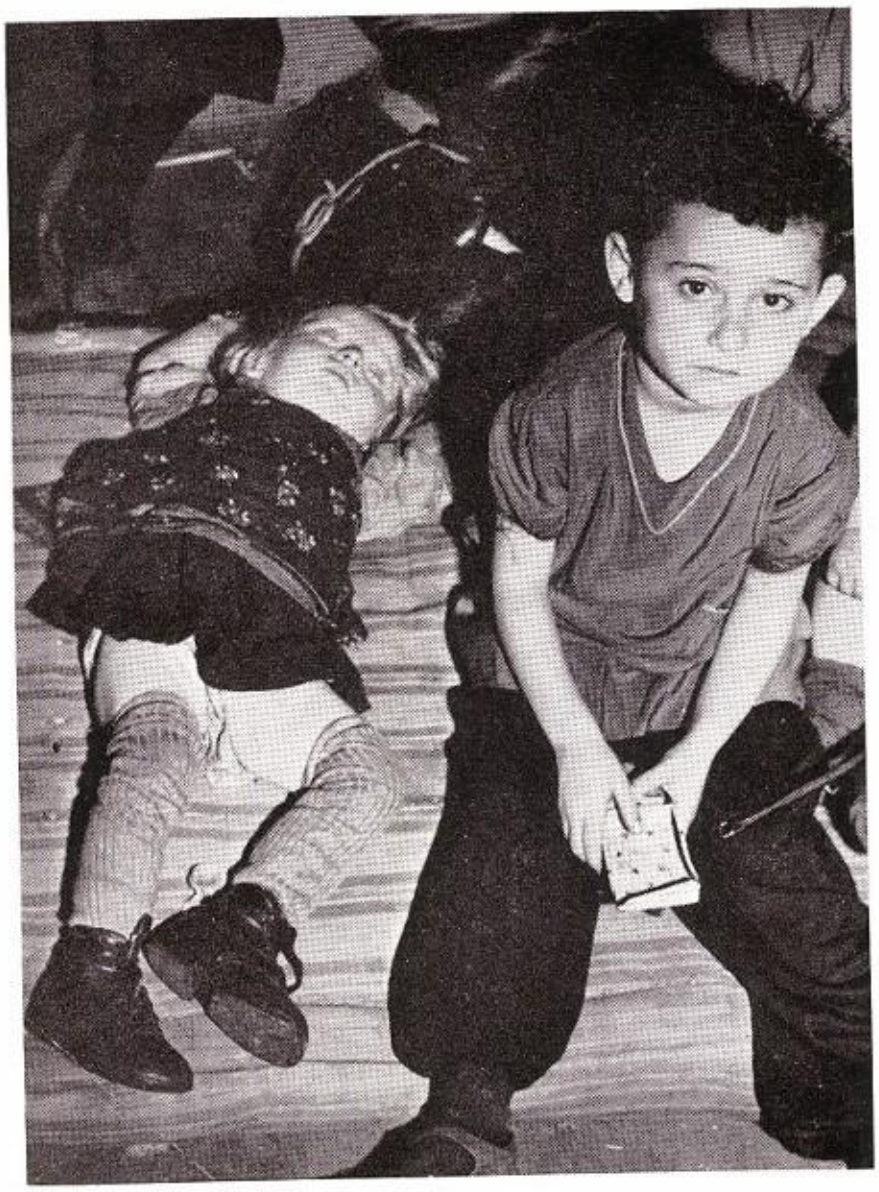
Every American ought to understand this system that has made all this possible. It is the newest, most revolutionary, most productive way of life this earth has ever seen. It has done more for the average man than any other invented . . . because it is built on freedom, faith, and opportunity.

Now is the time for every American boy and girl to take stock of the system that has made us the world's most fortunate people. It is time for new resolutions . . . for thought and prayer. It is the time for every boy and girl to make his voice heard. It is time for us to understand not only how our system works but how each one of us can help make it still better.

These are some of the flaws in our

We must not lose sight of the fact that, in spite of all our accomplishments toward a perfect democracy, we have many flaws in our system which must be corrected before we can reach our goal. We cannot preach a Bill of Rights for the entire world and deny these same rights to any of our citizens. We cannot allow a few people's greed and hunger for power to threaten our democracy. We cannot allow ourselves to forget that the tragedy of a Hitler could happen here. We must not forget that the comforts and pleasures which we enjoy are unknown in many parts of the world. We must clean up our own country so that our American Way can stand as a shining example that the power of government lies with the common man.

Fear and unrest walk hand in hand with hunger.



Atomic warfare threatens civilization.

to weaken
our democracy.

outlets
through sensation.

Now is the time for knowledge, prayer and action

AT WESTERN HILLS FACULTY, STUDENTS, AND PARENTS APPROACH

We believe that Western Hills is a true cross-section of American life with typical problems and representative solutions. The gaps and lack of understanding between generations must be narrowed. We students must have the guidance of the faculty as we prepare to assume the responsibility for our half of the century. Father and son, mother and daughter, must work together for the preservation and improvement of the American Way even as in a smaller sense they work as comrades in the varied activities of home and school life.

PROBLEMS MUTUALLY

In after years, informal moments like these, of intimate chats with our friends on the faculty will be our most precious memories. Miss Mary Dufficy, Bob Kemper, and Rosie McGinley are enjoying just such a moment.

The Dad's Club and the Parents' Association have played a very important part in this year's activities. Mr. Harold Sweet and Mr. Lawrence Lagenbahn work on the Coke bar for the Carnival with Ronnie L. and Dick Erhardt. Mrs. Charles Robinson and daughter, Charlene: Mrs. Robert N. Woodall and Nell are busy in the country store.

On what common ground can we approach the problems of mid-century? What faith is universal to all creeds, nationalities, and ages? Surely all men share a belief in a Power beyond themselves which can be contacted through a method known as prayer. Through thorough discussion of all points of view, by well-grounded knowledge, in tolerant respect each for the other, and, above all, with reverent prayer each to his own God, faculty and students, parents and children, exponents of all creeds, citizens of all countries may grow into a harmonious whole in confidence.

. . . THAT WE CAN LEARN TO LIVE TOGETHER

The insert on the following page shows Rabbi Victor E. Reichert, Charles P. Taft, former president of the Federal Council of Churches, Dr. G. Barrett Rich, pastor of the First United Church, and the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Carl J. Ryan, Superintendent of the Catholic schools, engaged in discussion with pupils of the various faiths as to how we can attain these ideals. In the background are shown the spires of the various churches. The photograph was taken under the auspices of the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

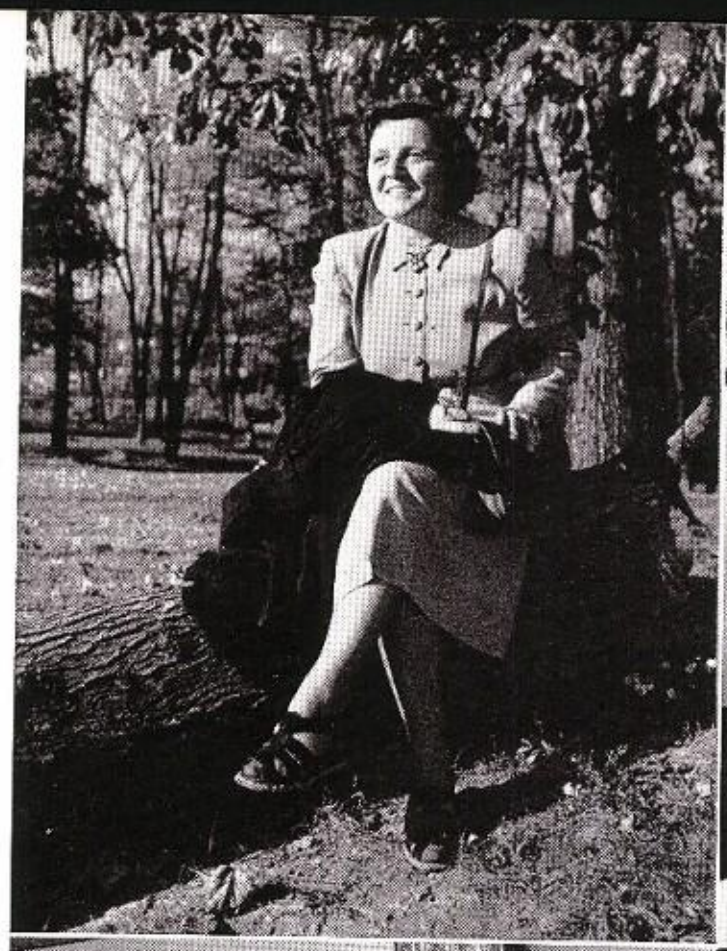
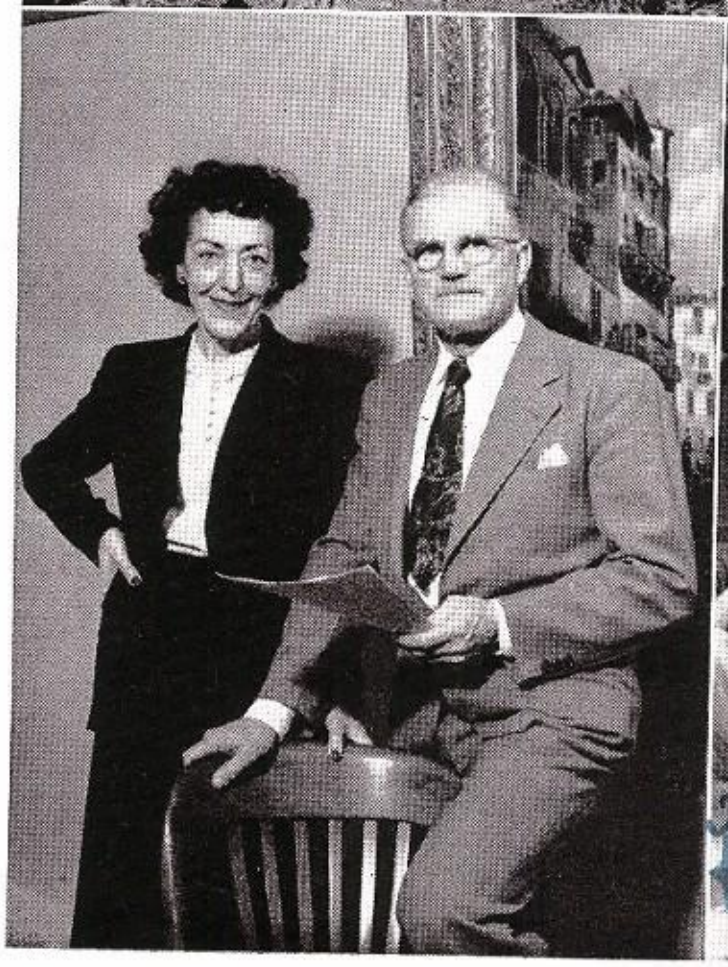
YOUTH AT MID-CENTURY

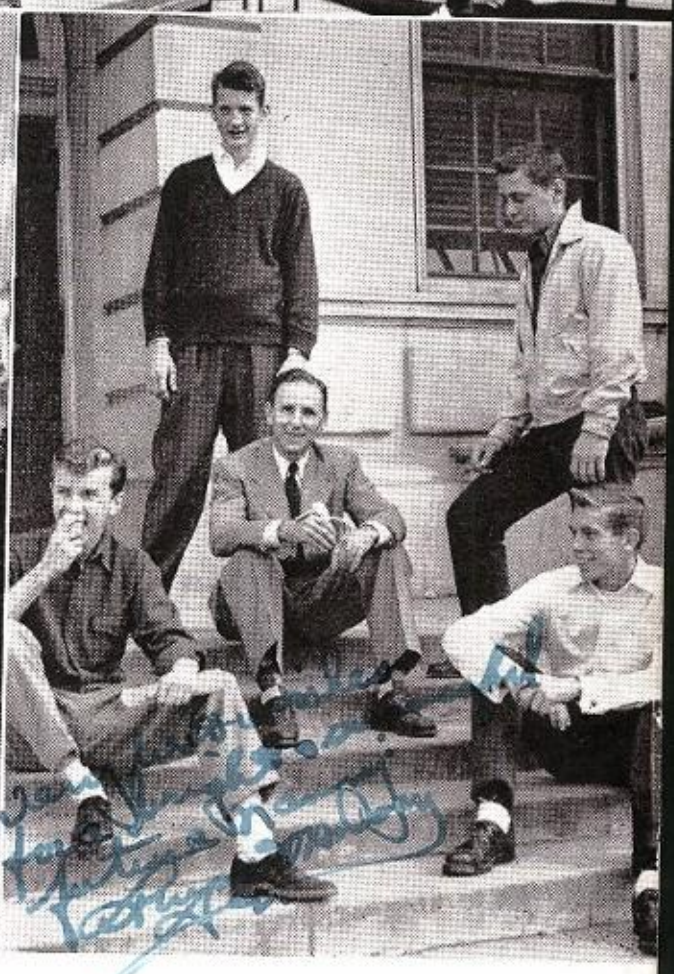
It is difficult for an adult to write on this topic. Youth sees with its own eyes. The adult who has lived approximately a half century has had many experiences which color his perception. However, this adult will attempt to take stock of the world as he believes youth sees it today.

Youth recognizes that our country has survived crises and that this survival was due in no small part to a tremendous power of production. They know that education, technical skill, and research made this possible. They see that a high standard of living with a resultant increase of time for art, culture and recreation can accompany production. They appreciate their inheritance from forefathers in this and other countries and the responsibility they assume in carrying on this march of progress. To this they observe an added obligation of serving others (contemporaries in this and other countries) as they have been and would be served. Youth sees new and different frontiers and possesses the courage, will, and faith to meet them.

R. W. Cadwallader



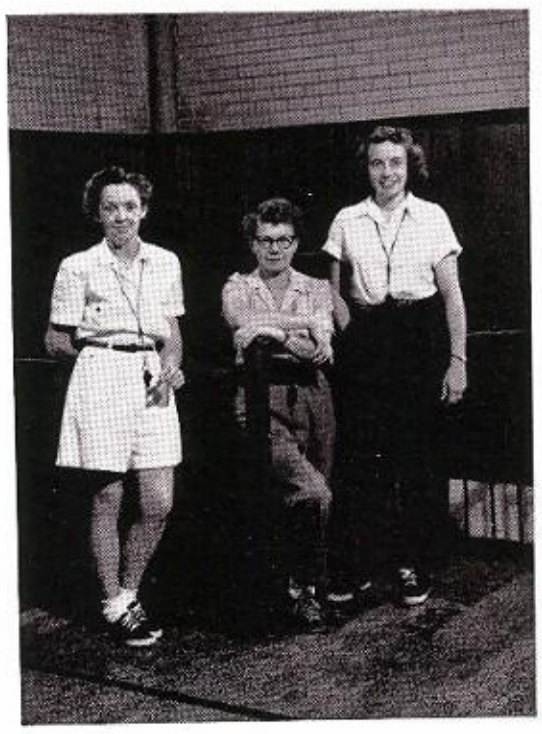




OUR ADMINISTRATORS GAIN RESPECT THROUGH UNDERSTANDING

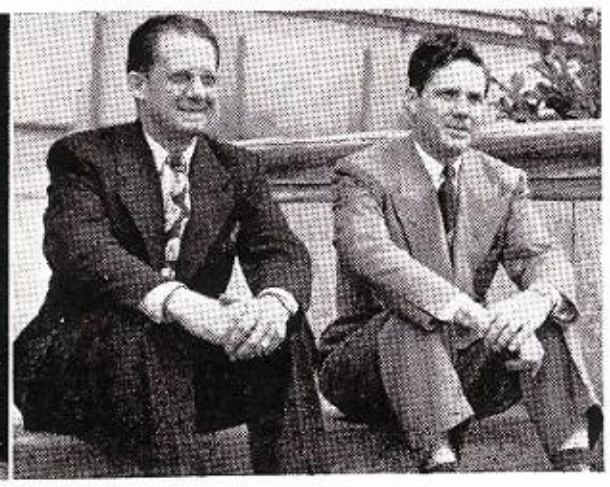
Mr. Cadwallader, our principal, prepares to drive straight down the fairway. Mr. Havlovic, second in command, seems to think he will; however, the caddies, Tom Bennet and David Knaggs, smile as though there's some doubt in their minds. Mrs. Heninger and Miss Brugman seen in the upper right and left pictures respectively, are the counselors for the girls of Western Hills. Mrs. Heninger is the advisor for the sophomore, junior, and senior girls while Miss Brugman has charge of the junior high school.

Mr. Chesley, counselor for the boys in junior high enjoys a mid-afternoon snack with some of the fellows as they exchange their views on which school will win the Football P.H.S.L. trophy. Miss Steinmetz and Mr. McCartney, co-ordinators for the various social organizations, discuss one of their problems.



ALL WORK AND NO PLAY?

Mr. Dunkel seems amused by the boy with the yo-yo; perhaps he thinks it would be fun to try it. Mildred Huseman, our school treasurer, enjoys one of our first Spring days. In the third picture above we see Misses Witte, Burk, and Dick, girls' physical education instructors. Shirley Heis and Marian Rothert end their day's work in the office by putting the cash box in the safe. Mr. Crandall and Mr. Miller spend a relaxing moment away from classes. At the faculty picnic Mr. Fouch converses with Misses Smith, Huseman, and Gates while Mrs. Henderly and Miss Guethlein try their hand at shuffleboard.



NOT OUR WISE FACULTY!

Miss Tebbenhoff explains the finer (?) points of dramatics to Mr. Burns while Mr. Johnson earnestly describes the perfect play to his team; Mr. Clark and Mr. French arrange basketball schedules for their gym classes. As a service to the seniors Miss Emmes works hard at preparing transcripts for college; even at this trying job she is able to flash a charming smile. Mr. Pollock and Russ Renner make plans for a successful tennis season and enthusiastically discuss the tournament. Mr. Sting amuses Mr. Yung with one of his snappy stories, while Miss Davis and Mr. Marshall look dubiously at a piece of modern art.

TEACHERS HELP THE STUDENTS

Mr. Hess and Mr. Wellman smile longingly as they watch a beautiful blue Buick convertible drive around the circle in front of school. In the center below, Miss Bayha and Miss Kolks might be discussing the possibilities of a new car. At present the sporting Studebaker has caught their attention; without a doubt this is just what they had in mind. The Cincinnati Master Plan is the topic of discussion between Miss Slutz, Joan Falquet, and Jim Young.

Miss Glass and Miss Logue show their approval of new books just received for the library. Possibly it's spring fever that has drawn Miss Davies and Miss Mathis from their classrooms to chat for a moment between periods.

WITH MANY USEFUL PROJECTS.

Above Miss Geeting and Miss Dufficy pause a moment to chat during the tedious job of exam grading. Below, judging from the pleased expressions on the faces of Jim Young and Miss Mastin, the complicated annual accounts balance.

Miss Blasch is seen with several girls from her homeroom as they prepare the traditional Thanksgiving basket to be sent to a needy family. In the center below Mrs. Webb proudly shows Miss Weber an outstanding notebook done by one of her students. Canasta holds the spotlight with Misses McKinley, Klaserner, Bolan, and Markworth as they enjoy a pleasant evening together.

Nancy, it was a pleasure to have you in class. My best wishes for your continued success.

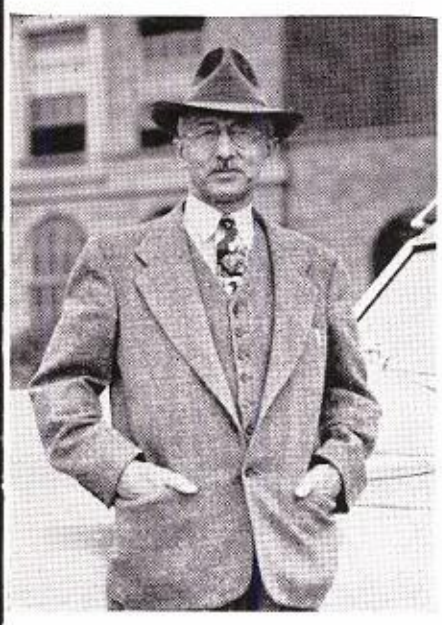
Ramona M. Weber

Seen above from left to right: Mr. Schick has made the understanding of mathematics easier for many of us. Miss Yalen looks up from her daily work of checking the grade book for back-sliders. Miss Krasne is seen as she tells an interesting story in connection with class discussion. Miss Hein, commercial teacher, is pictured checking her typing papers for strike-overs.

Shades of Carmen Miranda . . . . Below Mr. Rimanoczy is trimming a chapeau for Miss Dick, while Mr. Whitaker observes his creation which Mr. Fread models. Hat-trimming was part of the iniation in which new faculty members took part at the teachers' picnic. It was amazing the hidden talents for hat trimming that came to the front at the picnic.

Lily Daché we're on our way!

THE FACULTY, BY TEACHING VARIED SUBJECTS, STRIVES



The picture below is a typical scene from the annual teachers' picnic. Miss McKinley, Mrs. Havlovic, Mrs. Cadwallader, and Miss Dick seem to be thoroughly enjoying their game of bridge. Watching the game progress are Miss Peterson, Miss Burk, Miss Bruggemann and Miss Walters. Mr. Cadwallader, at the lower left, seems to be well-satisfied with his wife's hand.

"Be still and know that I am God, the spirit of Truth within thee." Education, by its very derivation, educere, to draw forth, recognizes this oldest of all principles; all truth comes from within, not from without. So we study objective facts and bring them to the testing of the searching light within us for the confirmation of their truth or falsity. Whatever our perplexity may be we see most clearly in the presence of beauty and that "Being whose dwelling is the light of setting suns . . . a motion and a spirit that pervade all living things." . . . Thus communion with nature is in a real sense a prayer . . . . .

. . . . THAT WE MAY SEARCH FOR TRUTH

Freedom of Expression

Literature is the expression of man's search for truth. Since the first man expressed his thought in written words, the sages have observed the ideals which seem to them to furnish the best path to the abundant, joyful, purposeful life. Seekers ponder this rich heritage of the ages, glean their own wisdom, and try to live by its light. Of all the truths they study which have most significance for Youth at Mid-Century? Like us, Hamlet felt the necessity of helping to solve the problems which confronted him. Like us he felt unequal to the task without divine guidance. Like Santayana may we find the Torch of knowledge to light us through the darkness; with Tennyson may we be convinced of the increasing purpose of the ages! May we find the vision needed by a great people so that our beautiful America may in truth become the patriot's dream which sees beyond the years and through God's grace is crowned with brotherhood from sea to shining sea.

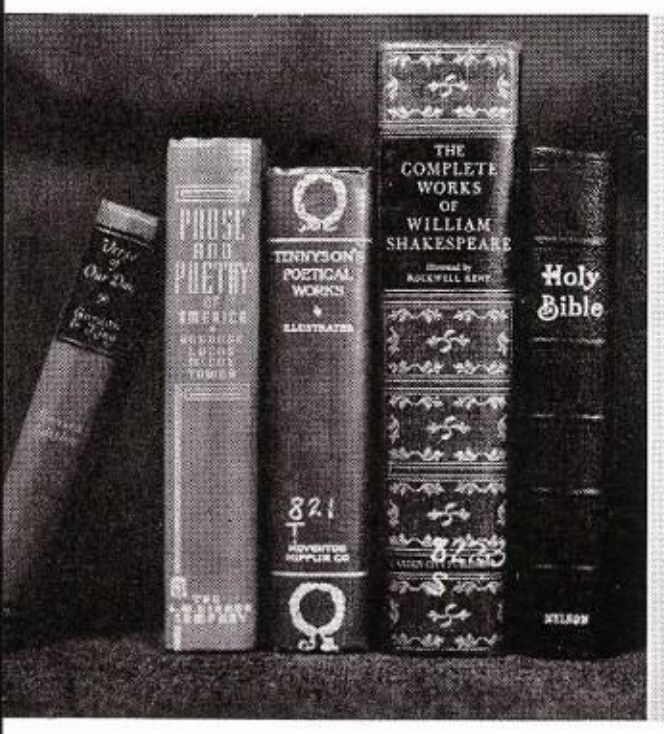
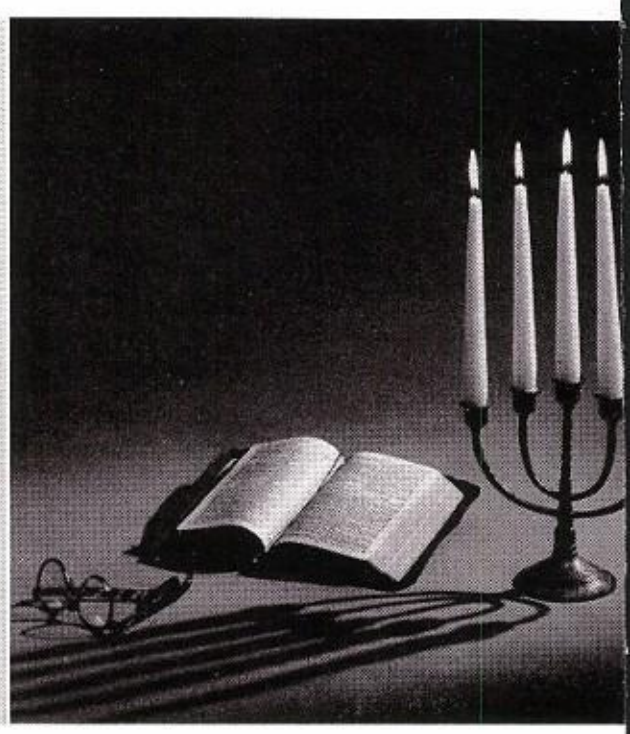
"Yet I doubt not through the ages one increasing purpose runs,
And the thoughts of men are widen'd with the process of the suns."
Tennyson—Lockley Hall

Our knowledge is a torch of smoky pine
That lights the pathway but one step ahead
Across a void of mystery and dread.
Santayana

Where there is no vision, the people perish.
Proverbs 29-18





"The time is out of joint: O cursed spite, that ever I was born to set it right!"

O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties
Above the fruited plain.

America! America!
God shed His grace on thee
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea.

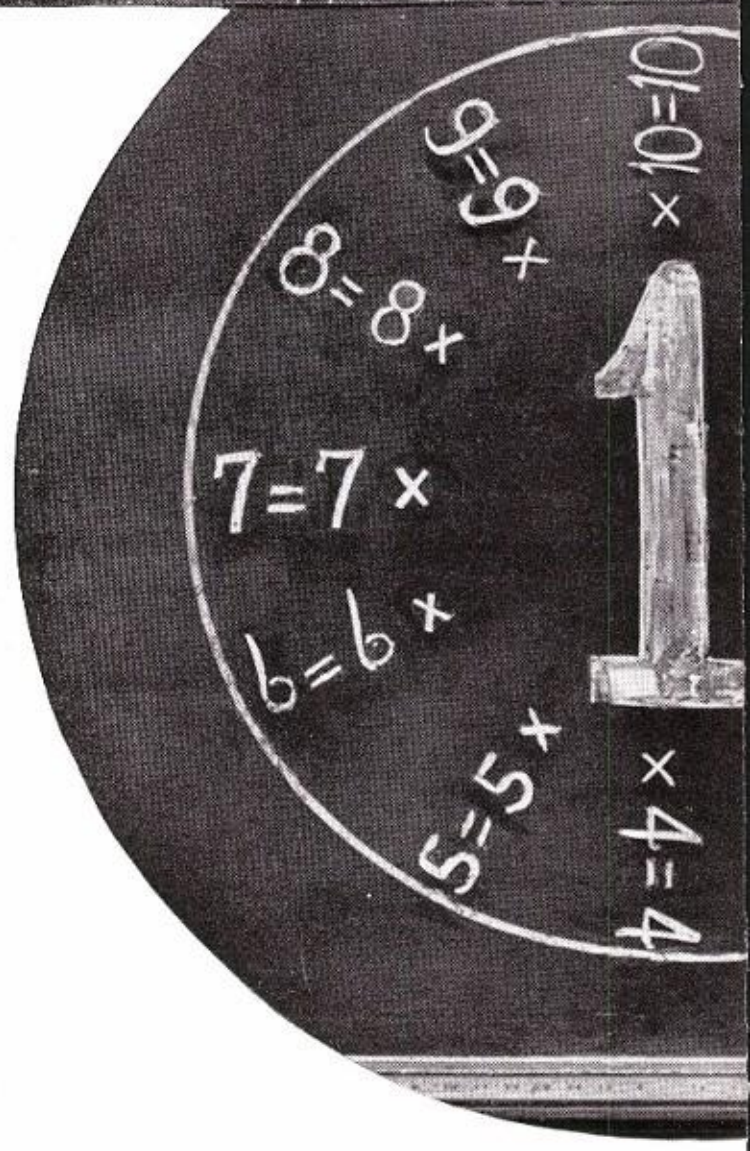
REASON



'Mathematical principles are equally true in this country as they would be in Italy or any other foreign country. Wherever we may travel we find the same undeviating mathematical laws which are as unchanging as the laws of nature. By mathematical calculations we are able to tell to the split second just when the sun will rise, we are able to measure the exact distance to the sun and the other planets, as well as being able to calculate the rate at which the earth rotates or the speed at which light travels. Thus through mathematics we realize the great precision of the universe as well as the grandeur and the vastness of our solar system.

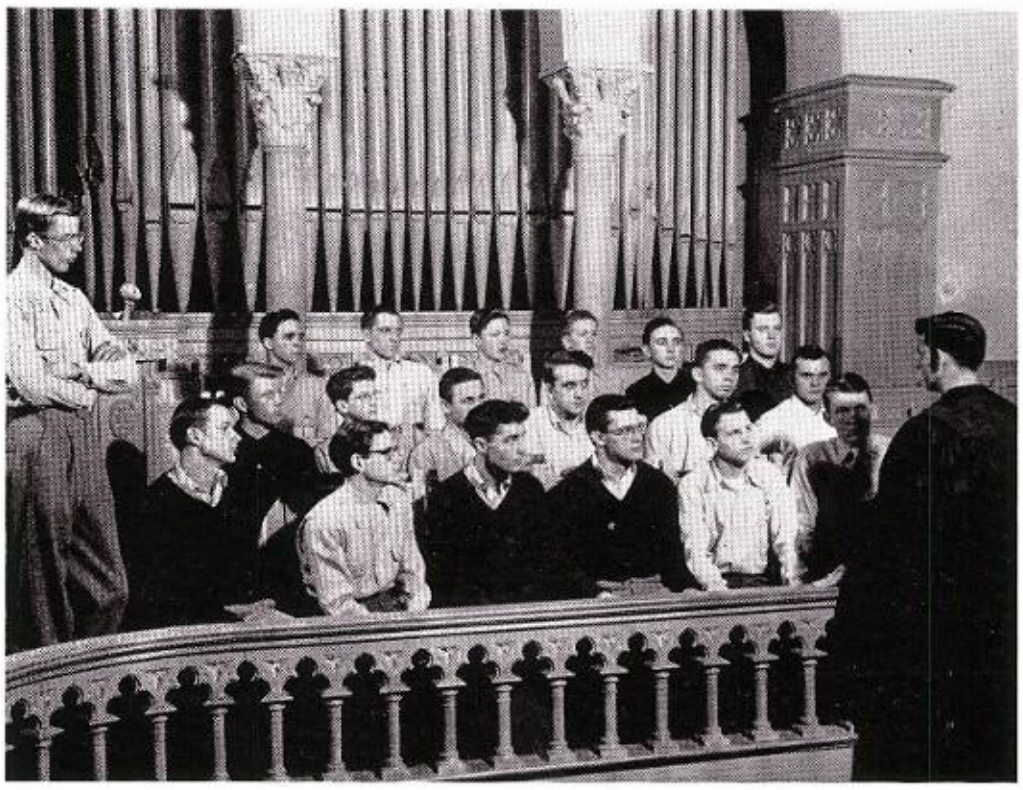
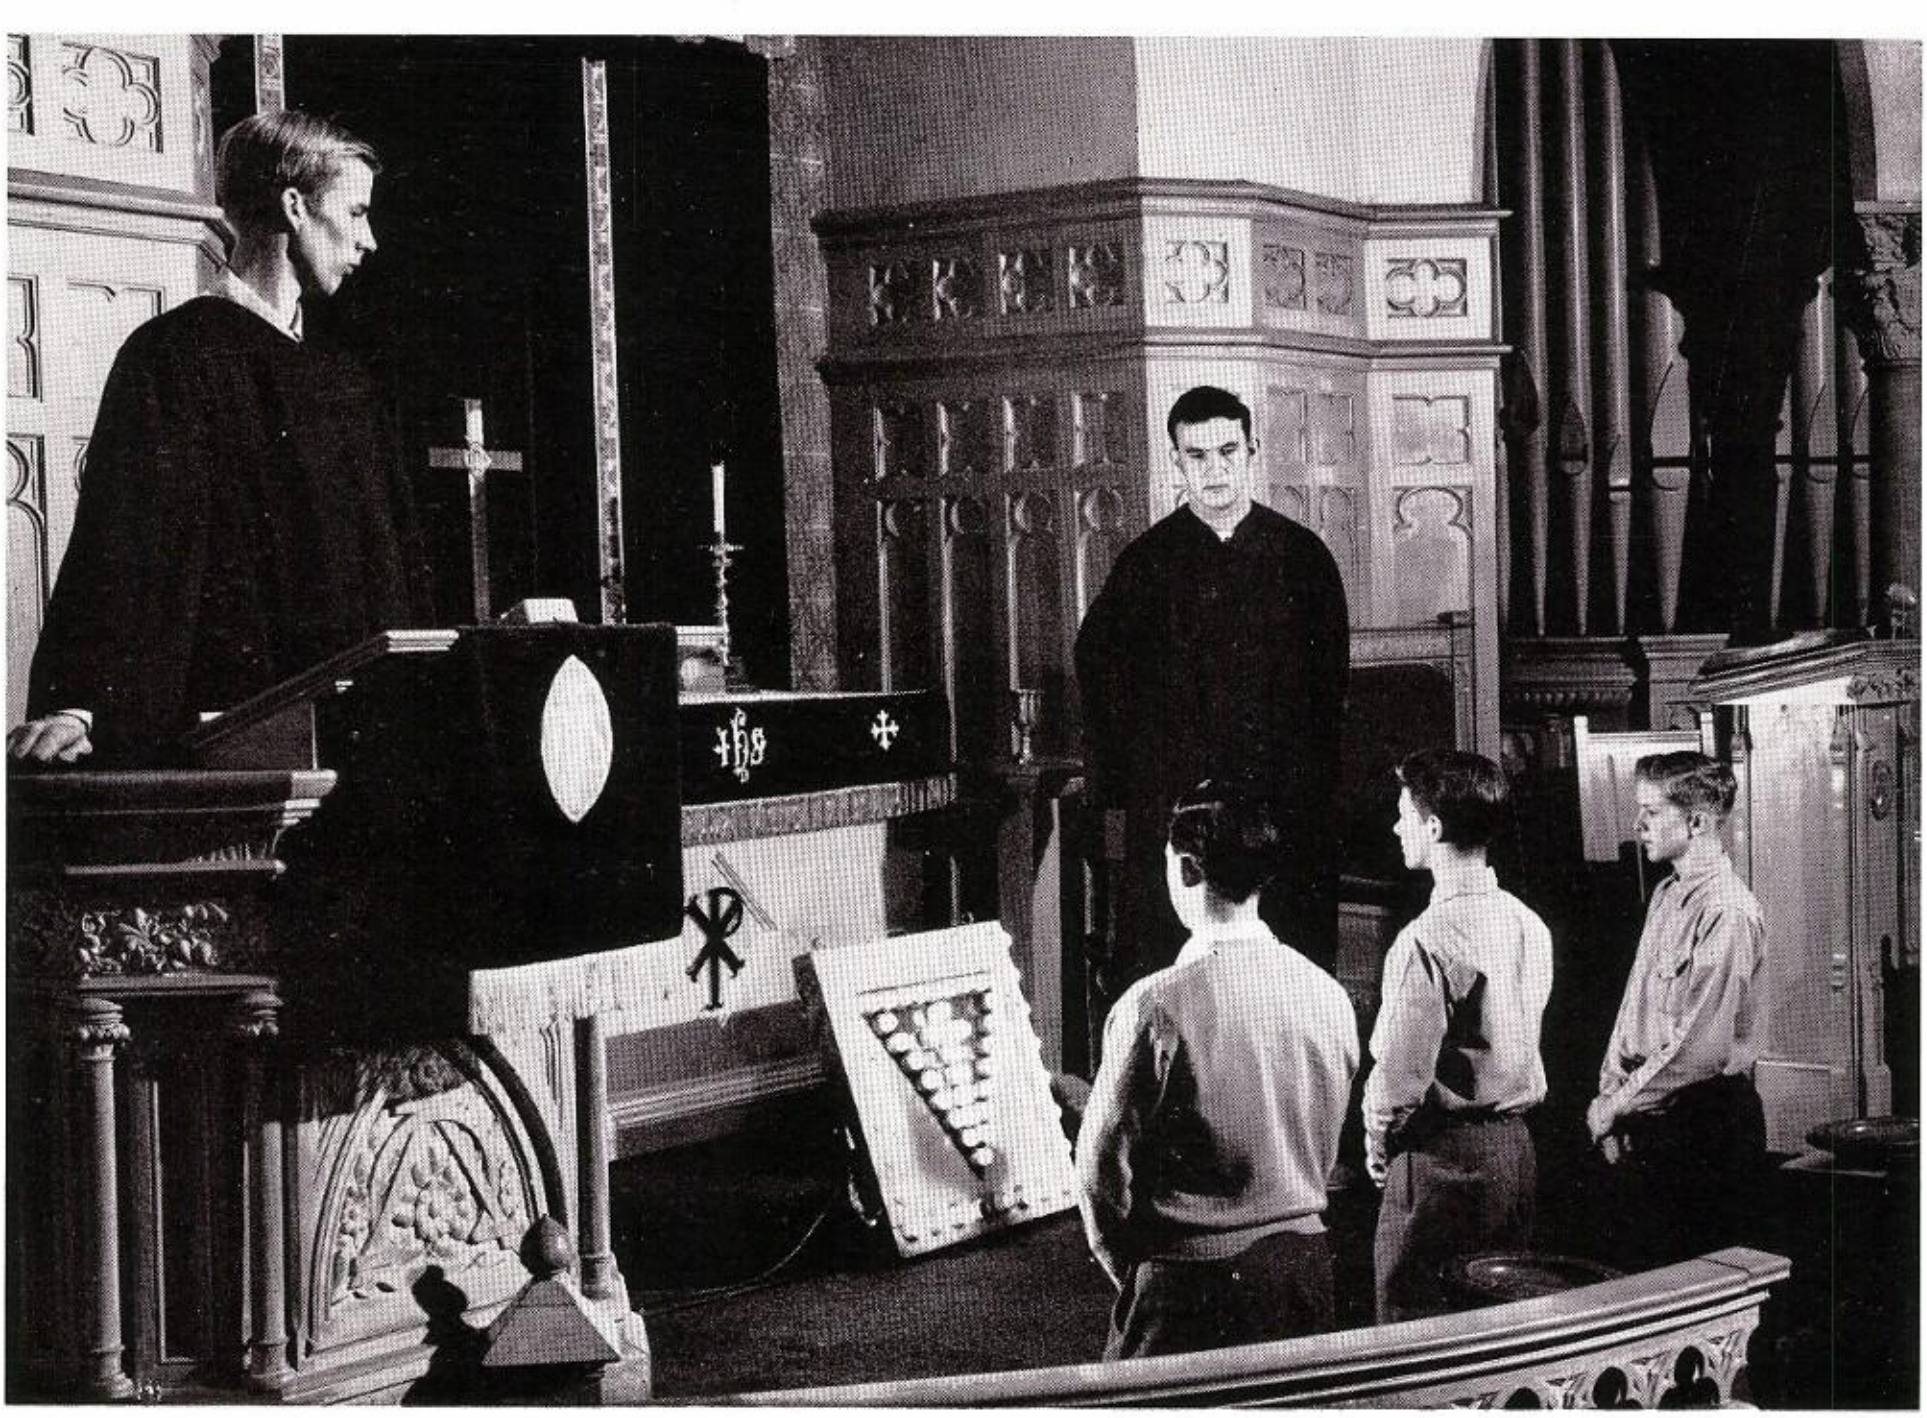
HOW CAN WE CONFIRM FAITH?

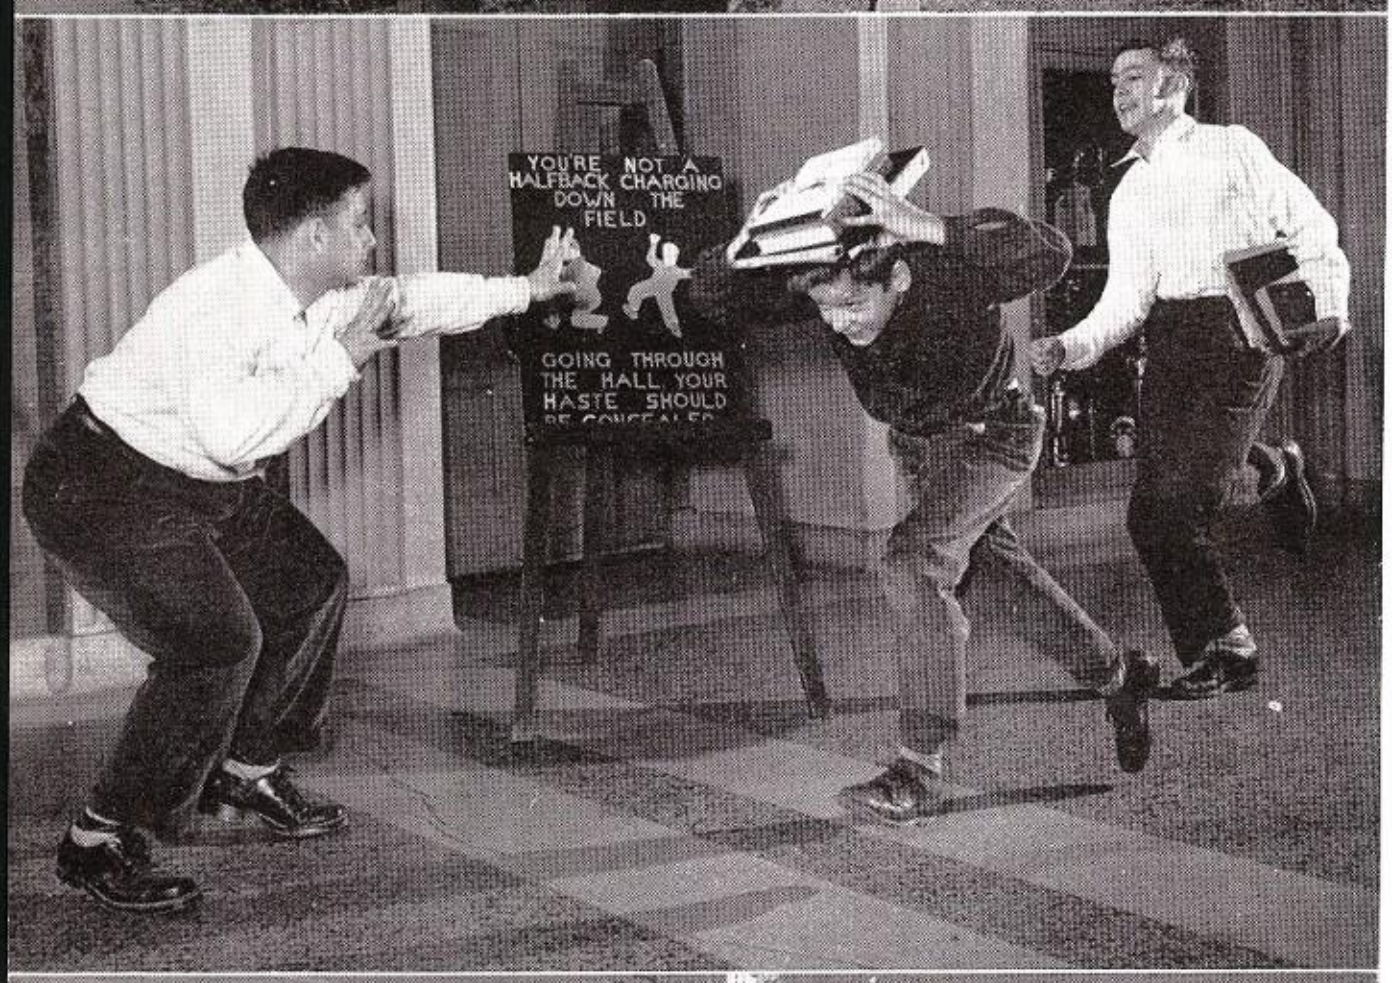
In the past year the Hi-Y boys of Western Hills have been busily engaged in worthwhile projects in both community and school. By selling football programs, they both supported school athletics and set a precedent for younger Hi-Y-ers to follow. Ushering for school productions was another of school welfare projects. At Thanksgiving time all shared brotherly love and shared together to give to the needy. The initiation service is pictured.



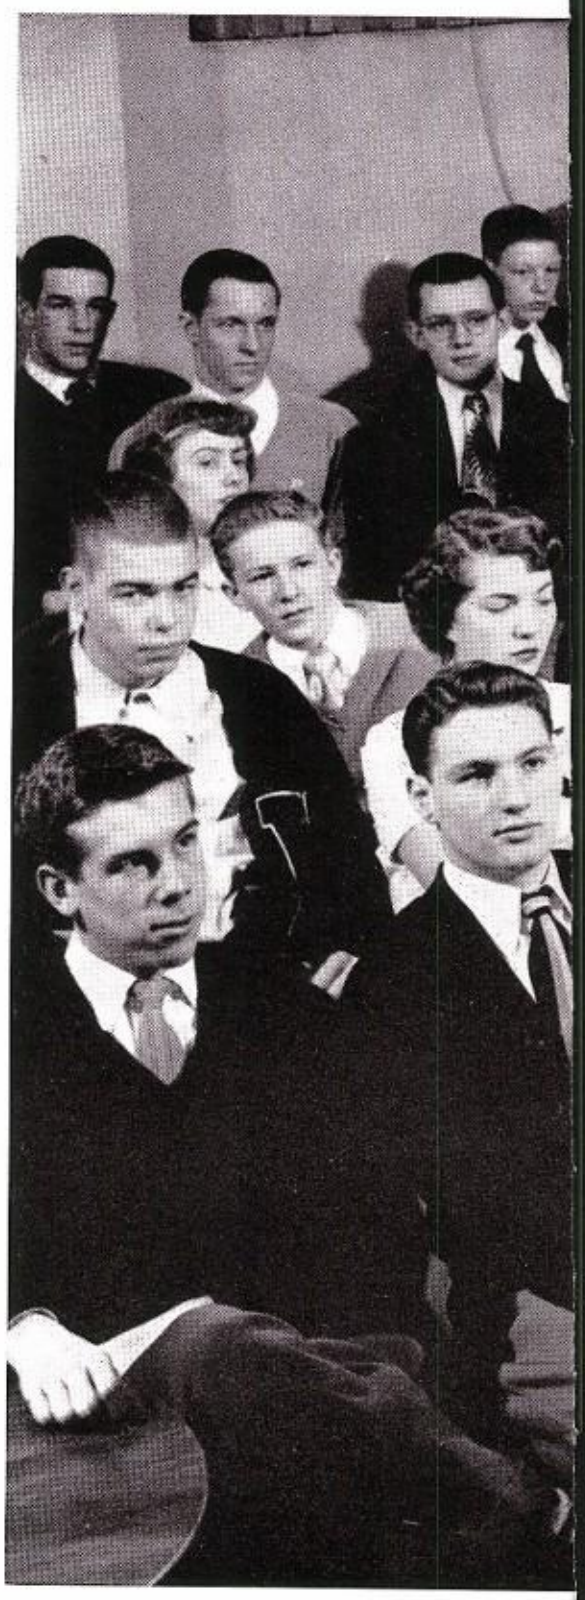


Y-Teens holds the interest of most girls at West Hi as there are different clubs for girls of all the grades. The ring girls, J. Falquet, G. Werner, G. Yanney, J. Olsson, J. Schulte, J. Graham, M. Engler, B. Sievers, A. Adams, M. Botsford, M. Vordenberg, J. Knecht are attending a vesper service. Besides searching for truth the Y-Teens find time for recreation as shown by B. Ewick, C. Bose, C. May, M. Miller, J. Reitzes, J. Ramsey, and J. Reitzes.

Within our organizations we strive to keep our faith brightly burning and through it help our fellowmen. During the Yule season the Y-groups gave a service which brought the true meaning of Christmas to the mind of each student. Through similar deeds we strengthen our beliefs.



HOW CAN W



Student government—the key-word at Western Hills! Our Student Council is therefore dedicated to the task of acting as a link between students and faculty by taking the problems of each, weighing them, and trying to find a solution. Any job which the school is asked to do is carried out by the group. A committee worked for the Polio Drive; Jr. Student Council sponsored a poster contest whose purpose was to explain school rules; an immense Christmas tree was decorated in the front hall. Striving for school improvement, the Council made up a complete agenda for this year. Student Council enables us to practice leadership which we must know if we are to inherit the doctrines and ideals of this country.

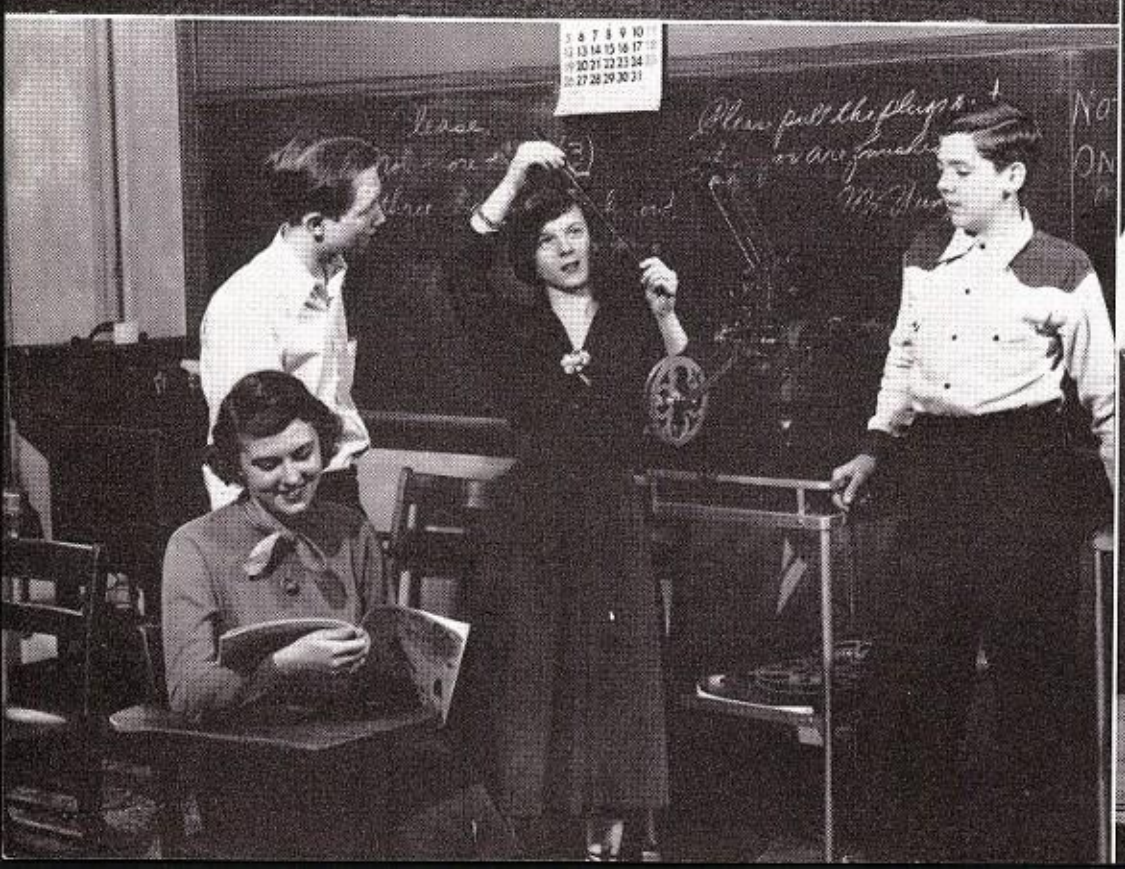
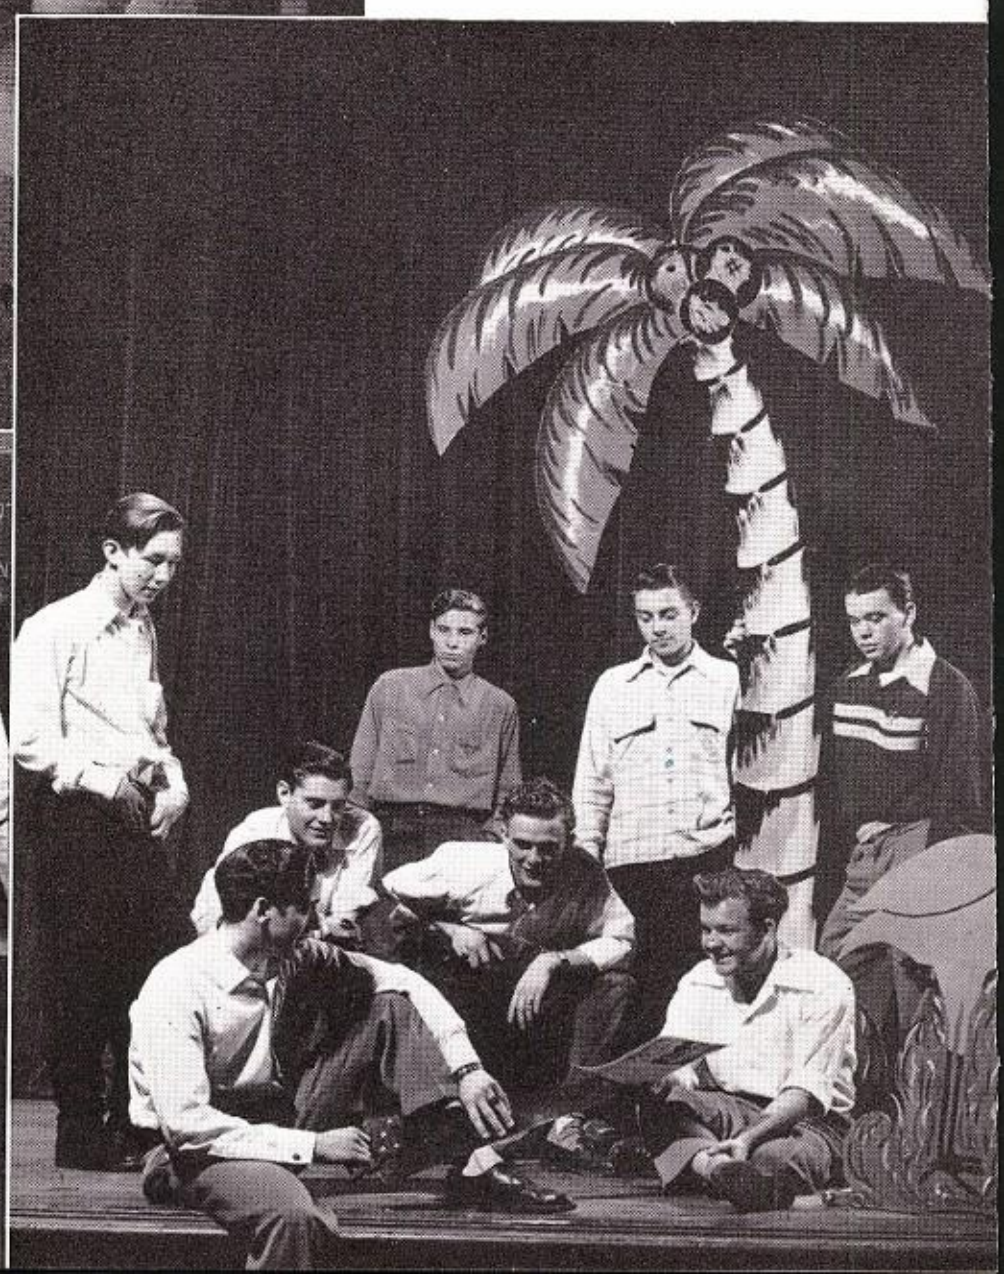
HOW CAN WE COMBIN

Dick Jones, Herb Wander, Holly Heinze, and Wayne Stephenson the officers of Jr. Student Council confer over their plans for the poster contest they sponsor every year promoting safety and courtesy in our school. At left we see it's time for the Jr. Student Council elections with the campaign in full swing.





ERVICE TO THE SCHOOL AND FAITHFULNESS IN ACADEMIC STUDIES?

Above Miss Bolan presents Cum Laude keys to the mid-year group of initiates consisting of: J. Bennet, J. Olson, R. Sinks, J. Abrose, H. Stevens, J. Falquet, J. Lehrner, E. Seivers, S. Pennington, J. Young, N. Sweet, B. Brewer, J. Leonard. To become a member of Cum Laude it is necessary to have fifteen academic credits with an average of 92 for the mid-year class and 89.5 for the class accepted at the end of the year.

Jane Conradi, David Behrens, Glena Carder, and Edward Sanning take time to inspect a film before its showing. The stagecrafters, R. Deitschle, D. Murheid, D. Betz, J. Baitz, C. Herrmann, C. Keller, and J. Miller talk over the plans for the lights and scenery for the Bandwagon. Our men behind the scenes play no small part in the successful production of our plays, and auditorium sessions as well as this year helping at the carnival.

HOW DO FRATERNITIES AND SORORITIES

In the first year of official recognition by the Cincinnati School Board, the fraternities and sororities of Western Hills made great strides toward the attainment of a goal justifying their existence. Under the guidance of Mr. McCartney and Miss Steinmetz, the Inter-fratority Council, composed of the presidents of each of the social organizations carefully and successfully co-ordinated the activities and membership procedures. The primary function of character development and the secondary one of providing a social outlet for high-schoolers is illustrated on the opposite page, by the representative clubs.

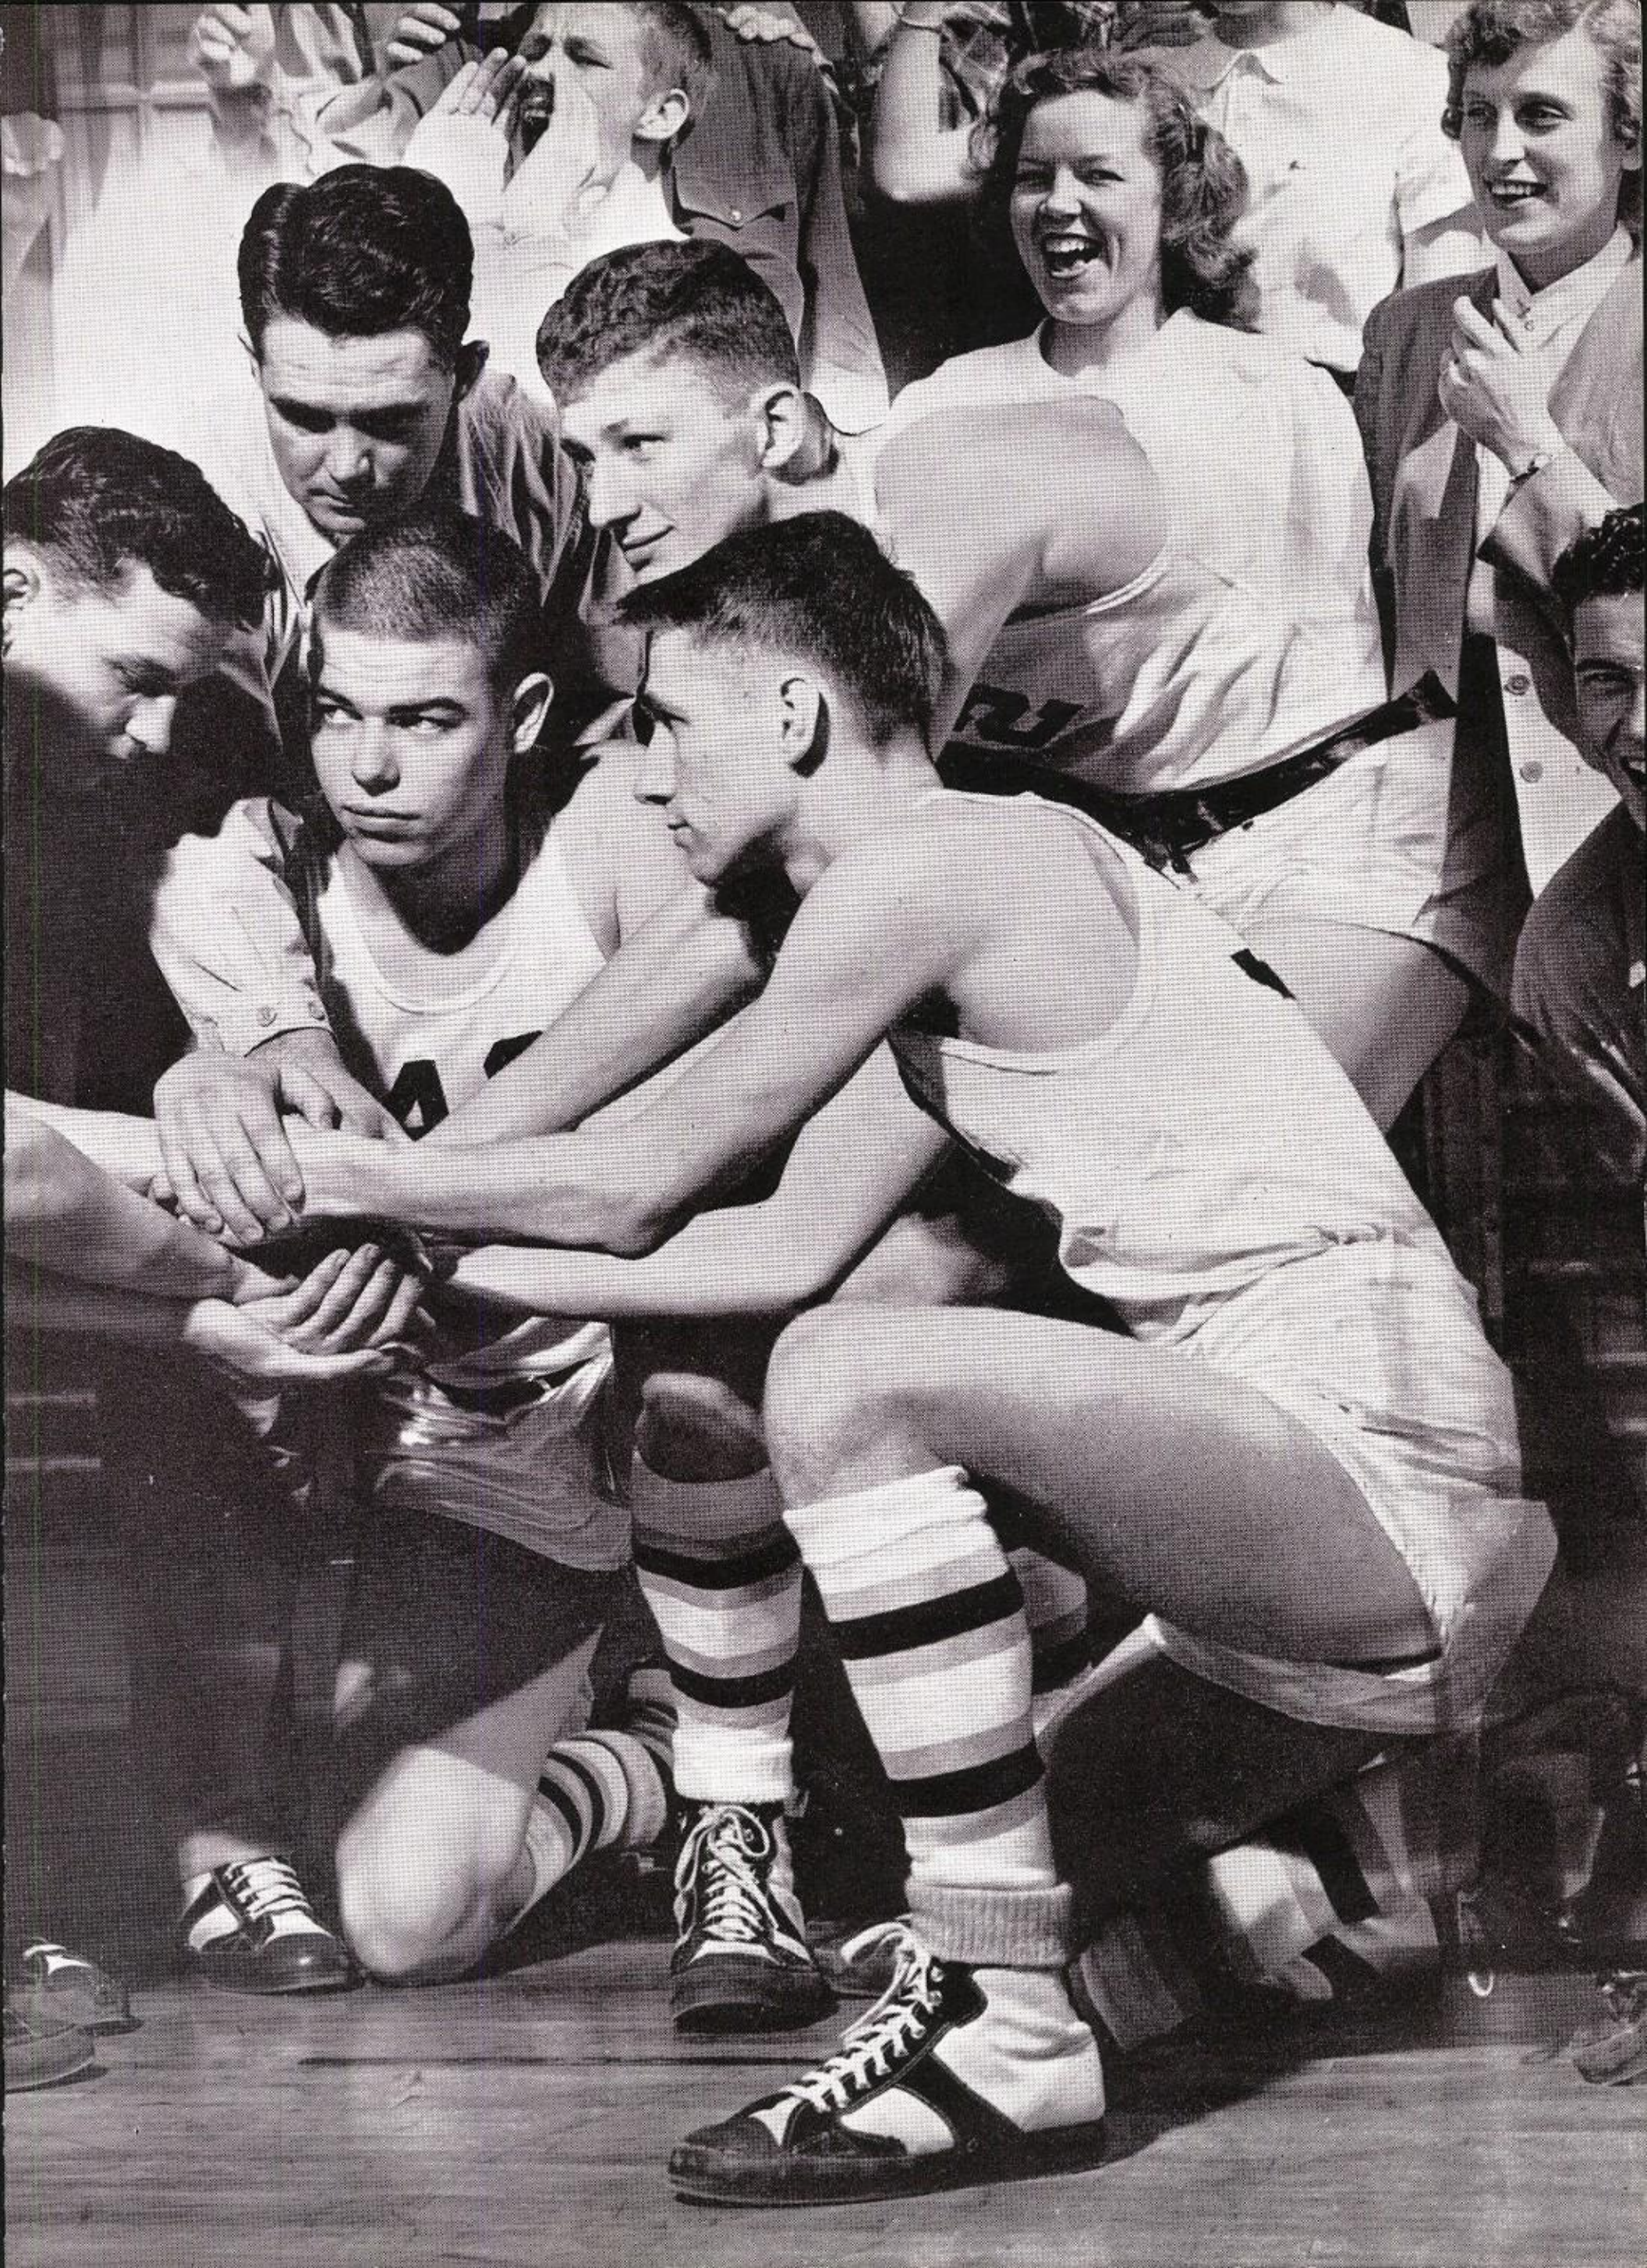
CONTRIBUTE TO THE WELFARE OF THE SCHOOL?

What is the cause of that thrilling spectacle, the inspired team, which somehow or other plays "better than it knows how"? Two plus two equals six. Unexplainably, new strength comes when each individual forgets himself for the good of the team and five men, nine men, or eleven men play as one. Seldom do we have a better example of the submersion of the "little self" for the good of the whole than in athletics. Somehow the desire for personal glory blends into the spirit of the group, the whole is greater than the sum of its parts. Who can deny that this is prayer in the highest sense . . .

. . . . THAT WE MAY WIN BY TEAM PLAY AND LOSE WITHOUT GRUDGES.



Under the master tutelage of Coaches Morgan and Clark, the gridiron gladiators of West Hi opened the season with a bang by upsetting up-state threat, Lima, 12-7. Managers Ken Beck, Bill Hummel, and Marlin Sammons followed the team through mud and snow.

CONFIDENCE, COURAGE, AND CO

These unsung heroes of the squad deserve much praise for a difficult job well done. After trouncing Aurora by 45-0, we suffered two stinging defeats at the hands of Purcell and St. Xavier, each a very potent eleven. With a desire not to be denied, our boys drew a breath, corrected their faults and aimed their sights at the Public High School League Crown. By humbling mighty Withrow, an important obstacle in the path of success was overcome. Then come the big high school doubleheader and we suffered an untimely set-back by Hughes.

OPERATION AGAIN BRING SUCCESS.

Seemingly rejuvenated, however, our determined eleven dug in and defeated Woodward, Central, and Walnut Hills to tie for the P.H.S.L. and defeated Elder to capture the mythical Price Hill Crown.

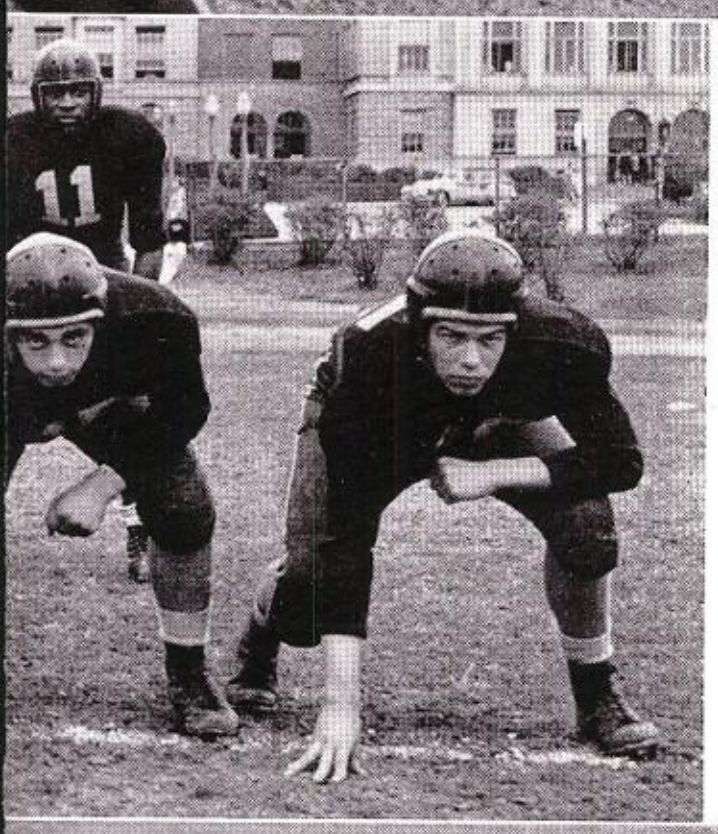
Beginning early every morning in August, continuing long, arid practices throughout the month really showed results for Coach Morgan's team. Small but willing, the squad shaped up into a well balanced team. With the stalwart forward wall of Jim Keller, Bob Hutzler, Jim Hearn, center Dick Donohoe, Charlie Coffaro, Paul Sess and end, Jim Stephenson, our flashy backs "Sug" Lower, Jim Parker and "Batch" Conatser constantly picked up yardage. The best ground gainer, according to statistics, was the play reproduced on the opposite page. Illustrating the hand-off from quarterback Chas. Stevens, the "Michigan 2" plows to paydirt!



Though all plays were not as fruitful as the one mentioned, our team did play well and the annual staff congratulates Coaches Morgan, Clark, and the team.

The Reserve team under the guidance of Coach Johnson, completed its third consecutive unbeaten season. The "Little Maroons" not only captured the Public High School Championship, but also claim the Greater Cincinnati Title. Winning six and tieing two, the future varsity squad boys are going to prove capable of living up to the fine name connected with the teams of Western Hills.

GOAL OF PARTICIPATING IN FUTURE VARSITY ACTION ON THE FIELD

The freshman squad concluded a very successful season, indicating that they are ready for reserve action next year. Under the tutoring of Coach French, the frosh hopefuls displayed their ability to adapt themselves to game conditions by a well balanced running attack and air tight defense.

Proving that fundamentals can win ball games, our elementary team came through with flying colors. Through hard practices, conducted by coaches Pollack and Reed, the "Midget Maroons" overcame the best in competition. The Varsity of "53" looks promising indeed, and to them we say "Keep it up, and good luck."

TEAM PLAY, PLENTY OF STUDENT SUPPORT, AND A UNITED SPIRIT

Team play was the intangible thing that won for this year's cross-country squad the district second position. With a love for running they are MacMahill, Lanzarotta, Sandlin, Bob Sinks, Jeremiah, Bilbrey, and Hoelsler.

Sponsored by coaches Morgan and McCartney the Maroon "W" is an exclusive organization of letter men that gives the athletes of West Hi their say in our sports agenda. They are shown below after electing J. Stephenson as prexy.

At every game through sleet, snow and mud, our cheerleaders completed the task of igniting the spark of student spirit. Without them the enthusiasm and atmosphere created by a student body so necessary for success would have been lacking. To the unsung heroes of "Spirit Inc."
the annual staff extends its praise.

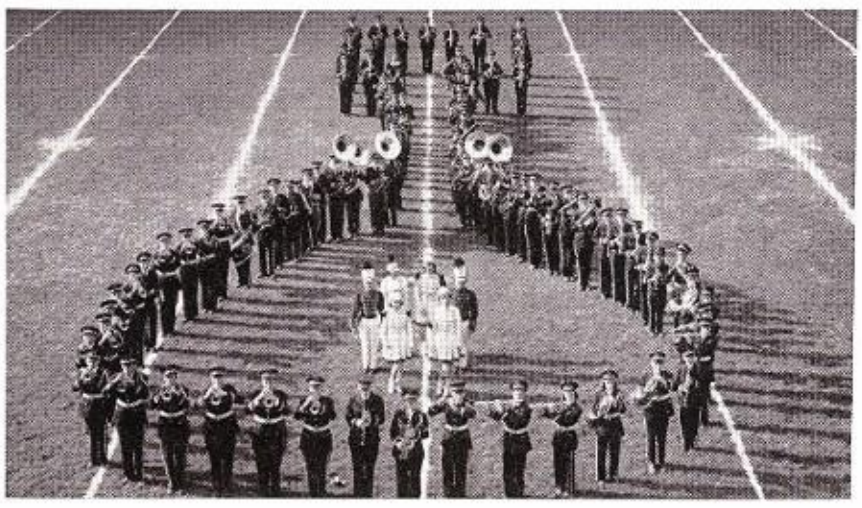
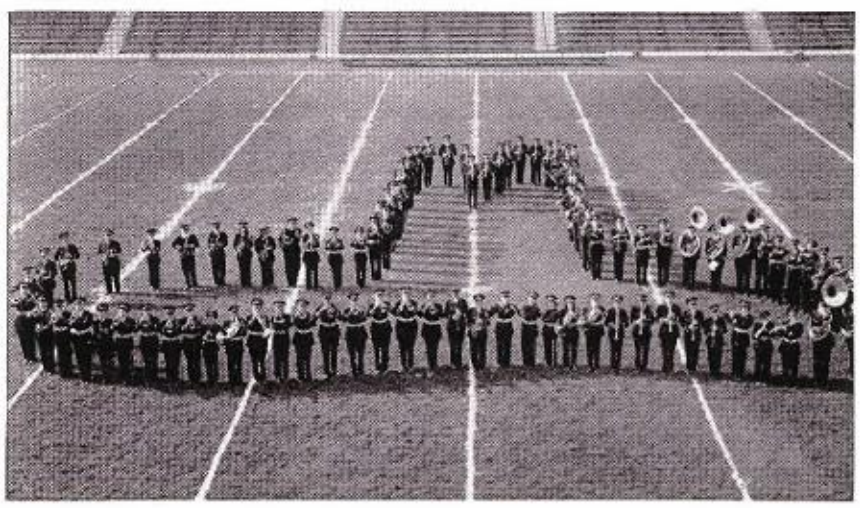
''THIS IS MY COUNTRY, LAND OF MY BIRTH

It never ceases to be a thrilling sight to see the Western Hills Band one hundred strong, march down the football field in precise step led by the vivacious drum majors and majorettes. Under the capable direction of Mr. Andrew Brady, West Hi's band has risen to the position as one of the best marching bands in the city.



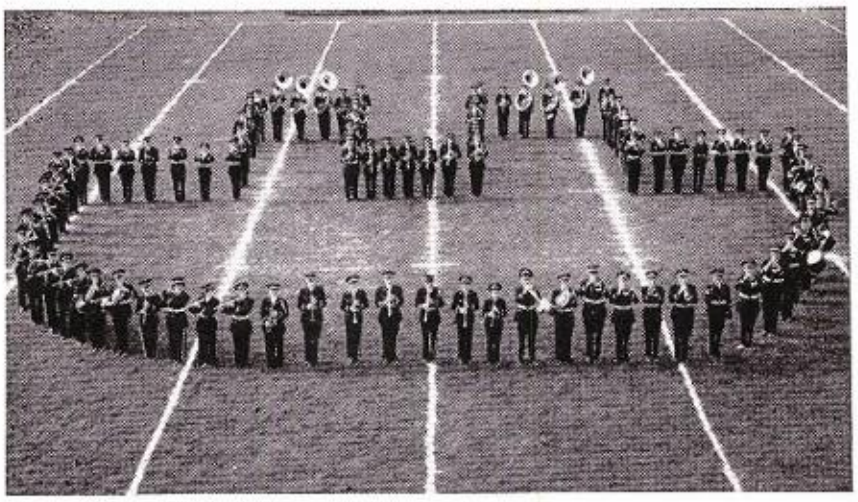
Here the band pays tribute to the South with its huge plantations and cotton pickers strumming Southern ballads on their banjos.



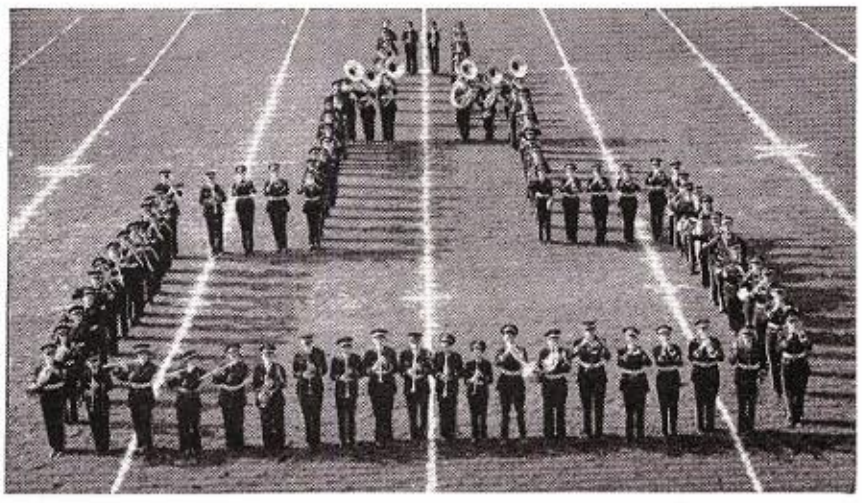
The band salutes the West with its rodeo's, cattle ranches, and colorful cowboys with their bright silk shirts and ten-gallon hats.

THIS IS MY COUNTRY, GRANDEST ON EARTH''

Our band is known for its clever formations which usually center around a theme. A few of the more popular formations were: the U.S.A. set which is pictured here, the United Nations set, the Travel set which boasted a steamboat with smoke pouring from its smoke stacks, and the Circus set which had no less than three rings of entertainment.



The band pays tribute to the North with its great lakes and mighty steamboats and coal barges; the North that's famous for its forests.



With the formation of a skyscraper the band salutes the East with its large cities that buzz with activity and bristle with tall buildings.

ENTHUSIASM, SPORTSMANSHIP, AND GOOD TIMES MAKE SPORTS

The Girls' Athletic Association promotes leadership, sportsmanship, and good health. G.A.A. gives every girl the opportunity to improve her mind and body, to widen her scope of friends through sports. The G.A.A. Board holds the legislative power of the association. Pictured above are the girls chosen to lead the organization because of their ability and their interest in sports. They are W. Heinold, E. Frank, J. Aneshansel, L .Klein, P. Schrader, M. Butler, A. COMPETITIVE-SPIRITED GIRLS TURN OUT FOR HOCKEY.

Cold days and sunny days alike, many girls turned out to play hockey. It took many hours of practice to perfect the technique of dribbling, passing, and stopping the hockey ball. This year the girls had the experience of a new coach, Miss Dick. She was helped out by Lois Klein, capable hockey manager. A hockey playday was held, with Western Hills girls as hostesses, at Oskamp's playfield. West Hi entered eight teams which made a good showing. A class team tournament was played with the senior team victors, but the juniors followed close behind.

A SPORT WHICH DEVELOPS INDIVIDUAL AND TEAM PLAY.

The A-1 team traveled to Withrow for a dual hockey game. Although it was an exciting match, the score finally ended in a tie 2-2. Also the girls spent an afternoon at Wyoming but took a defeat of 5-3. At the hockey supper it was announced that Mary Planck would serve as next year's manager. At the left N. Sweet, goalie, receives assistance putting on her shin guards from S. Pennington, S. Lee, and G. McNamee. Also pictured on these pages are girls practicing and scrimmaging.

WITH AN INHERITED WILL, WE ARE ONCE AGAIN P.H.S.L. CO-CHAMPS.

Composed for the greater part of under-classmen, the Mid-Century Hoopsters faired well this season. Enjoying a clean sweep of the best teams in the state at the Lima tournament, the squad returned home and set-back Central 44-35. Continuing steadily onward the team battled to the wire with Walnut Hills and finished the season co-champs with them, amassing a total of 895 points to their opponents 840. The team is pictured below. They are sitting: Lane, Conaste, Schultz, Wagner, Stevens, Marego, Tenneholtz; standing: Coach Clark, Mgr. Hughlett, York, Waskey, Condorotis, Stephenson, Condorotis, and Harold Ott, managers.

FIVE BOYS COMPRISING ONLY ONE TEAM!

Shown on this page are the nuclei of our hardwood squad. Led by All-City Jim Stephenson, who garnered 288 points this season, the boys made us proud. Hats off to five co-ordinated players.

UNDERCLASSMEN GAIN VALUABLE EXPERIENCE THE HARD WAY.

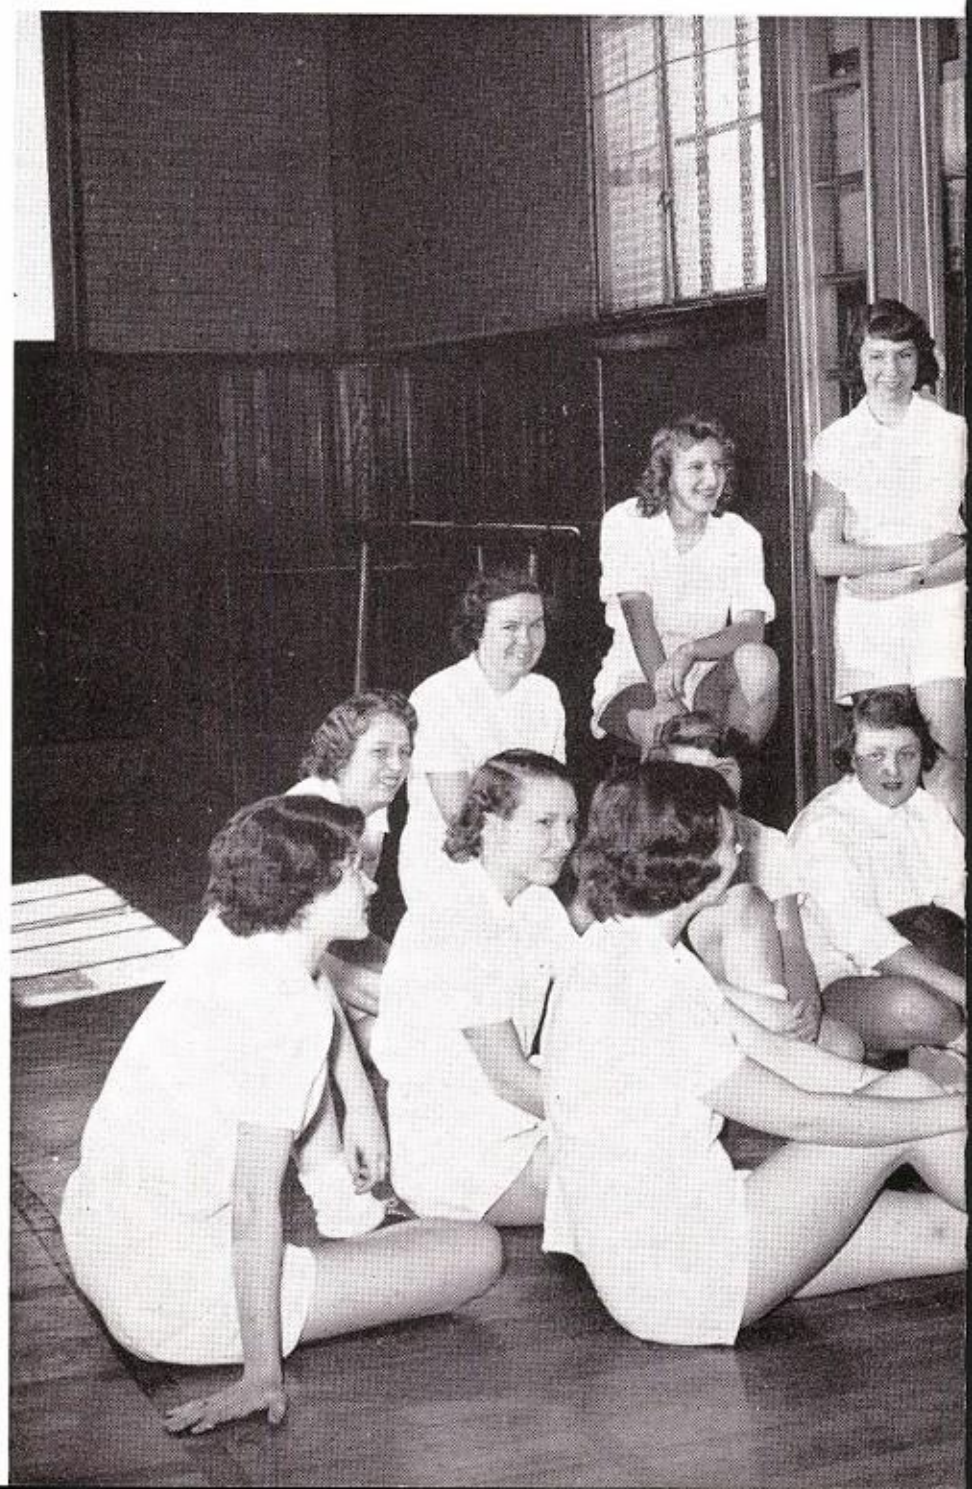
The reserve basketball squad this past season may have suffered a majority of defeats but Coach Jim Clark sees a good future in his "Little Maroons". Although they did not place in the Public High School League, the boys did wallop Walnut Hills, Hughes, Withrow and Norwood. Best news of all, however, came after the second-year men edged Elder by two points, 23-21. Returning to home court after nosing upstate Hillsboro by one point, the tables were turned and we lost to powerful Purcell, 39-38. Phil Wheeler with his fine rebounding technique, Sonny Lower and his push shots, and Jimmy Williams' ball handling will certainly make next year's varsity hardwood five a P.H.S.L. threat again. Pictured below is this year's squad. They are seated: D. Shipman, L. Canada, Lower, Morgan, Williams, Franks, Sweet; Standing: Fox, Leisher, Wheeler, Schnabel, Baas, Lampe, and Ed Koester manager.

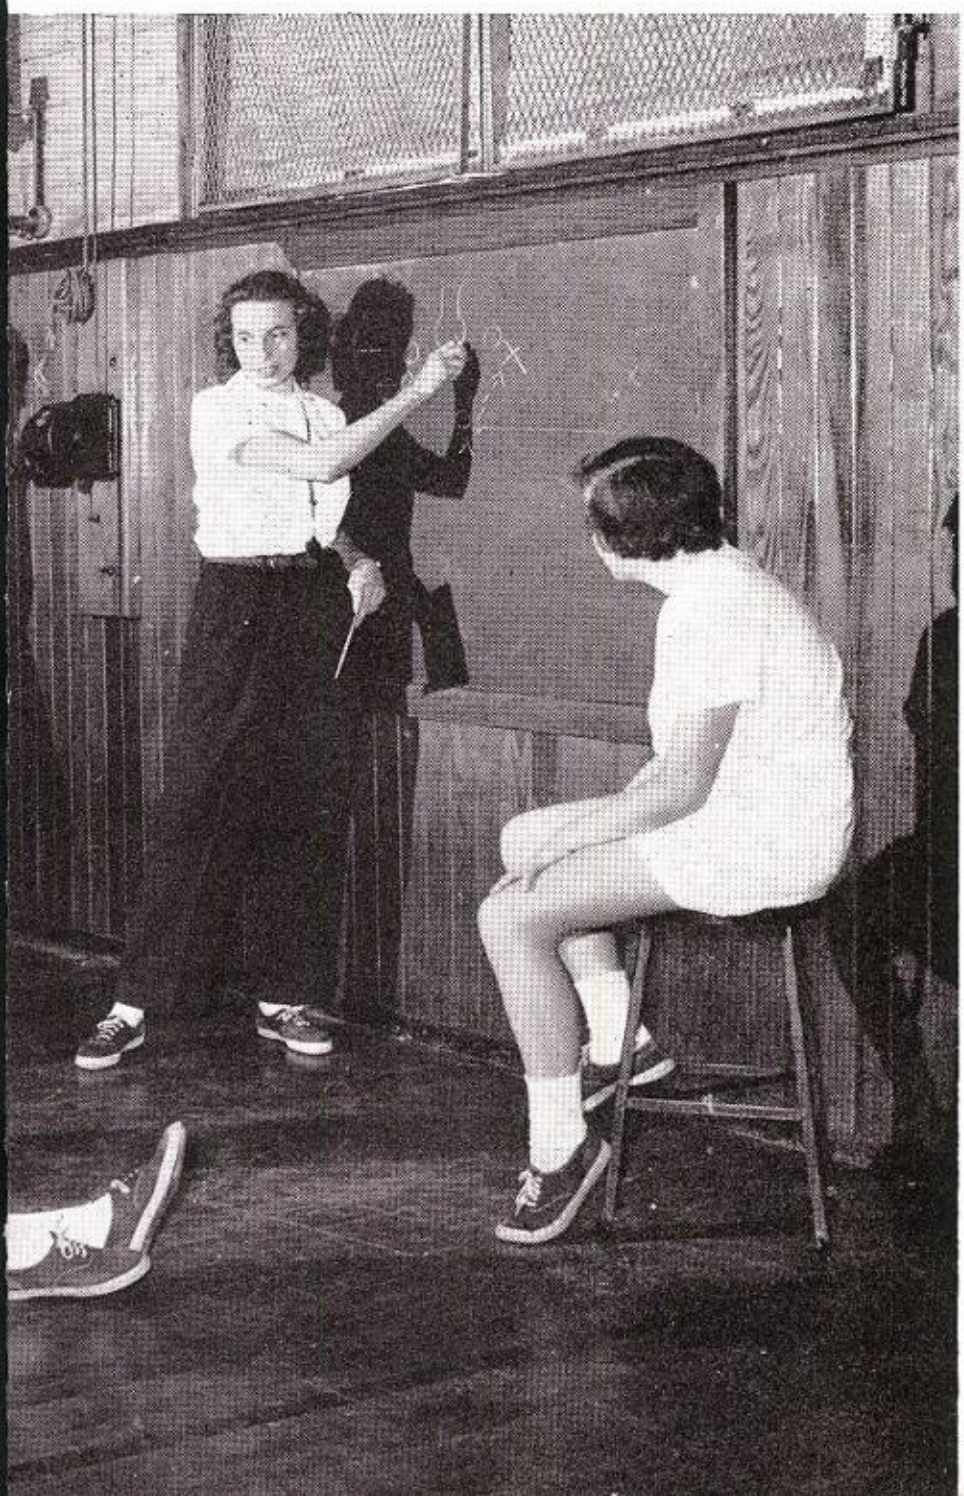
The first year men showed much improvement over their rookie-squad play of last year. By running a close race with Woodward for league honors, the frosh displayed their determination of wanting to win. Beating Walnut Hills, Central, and several teams from other cities, the freshmen managed to place second in league play. After taking nine of 23 games, the squad stands: L. Payne, D. Ruerhwein, F. Schuch, B. York, J. Schneider, H. Contant, B. Brennen, J. Morgan, R. Hoffer, B. Lack.

Taking their first stride and a very optimistic one, are Capt. Heckman, Hotel, Harper Rothenbush, Ober, Schmaltz, Olsson, Renner, Nichols, Beiler, Gies, Conners, Zapf and Alexander, our future varsity of '55. Coached by Mr. Reed and Mr. Pollack, these boys can hold their own in any game.

TEAMWORK MAKES PLAYING WORTHWHILE

Nancy Sweet, basketball manager, and Miss Dick, coach, had much to do when many girls from all grades enthusiastic about basketball came out on Wednesdays and Thursdays to play. An intramural tournament was played. Nancy and Miss Dick chose the girls to play on the class teams. The seniors won the class team games with the Juniors runners up. The advanced team made up of girls chosen for their outstanding ability and sportsmanship received advanced coaching and made up the A-1 team which competes with teams from other schools.





PRACTICE MAKES FOR SMOOTH PLAYING

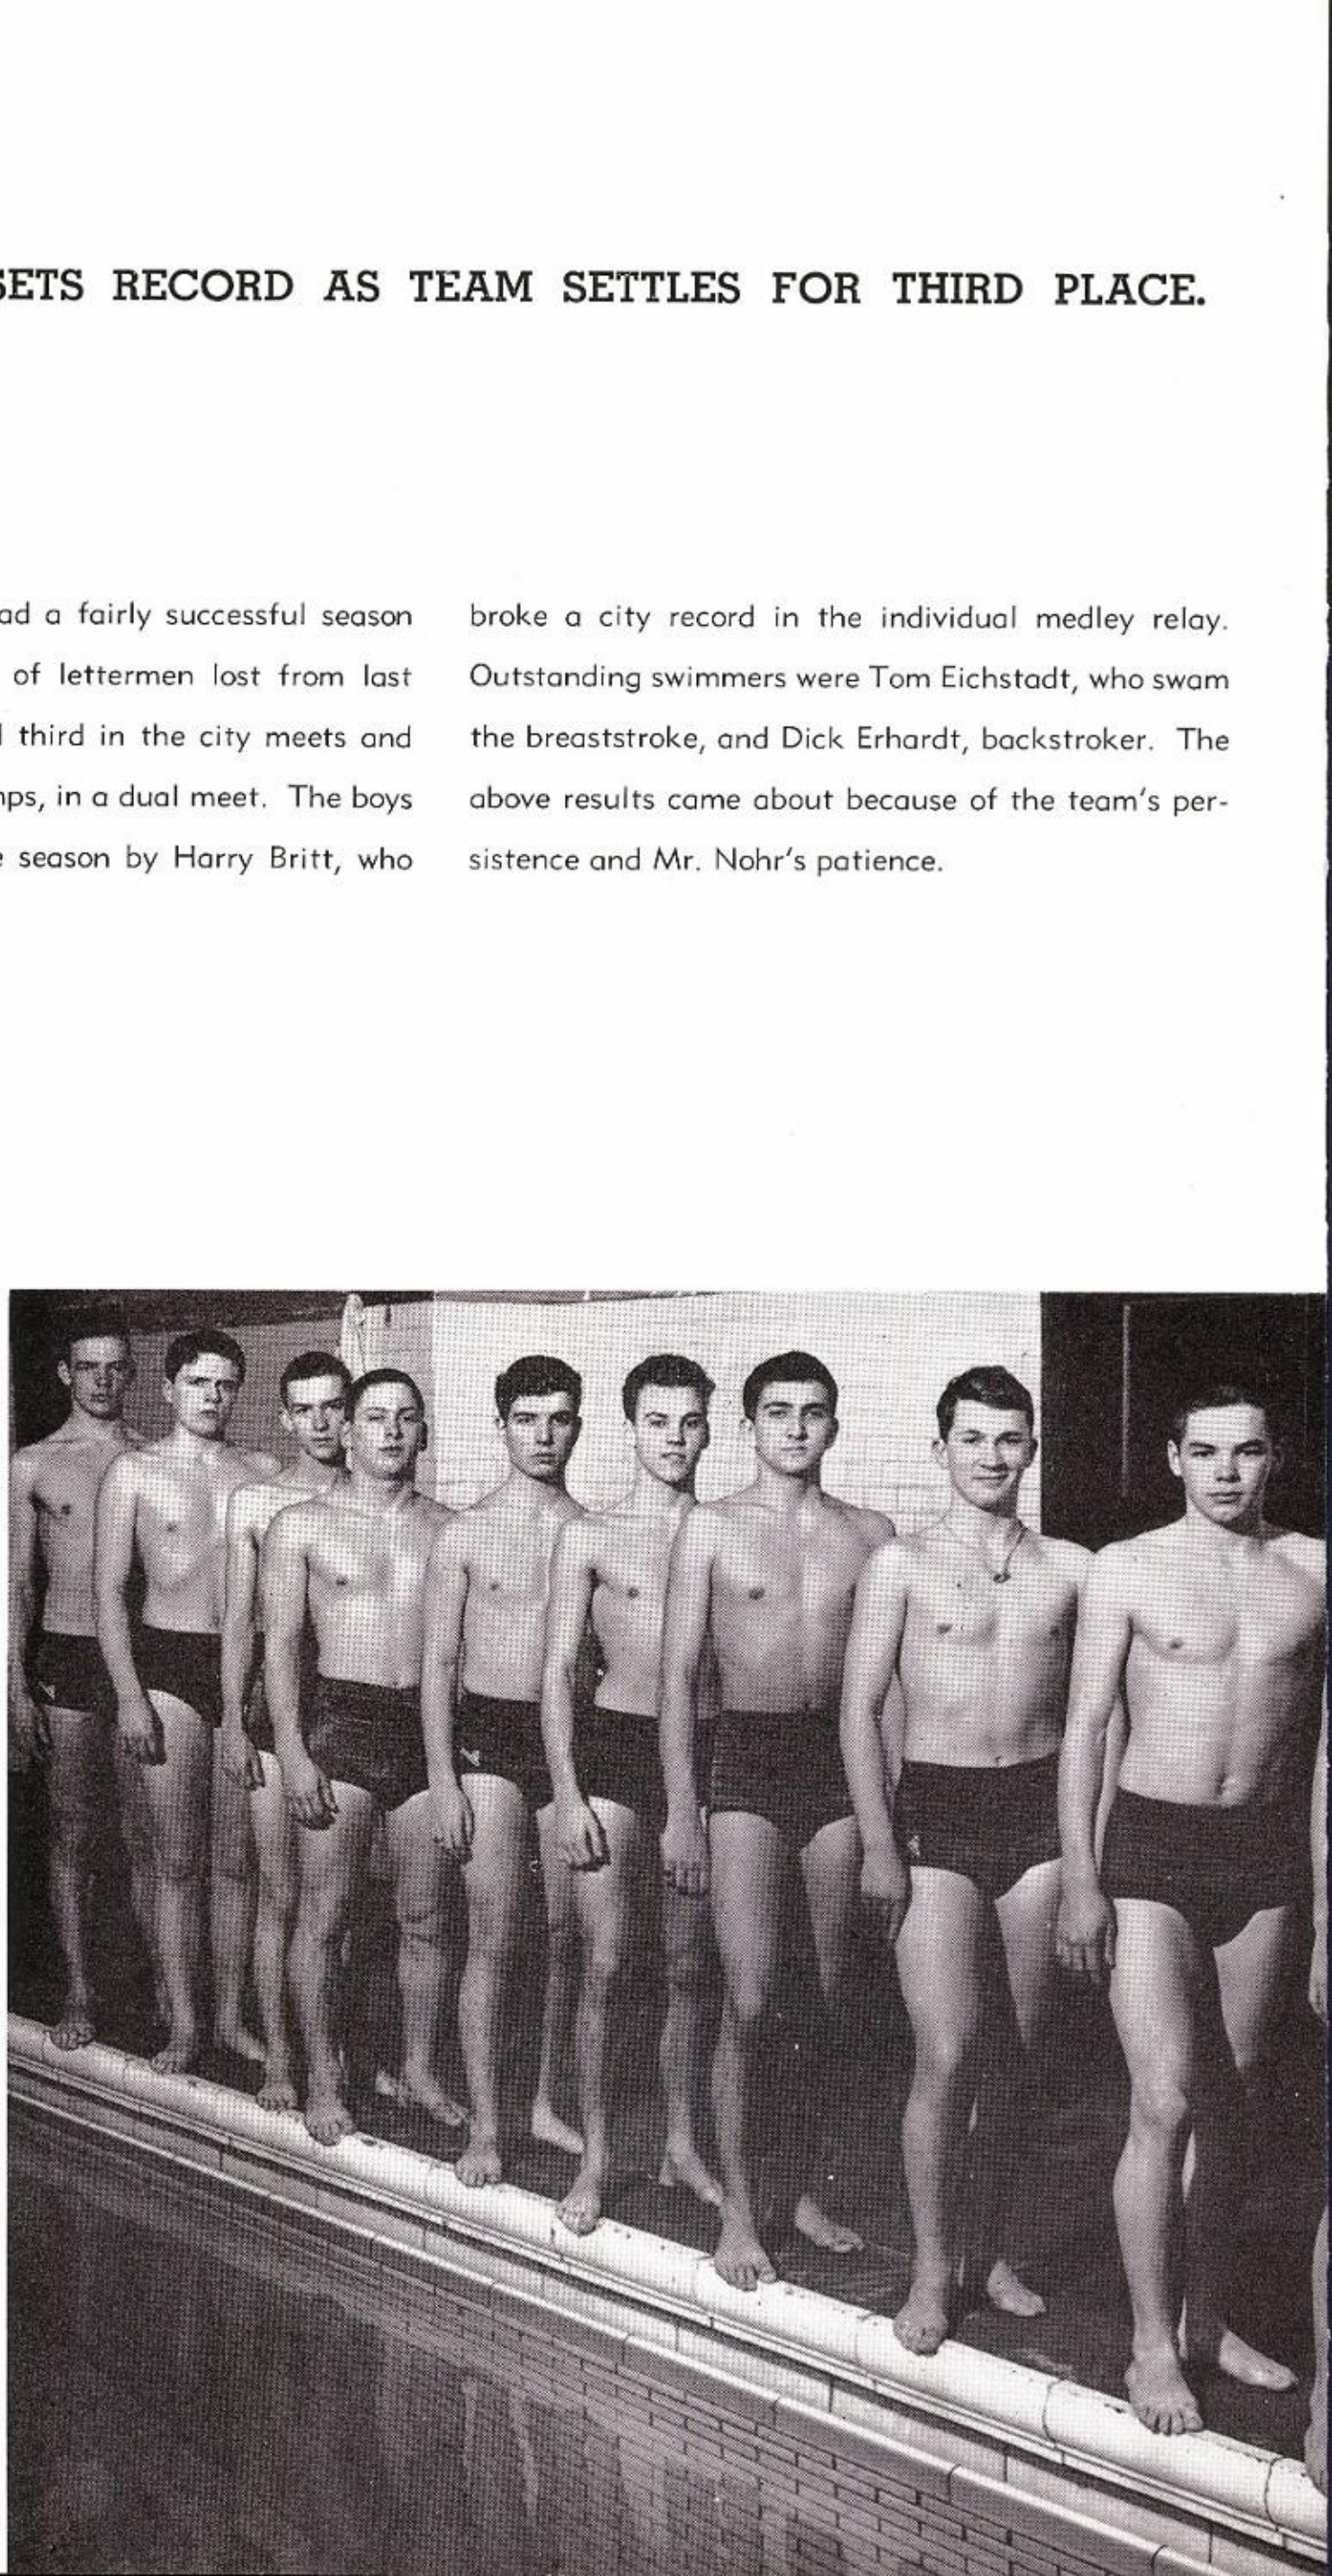
A playday was held this year on March 10. Six teams were sent to Walnut Hills and Withrow to represent Western Hills. Each team played two games and out of the twelve games played, Western Hills won eight of them. The A-1 team beat Withrow 12-11 and Walnut Hills 35-5. The basketball supper was held April 4, and an alum game was played afterwards. Pictured on the opposite page is a jump ball between S. Lee and S. Beckel. Above, S. Lee passes off to M. Gies as J. Knecht guards her. At the left, Miss Dick is giving a chalk talk.

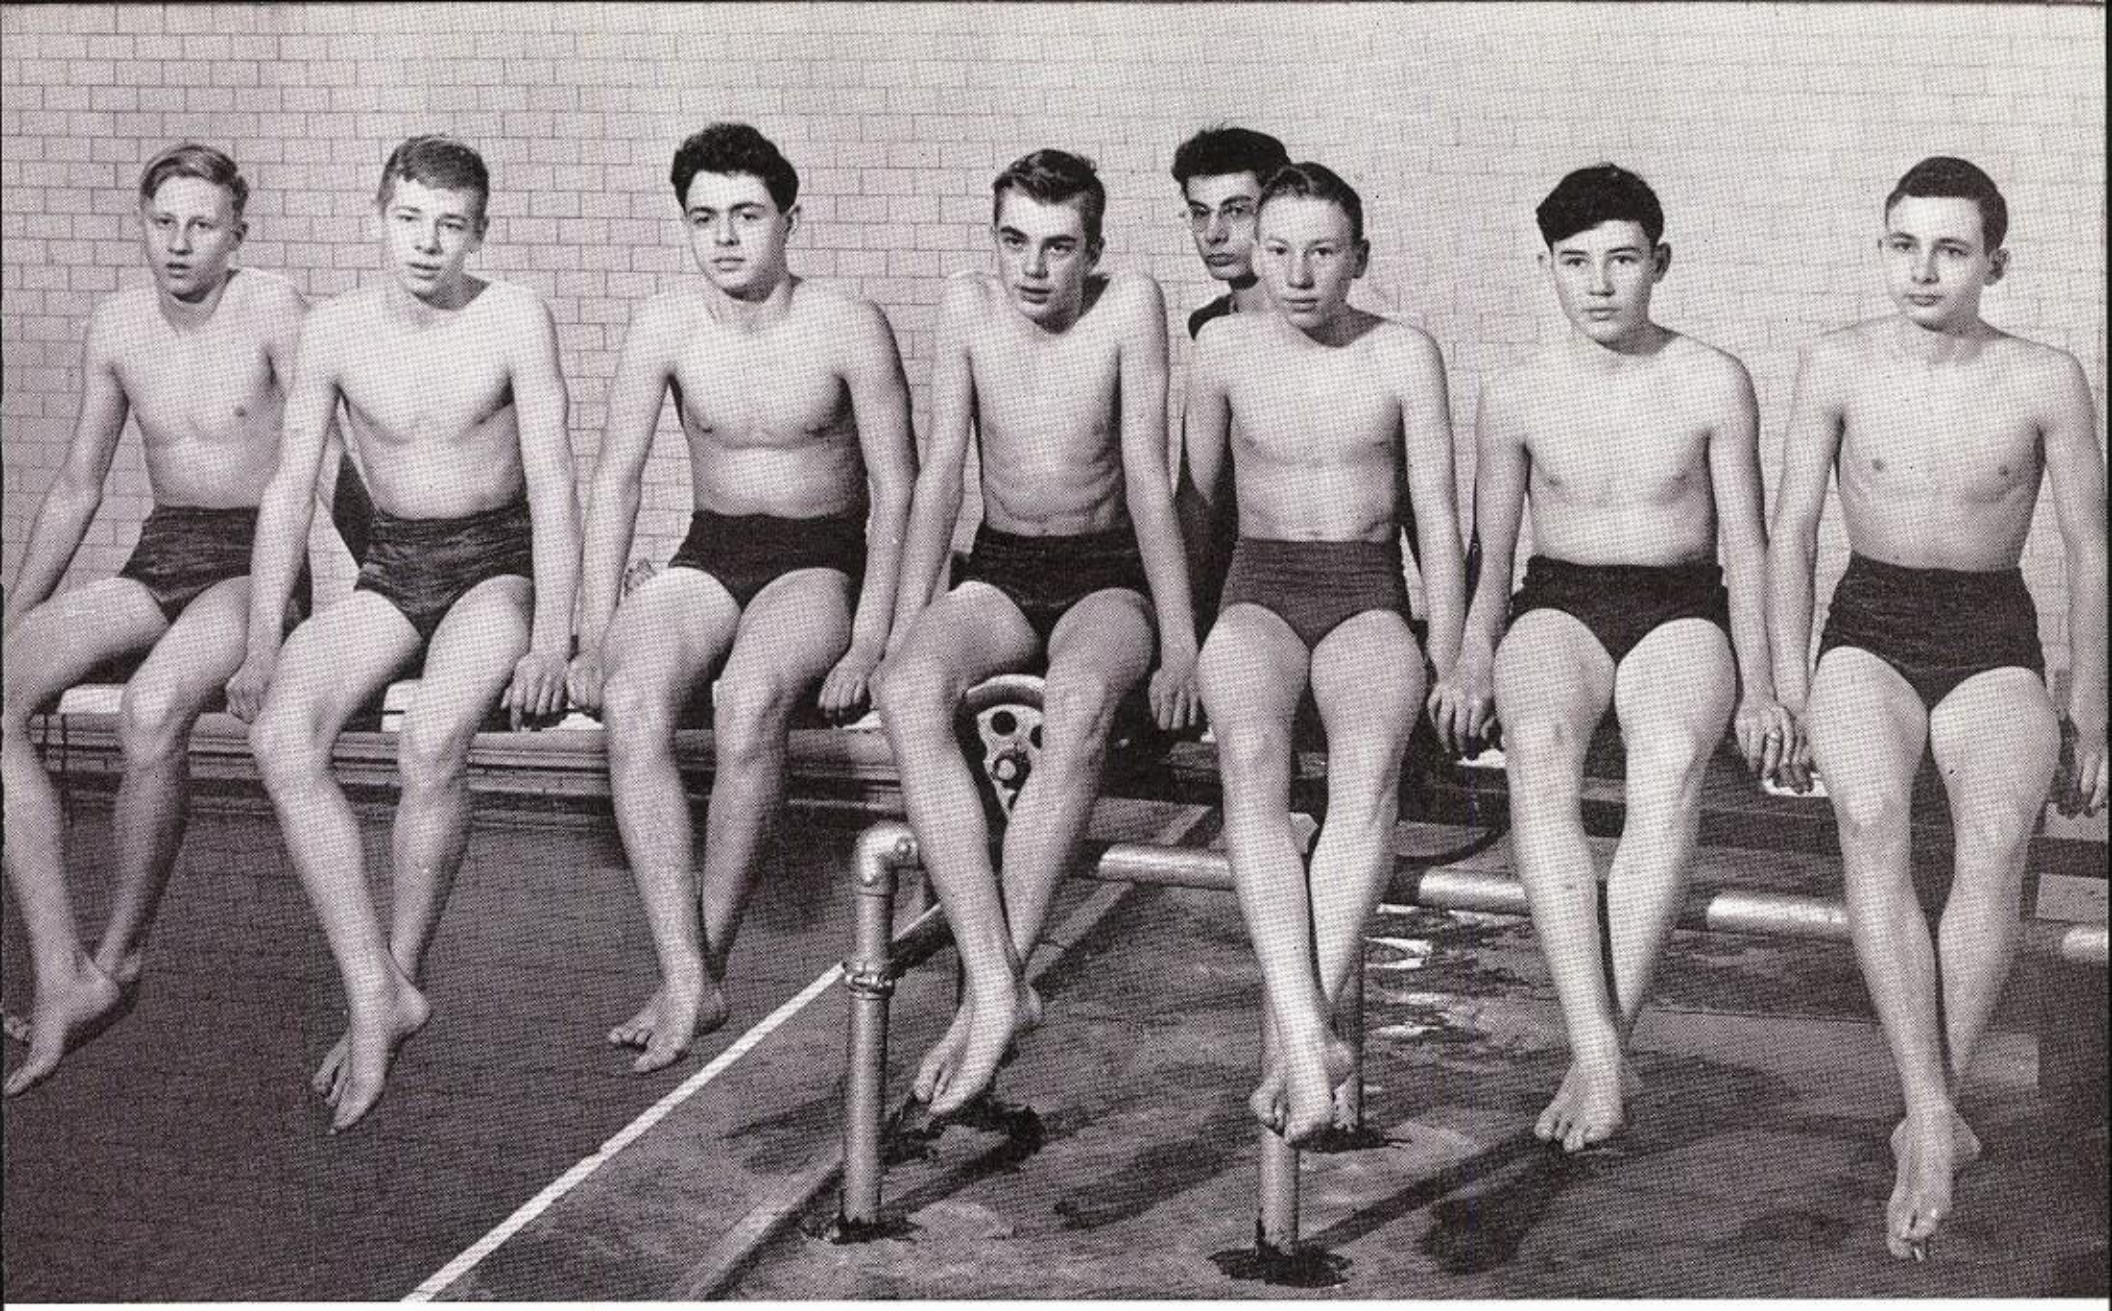
BARRY BRITT SETS RECORD AS TEAM SETTLES FOR THIRD PLACE.

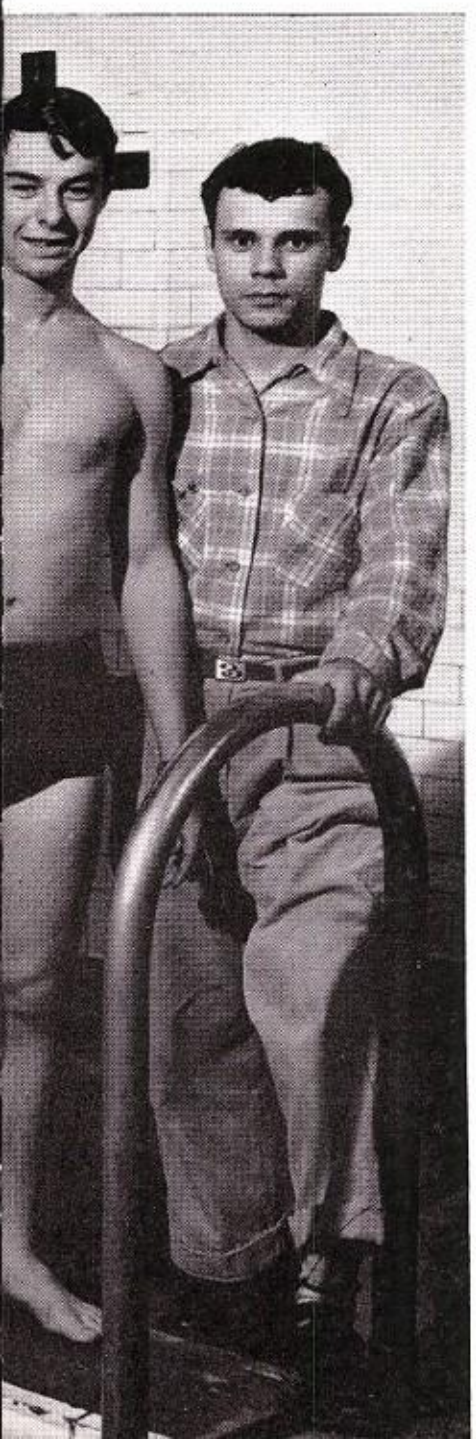
The '50 Nohrmen had a fairly successful season considering the number of lettermen lost from last year's team. We placed third in the city meets and tied Purcell, G.C.L. champs, in a dual meet. The boys were led throughout the season by Harry Britt, who broke a city record in the individual medley relay. Outstanding swimmers were Tom Eichstadt, who swam the breaststroke, and Dick Erhardt, backstroker. The above results came about because of the team's persistence and Mr. Nohr's patience.

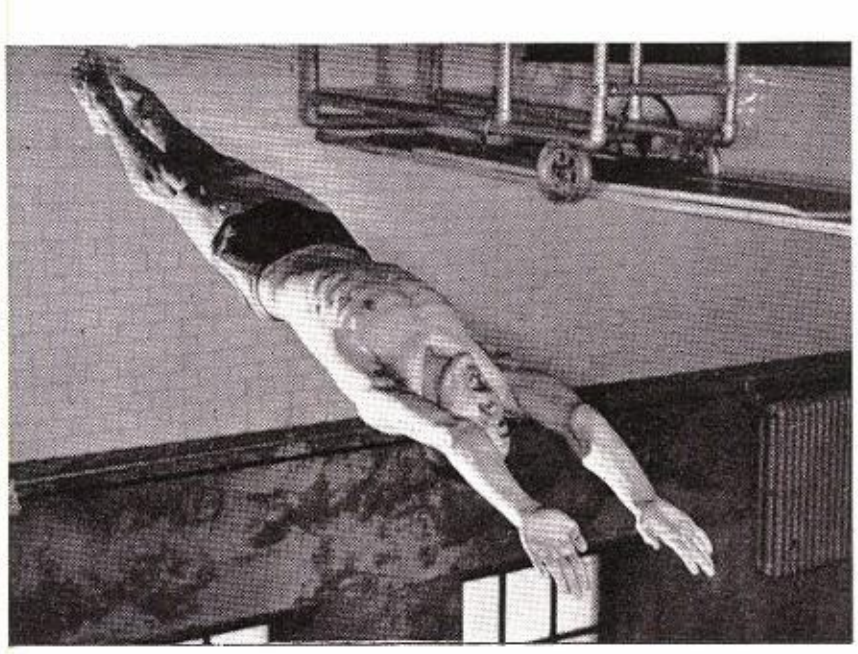
Mgr. Burk, Streibig, Brauer, Erhardt, Renner, Eichstadt, Kolde, Smith, Heele, and Britt, pose for their portrait as the muscle men of this year's varsity swimmers, under the able coaching of Mr. Nohr.

On the opposite page is seen the Reserve swimming squad, composed of Zuverink, Brown, Hodges, Dunn, Mgr. Yost, Bicknaver, Hibbard, and Brauer. They look forward to the keen competition on future Varsities.









Our agile champion, Barry Britt, gulps some air as he plunges toward another record-breaker.

Tom Eichstadt, Dick Erhardt, and Dick Brauer were instrumental in making a successful team.

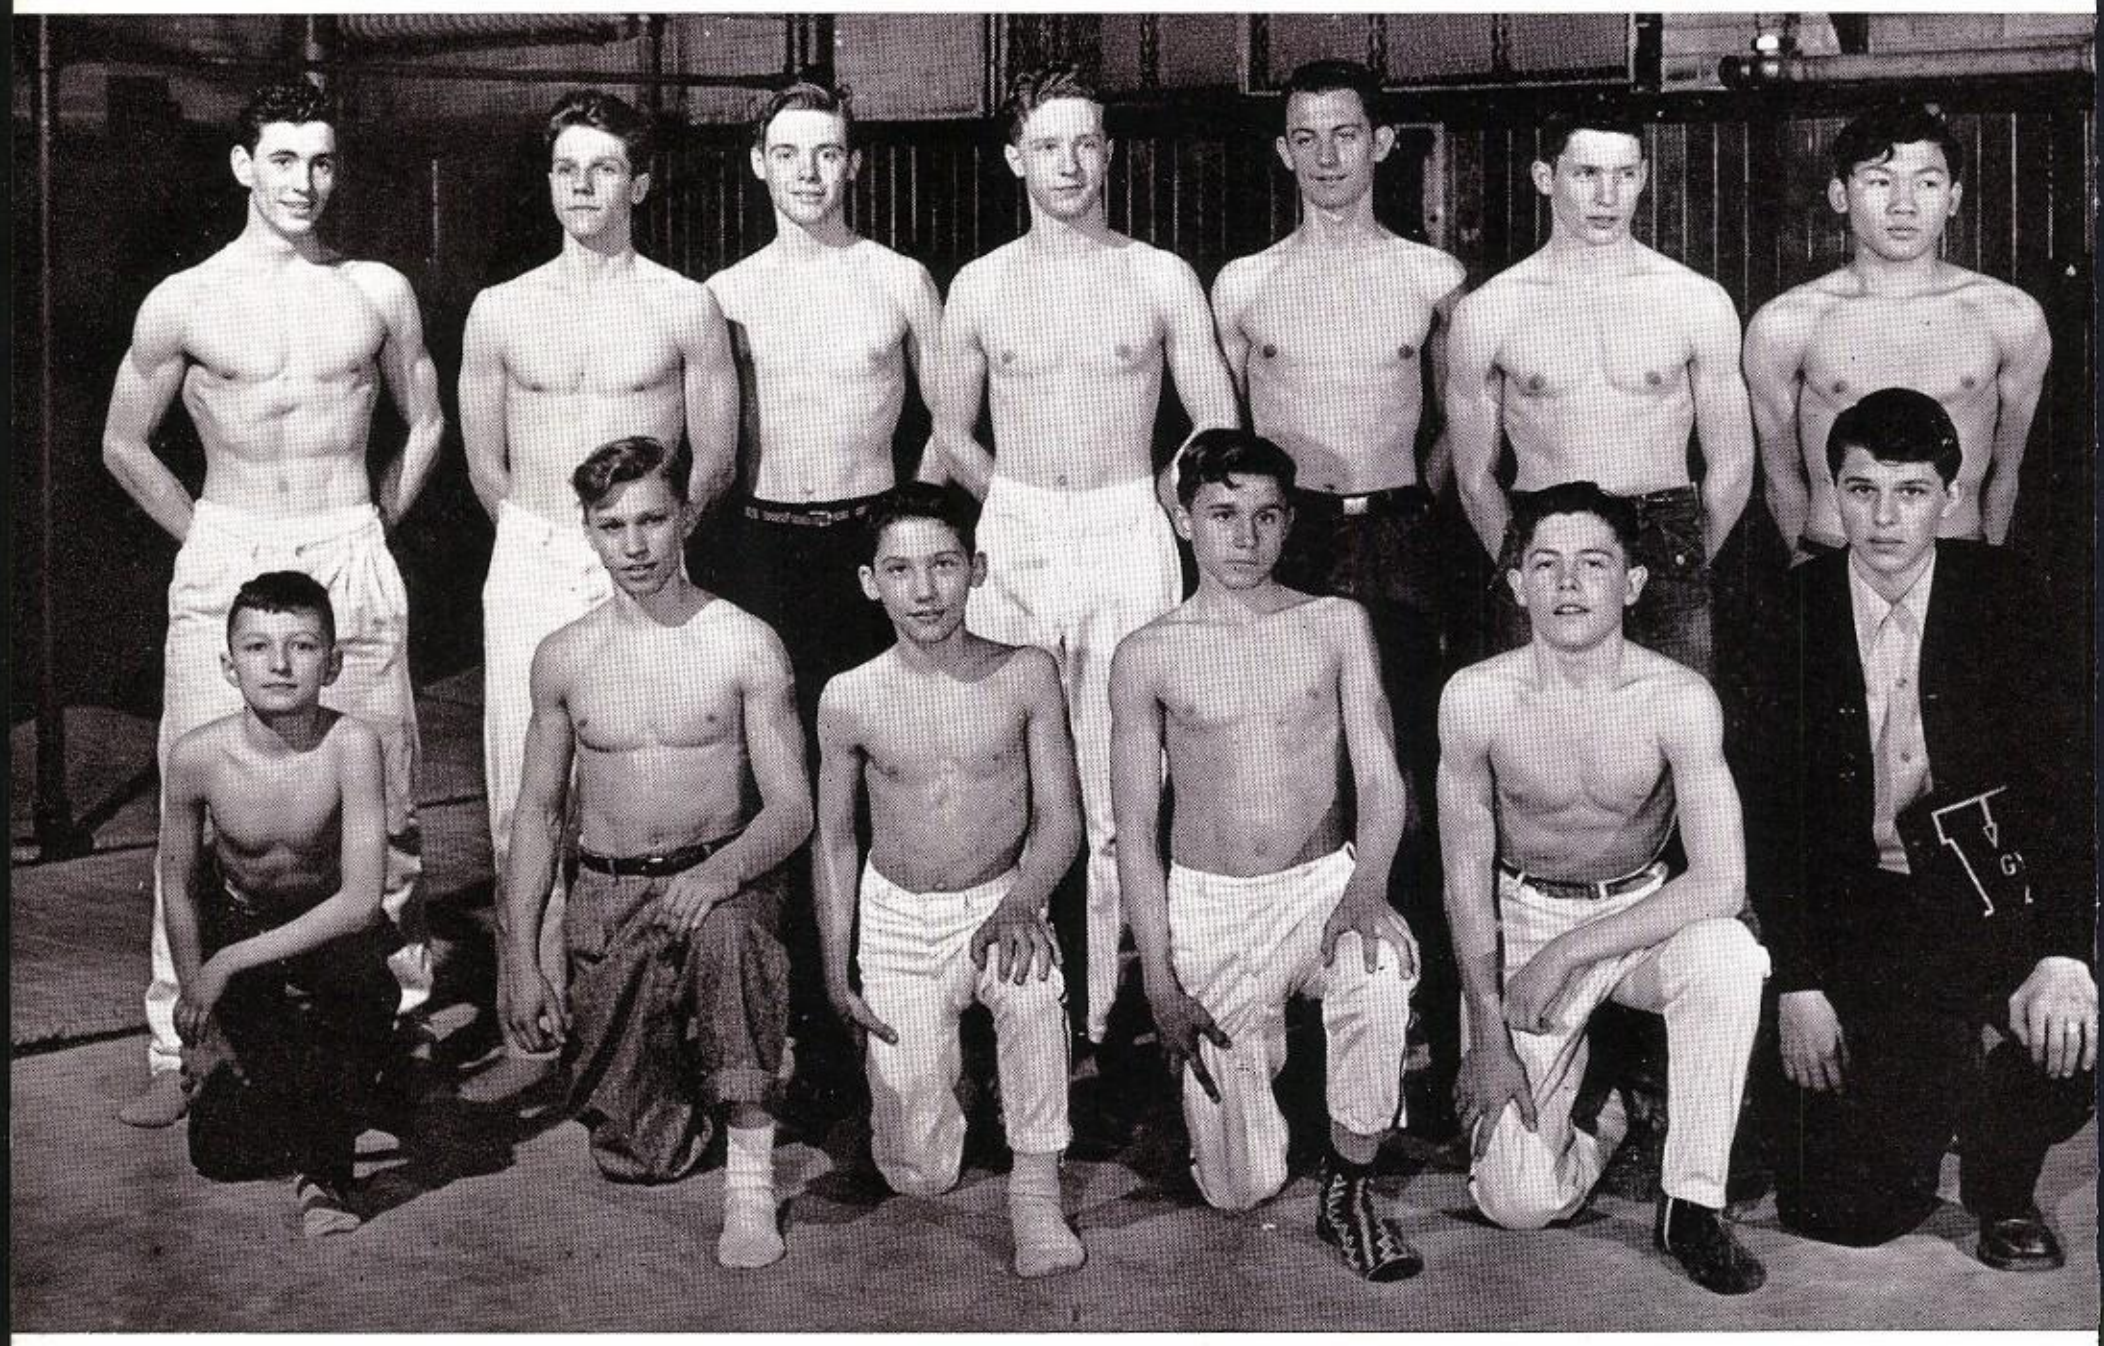
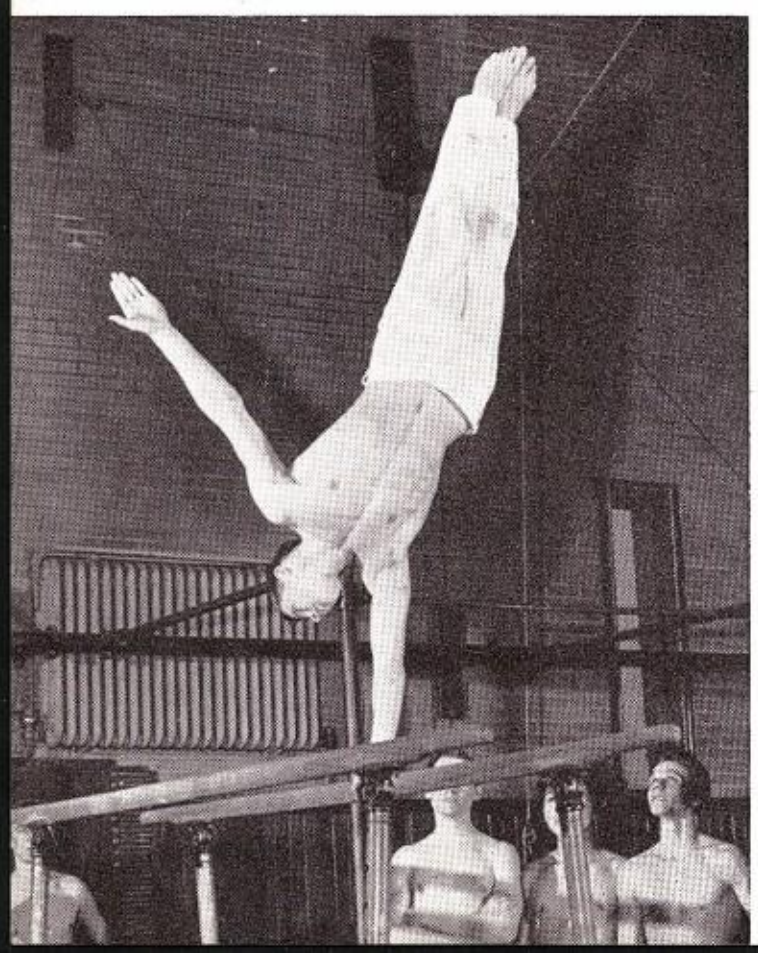
for meets and the third is water polo. Joan Falquet, swimming manager, along with the life saving corps help Miss Witte, swimming instructor, plan the years' activities and get ready for the city-wide playday meet. Western Hills came out on top this year with fifty four points.

The life saving corps listens to Miss Witte. Above P. Brill and N. Woodall finish a race. Below N. Hall takes a lesson in diving and J. Aneshansel and R. Meininger test the water.

MAROON MUSCLEMEN BOLSTER OUR HOPES FOR FUTURE MAT SUCCESS

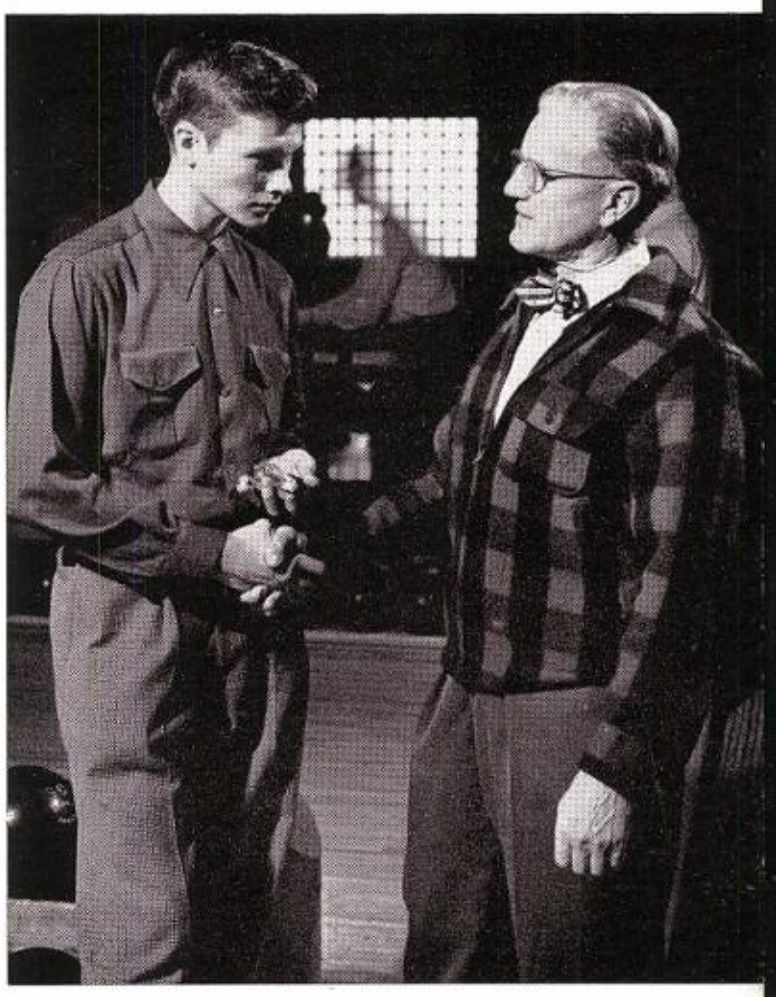




Each year looks better to Coach Harry French and his gym team. With last season's standing of second place, our "tough, but oh so gentle" matmen were determined to make a better showing this year. Each morning throughout the season our "stout-hearted" men trekked to school an hour early to squeeze in the important practice so neccessary for co-ordinated gymnastics. Those who won second place and showed promise are, to the rt. E. Adams; below kneeling: Doerman, Huelsman, Vogel, McClain, Hodges, James; standing: Miller, Duke, Quimby, Loughry, Adams, and Yamaguchi.

LED BY ERV HOINKE OUR BOWLERS CAPTURE ANOTHER CHAMPIONSHIP

They did it again! Eight consecutive Public High School Bowling championships can be claimed by our Maroon keglers. Led by Captain Erv Hoinke, who sparked our bowlers for four years and who this year was elected vice-president of the American Junior Bowling Congress, our squad placed first in the city, first in the state and fifth in the nation. In competing for national honors, Dick Wallace, another stalwart of the team, rated top national honors for individual bowling and Erv Hoinke placed third. Coached by Mr. McCartney, they are E. Hoinke, E. Wund, D. Wallace, Muth, and Lammers.



SPRING BREAKS AND OUR GOLFERS TEE-OFF FOR THE P.H.S.L. CROWN.

Seeing the golfers practicing behind school is a good sign spring is here. With Erv Hoinke and Dave Wagner leading the way, our student golfers feel confident and enthusiastic over the season's possibilities. Spending hours on the greens perfecting their form and hoping some day to consistantly shoot in the low scores are John Pottschmidt, Richard Halloran, Bill Mueller, Don Duke, and Ed Koester. Coach George Sting's golf squad, as the annual went to press, had experienced only one match and came through successfully defeating Roger Bacon. We know that as the season progresses, the team will have success.

Best of Luck

NET ENTHUSIASTS ANSWER COACH POLLACK'S SUMMONS TO THE COURTS.

The loss of key men and adverse weather conditions put the tennis squad at a disadvantage at the beginning of the season. Although there were five returning lettermen, the team got off to a poor start. Ken Weiss, the leading veteran, had to step into the tough first singles spot. Wes Lampe, the second singles man showed quite a bit of improvement over last year and a lot is expected from him in his two remaining years. For the two double positions, Coach Pollack used various combinations from five boys: Stan Rammes, Erv Hoinke, Jim Young, Don Winter, and Dwight Smith. G. Winters rounded out this year's fine squad.

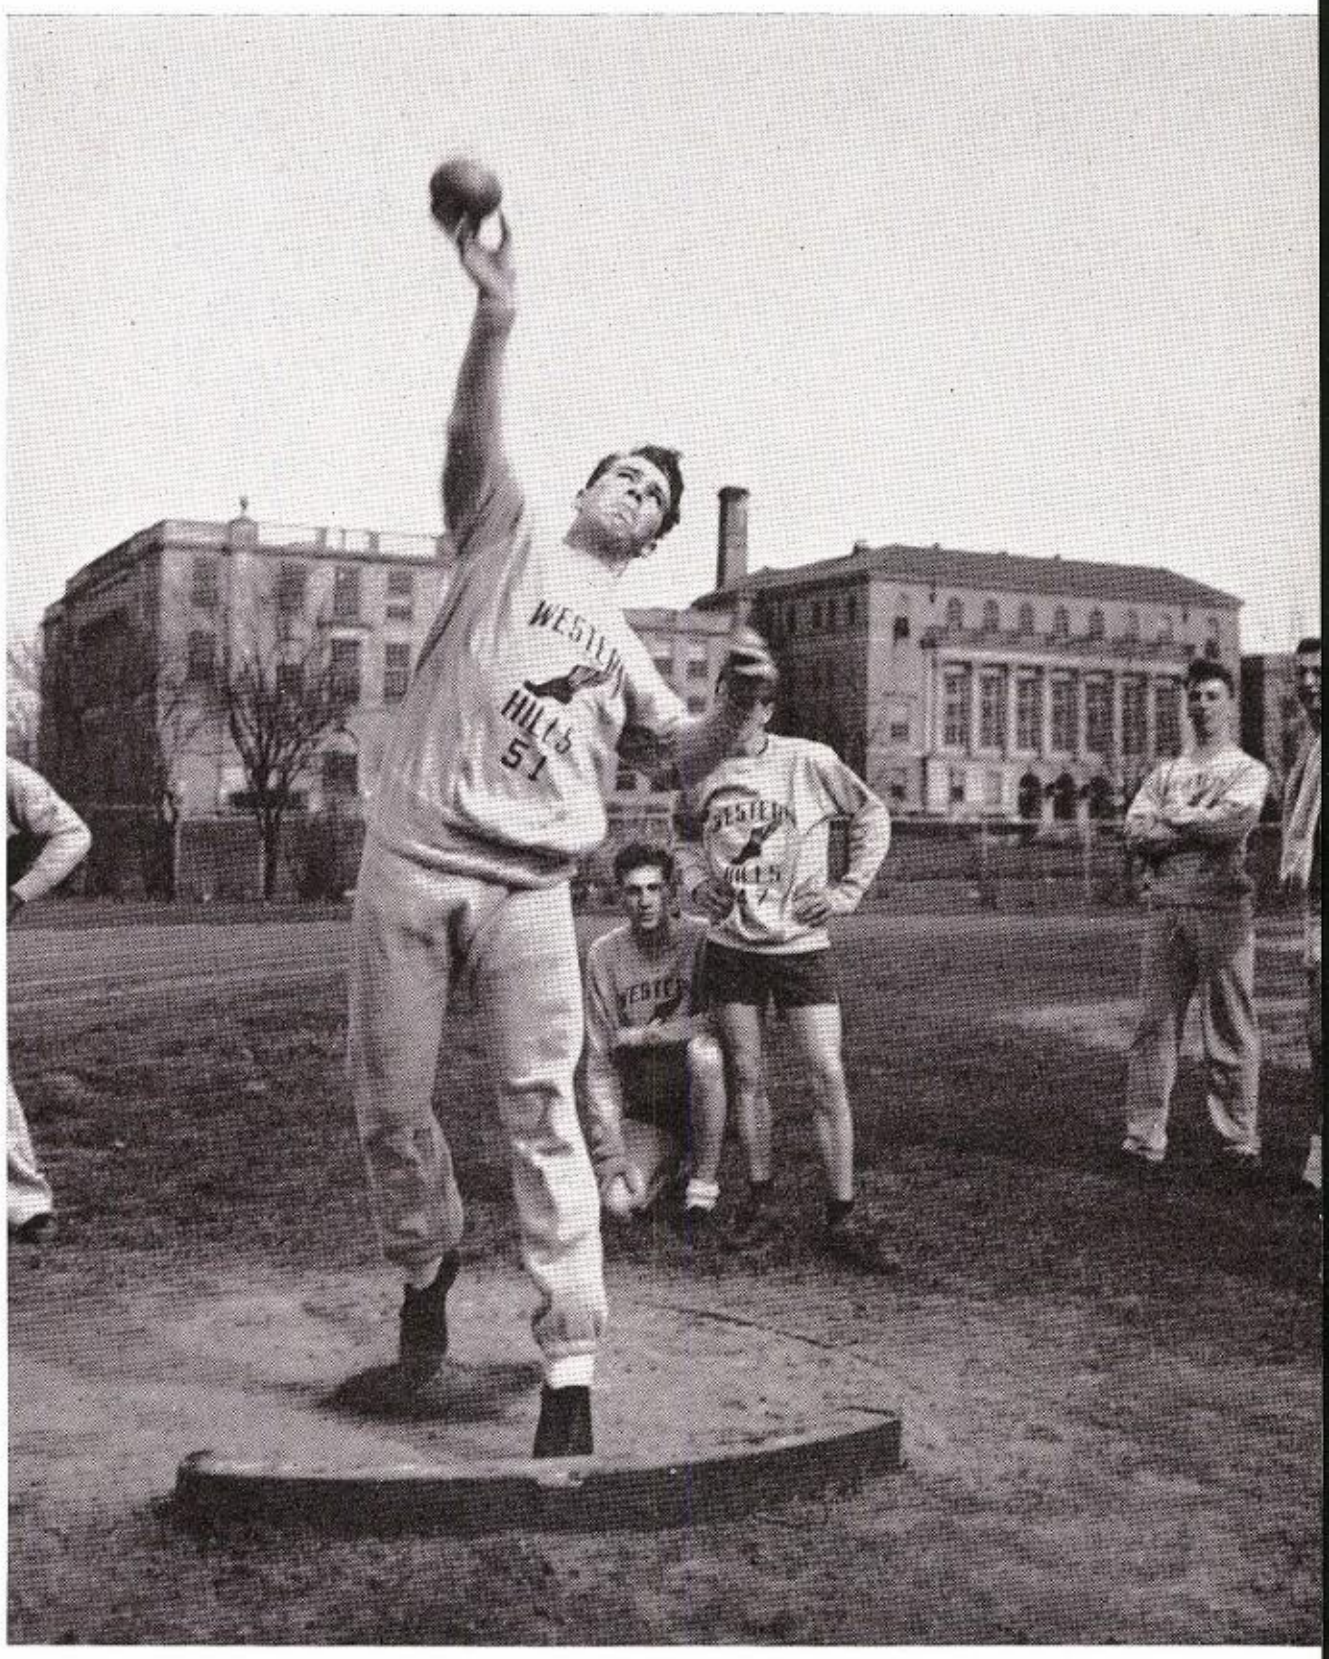
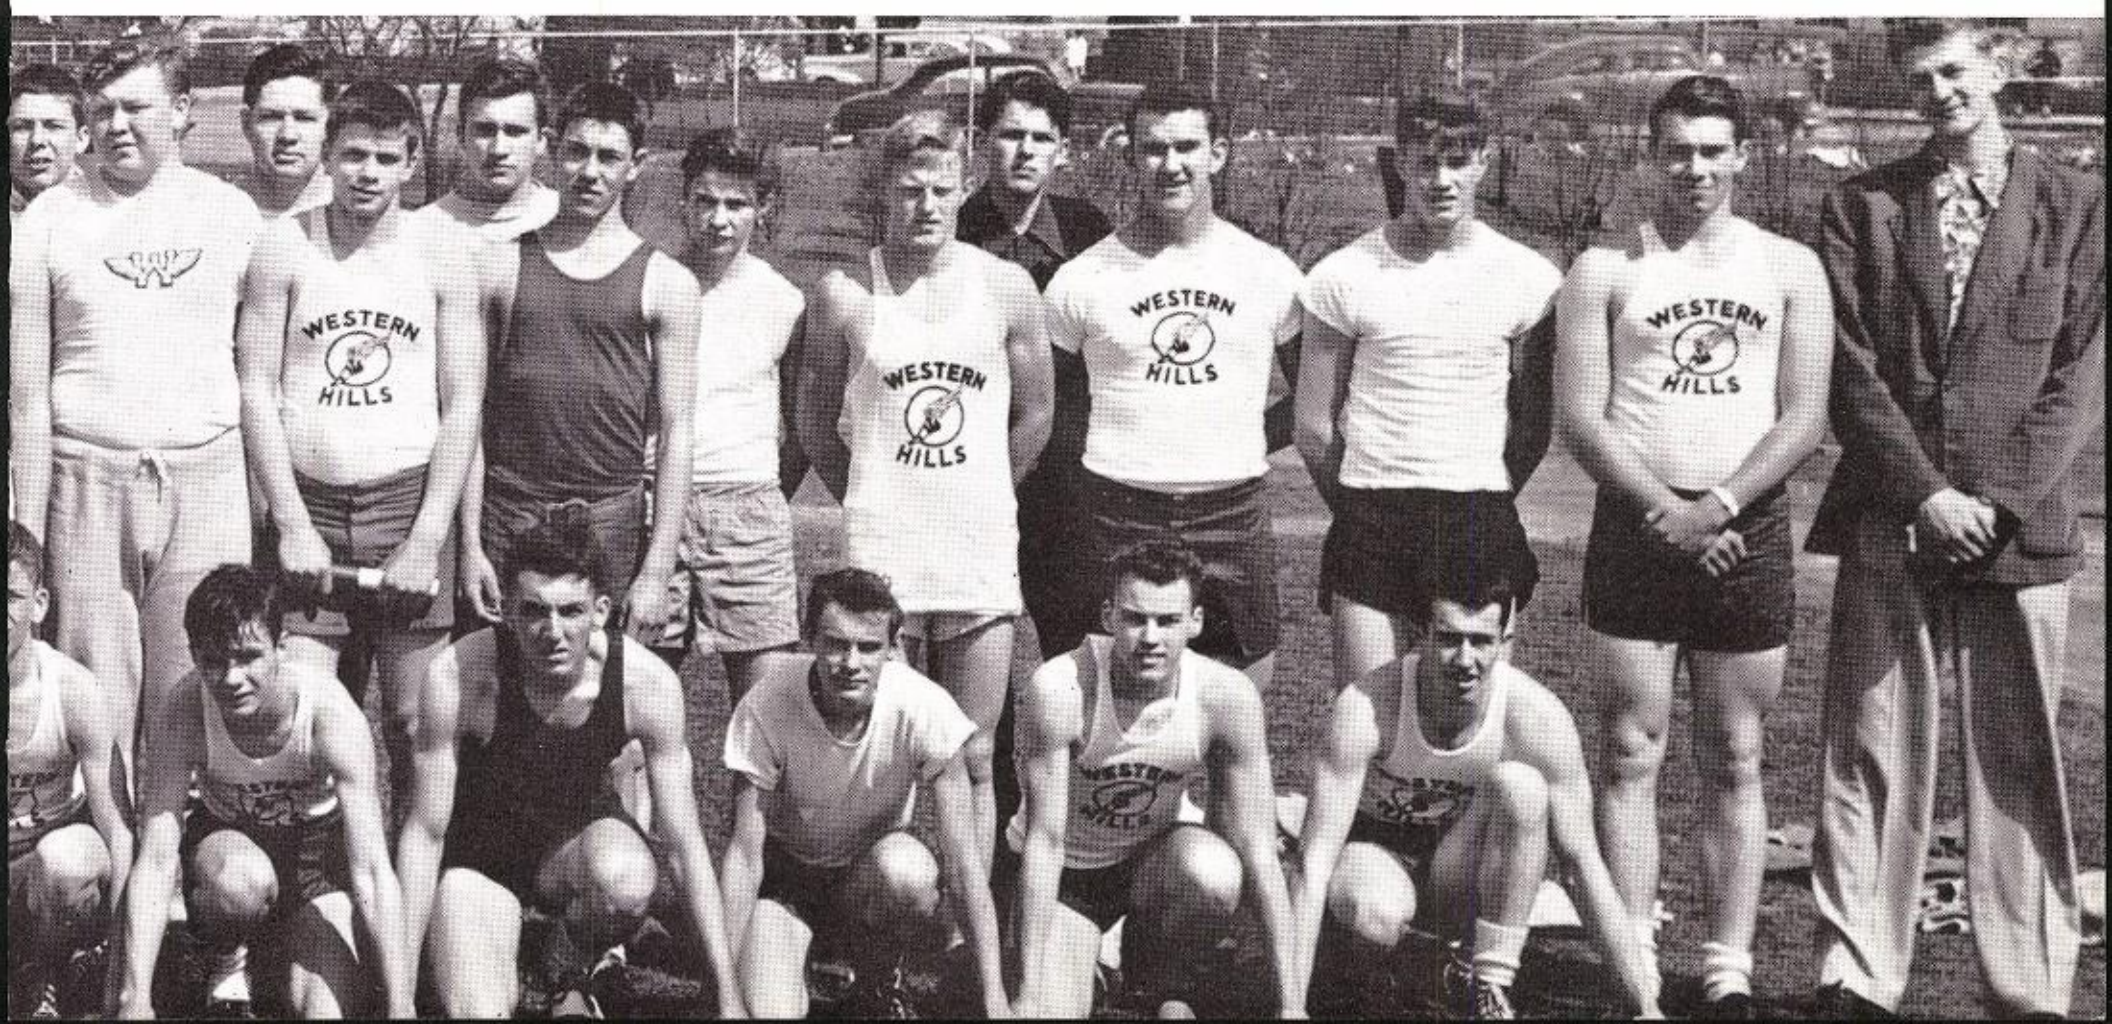
TRACKSTERS SHOW PROMISE.

Coach Harry French, succeeding Arch McCartney, although hindered by the loss of many lettermen from last year's team started out to prove that West Hi has many fleet-footed athletes. Although the team hasn't had much chance to show itself as yet, much is expected. Sparking the team are Jim Robb, hurdles, George Tierney, dashes, and Muscles Geldriech, ace shot putter and discus thrower.

At the right is seen Bob "Muscles" Geldreich, our shot-put and discus man. Bob was the main-stay of the field squad of this year's tracksters and consistantly scored first places. Great things are expected from "Geldy" next year.

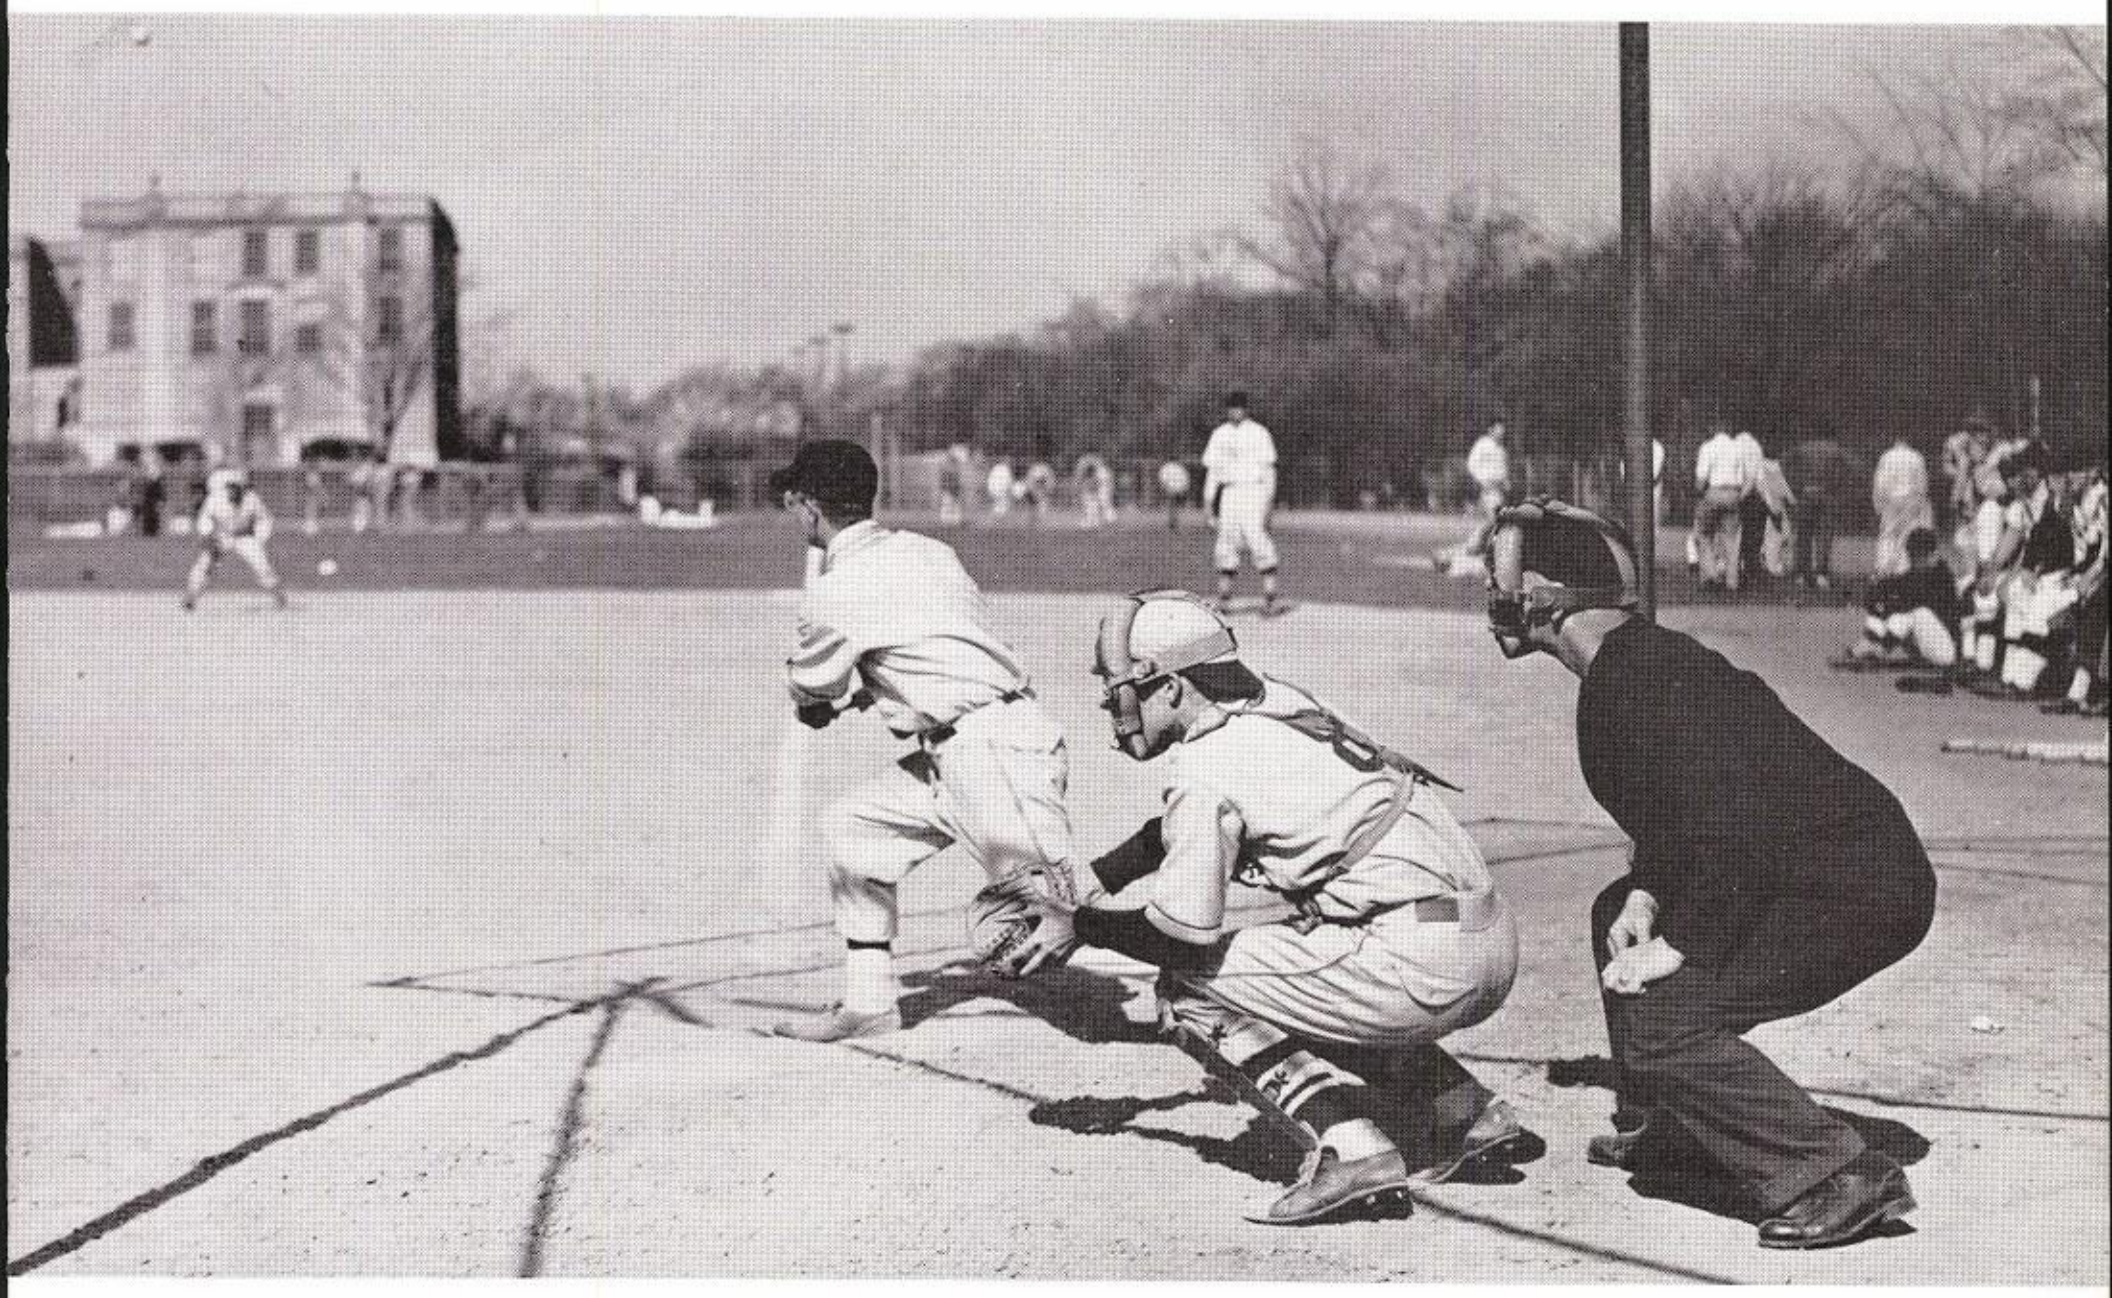
Replacing Mr. Arch McCartney, Coach Harry French overcame the many obstacles facing a new coach. For producing the die-hard athletes pictured below, we say "congratulations!"





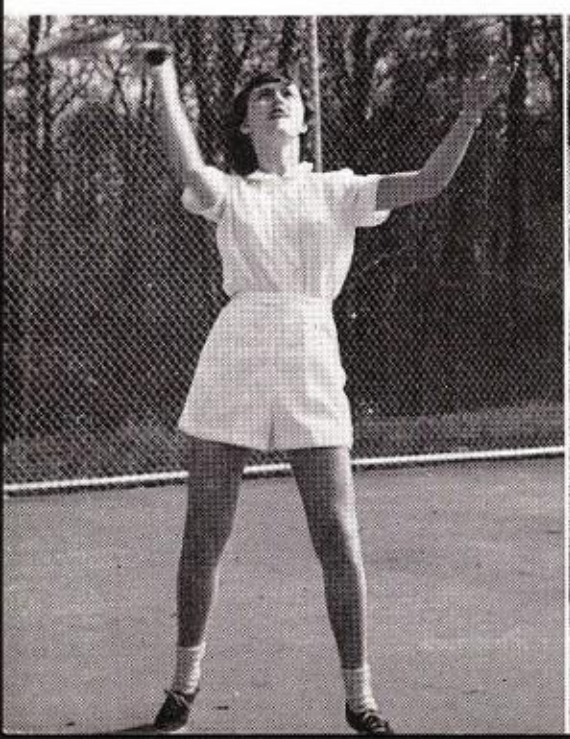
COACH PAUL NOHR UTILIZES THE YOUNGER MEMBERS OF THE BASE-

BALL SQUAD IN BUILDING TOWARD IMPROVED TEAMS FOR TOMORROW.



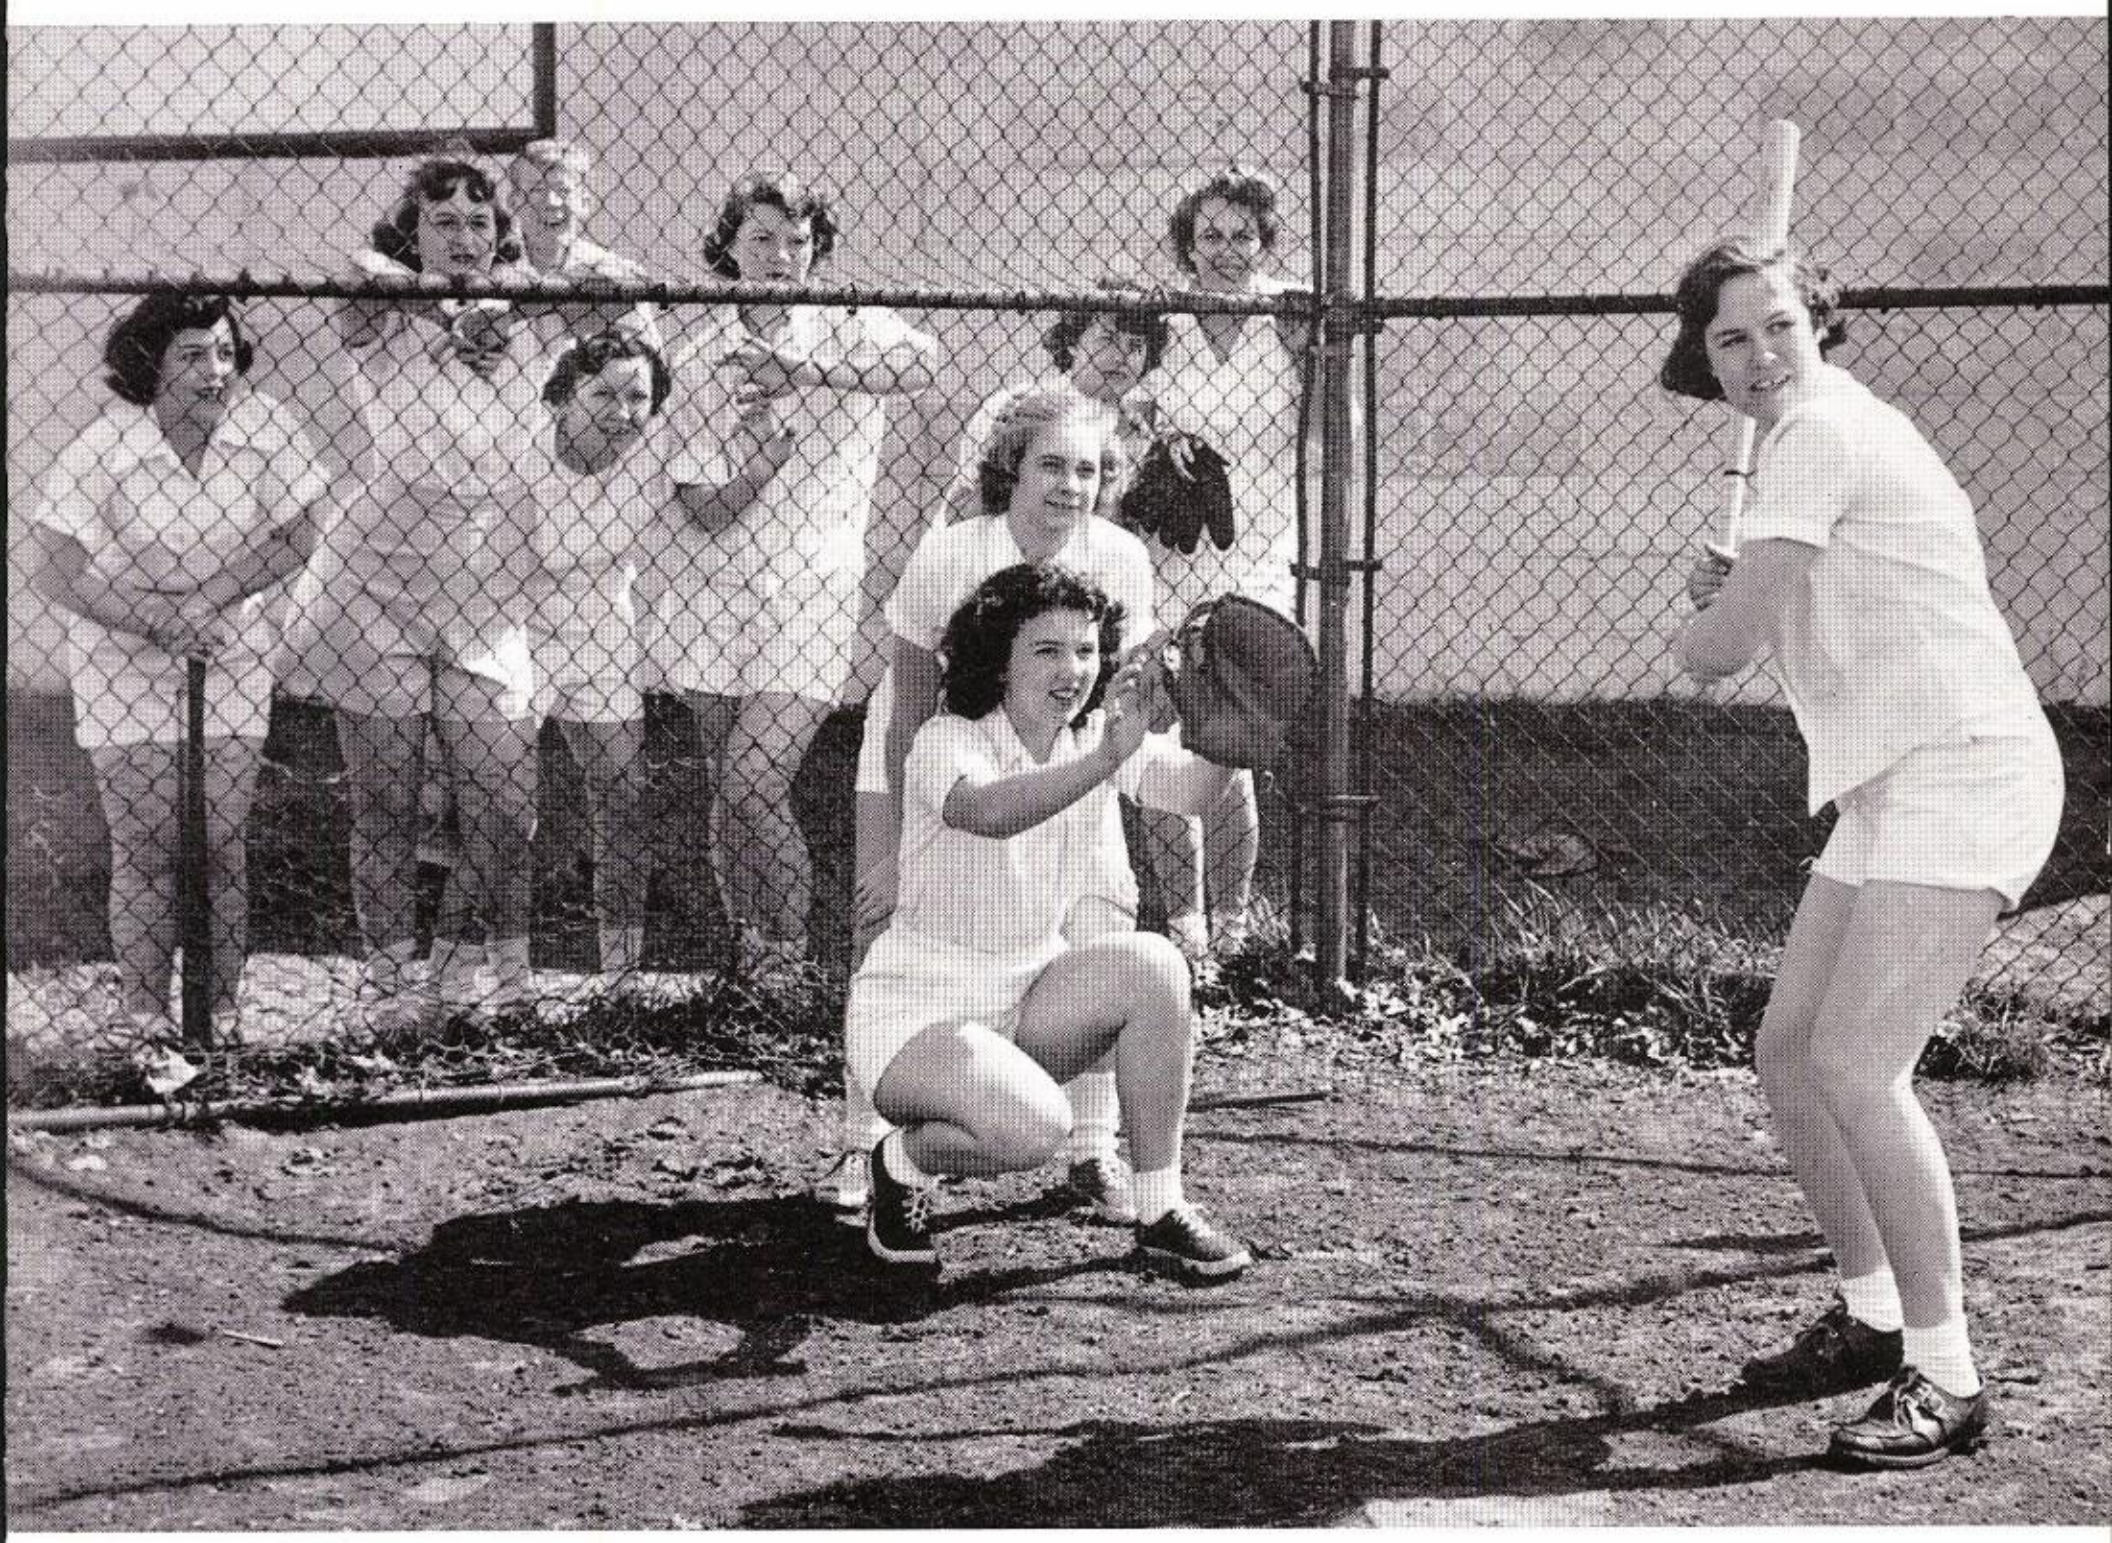
The Western Hills nine under-went a period of re-building this season. After losing many experienced and co-ordinated players, Tutor Nohr was confronted with assembling a well-rounded baseball team. Senior letterman Ernie Kobbe, "Sugar" Lower plus Erv Burkhardt, Dick Parker, Don Bachman and Charlie Stevens, pictured at the top of the opposite page, served as the nucleus of this year's squad. Having many fine underclass prospects eased the situation considerably and brightened our mentor's outlook for the years to come. Opening the season by defeating Taylor High School, the baseballers from "high on lofty hills" appeared to be headed for a fruitful season. After suffering several consecutive defeats, Coach Nohr saw vast and steady improvement in his youthful squad. We are all sure that with Ed Jeremiah and Willis Conatser on the mound, catcher Ken Smith, infielders Dick Shipman, Jay Sweet and Jack Waskey plus the outfield combination of Mango, Schnabel and Reitzes we can't miss next year!

GIRLS' ENTHUSIASM FOR SPORTS SHOWN DURING THE YEAR CONTINUES



Mary Planck, tennis manager, found that many girls were anxious to become a part of the tennis tournament. After the season began, Mary noticed quite a few outstanding players from which the tennis team was chosen. At the end of the season, these racqueteers competed in the spring playday which proved to be much fun for everyone who attended.

'O BUBBLE THROUGHOUT SPRING SEASON OF BASEBALL AND TENNIS.



Baseball, the sport which every girl in GAA enjoys playing, was managed this year by Shirley Lee. She reported rain was the chief difficulty but that in spite of frequent showers, many girls came out for this popular sport to have fun and relaxation. The honor team along with next year's manager, is announced at the banquet in May.

"Music hath charm to soothe the savage beast." Surely also it is one means through which man receives inspiration and is lifted into communion with his Maker. On this mountain-top he too is a creator. "So God created man in His own image; in the image of God created He him." Indeed we are nearest to God when we create in music, in art, in writing, in constructive thoughts of service to our fellow men. So as we listen to the enchanting strains of our orchestra, the hymns of our choir, we pray . . . .

. . . . THAT WE MAY LIVE CREATIVELY

THE BANDWAGON-SHOW OF 1950

Early in January Bandwagon rehearsals begin. At first practices go at a slow pace, and then it seems like opening night will never come. But it finally does come and Bandwagon begins its traditional three-night stand. This year's show was really outstanding. It ran smoothly from one sparkling act right into another one.

BUDDING YOUNG ACTORS AND ACTRESSES GAIN EXPERIENCE ON WEST

The dramatic class had a full schedule this year. The highlight of their year was the Senior Class Play presented on January 13. The story this year was The Admirable Crichton. Bill Longstreet played the part of the very socially-correct butler, Crichton. Mary Ann Keller was Lady Mary who fell in love with Crichton. Her pompous father, Lord Loan was played by Jim Leonard. Tom Eichstadt filled the role of Ernest, the scatter-brained socialite and novelist.

The excellent supporting cast was Frances Bauer, Beverly Rasemont, Jim Young, Ted Maier, and Shirley Tyndall. Also the dramatic class gave two auditorium sessions, The Clay Court Room Scene and The Ghost Story and two melodramas for the Carnival. These plays were The House of Juke and The Potboiler. Above and at lower right are shown the cast of the Senior Play. In the upper right are scenes from the Carnival melodramas.

On these pages is shown the Annual Staff of '50 in some of the many Saturday and Sunday sessions necessary to meet the always-impending deadlines. The group spent many a pleasant hour together, but also labored through hours of hunting lost copy, fixing incorrect layouts, and squabbling among themselves over minor details.

But they have enjoyed the production of the yearbook and hope that they have laid a foundation on which the staffs of future years can build.

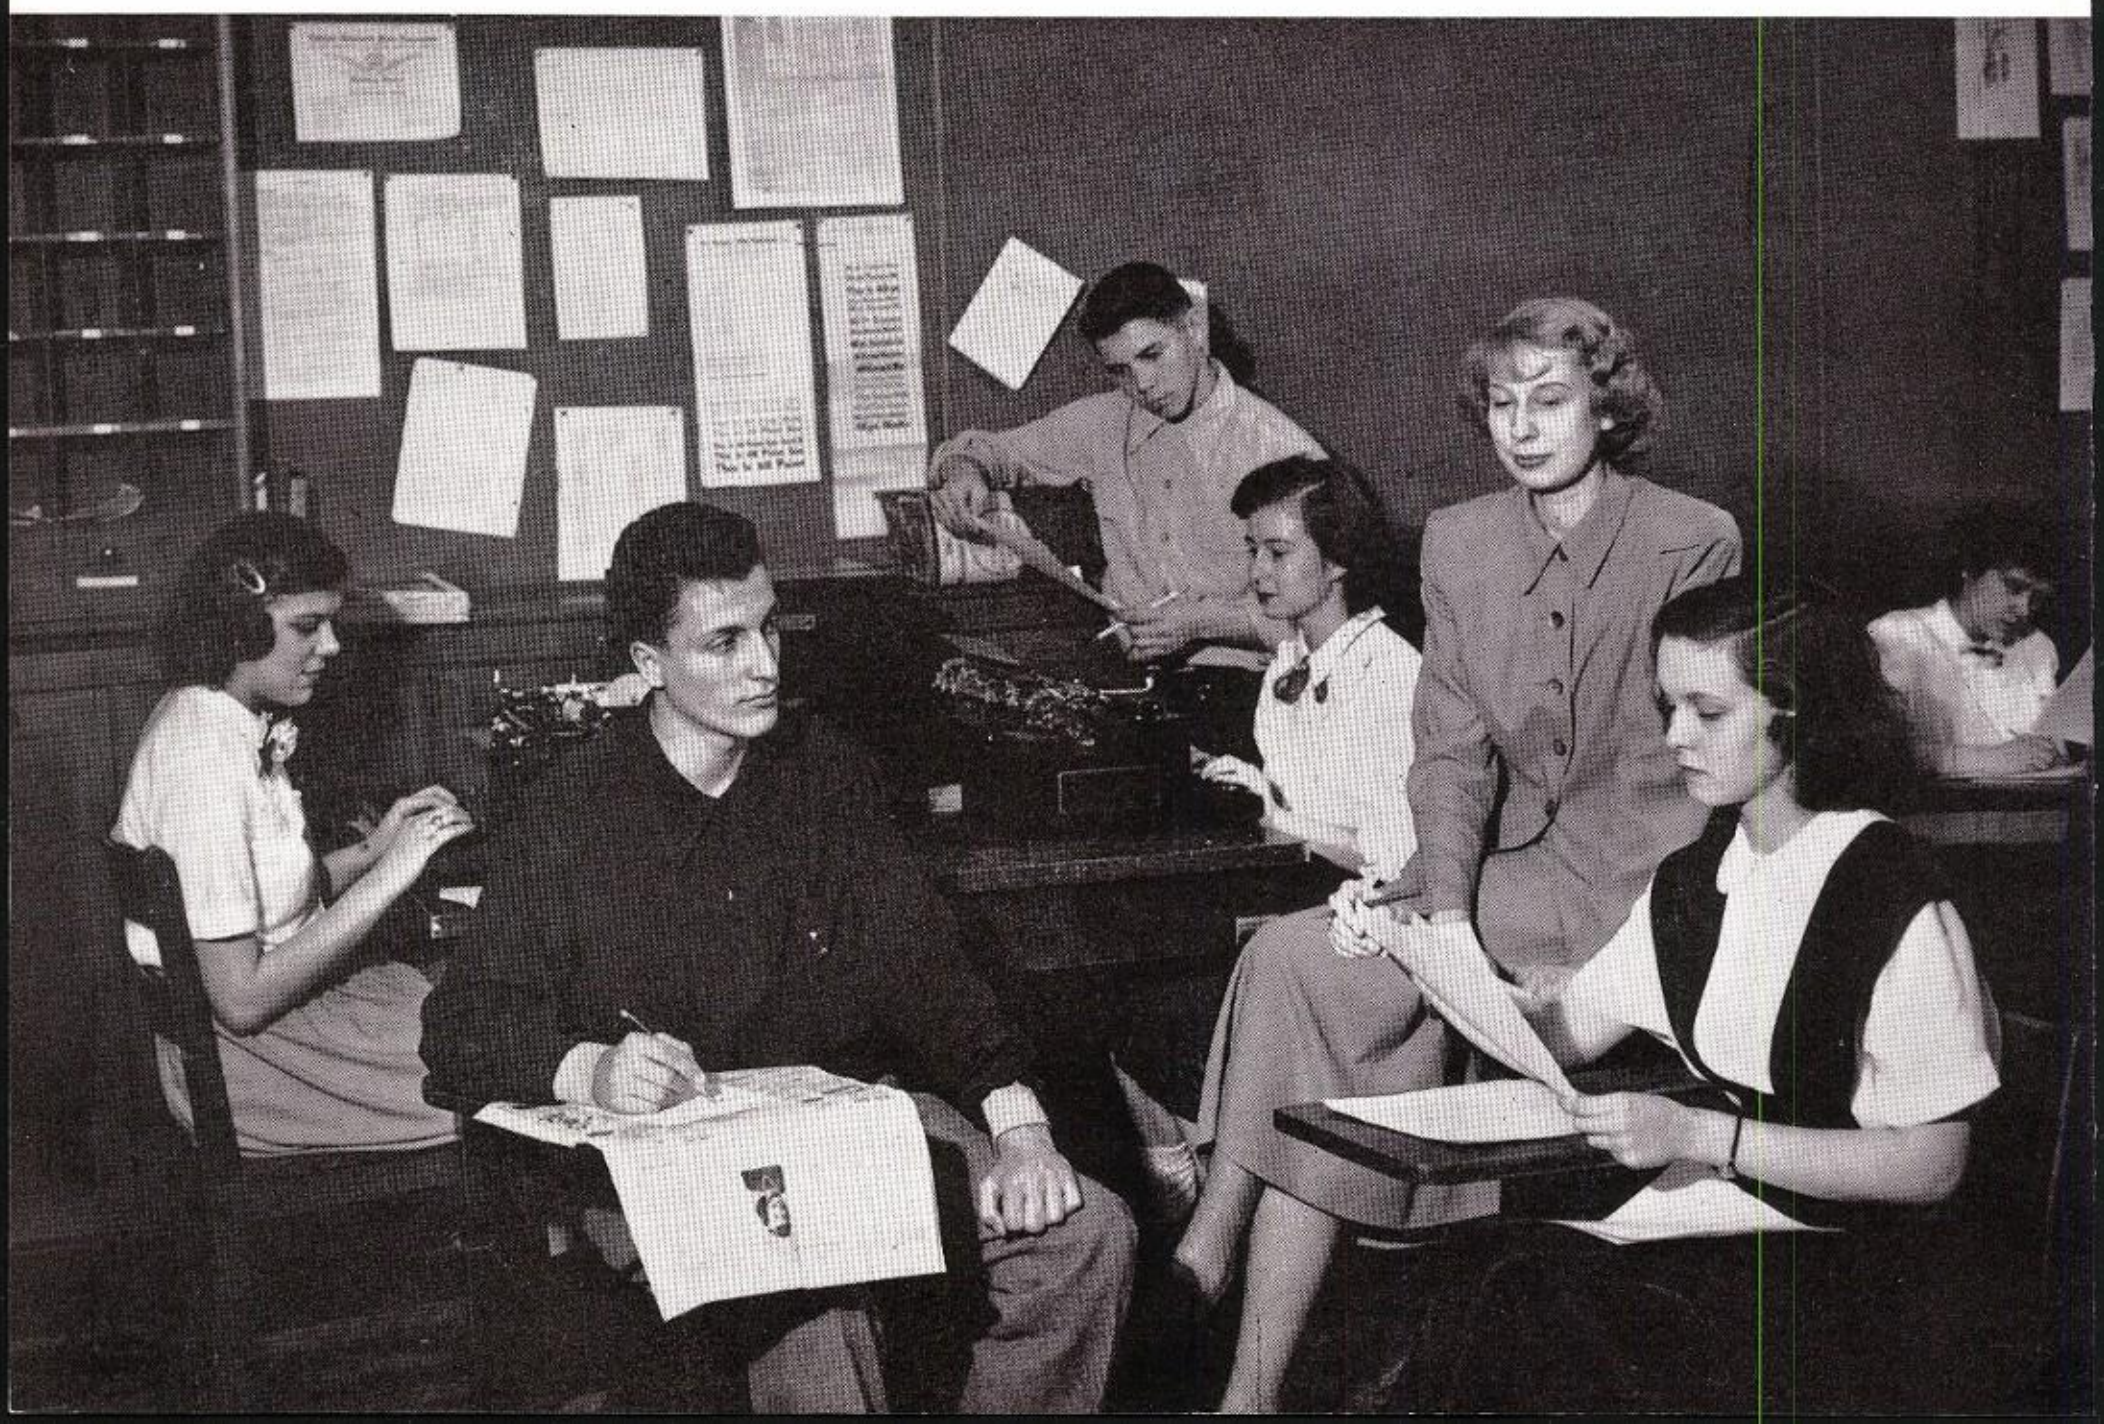
MANY STUDENTS SHOW THEIR CREATIVE ABILITY IN EXTRA-CURRICULAR

As we take a look at some of the youth at the mid-century, we find them busy at work on the Breeze. A few would-be journalists are in the picture below, J. Zachritz, business manager, and J. Maurer are writing copy while the typists M. Stoll and L. Manning are busy doing their very important job. D. Meyer, copy editor and L. Lack are copy-reading this edition.

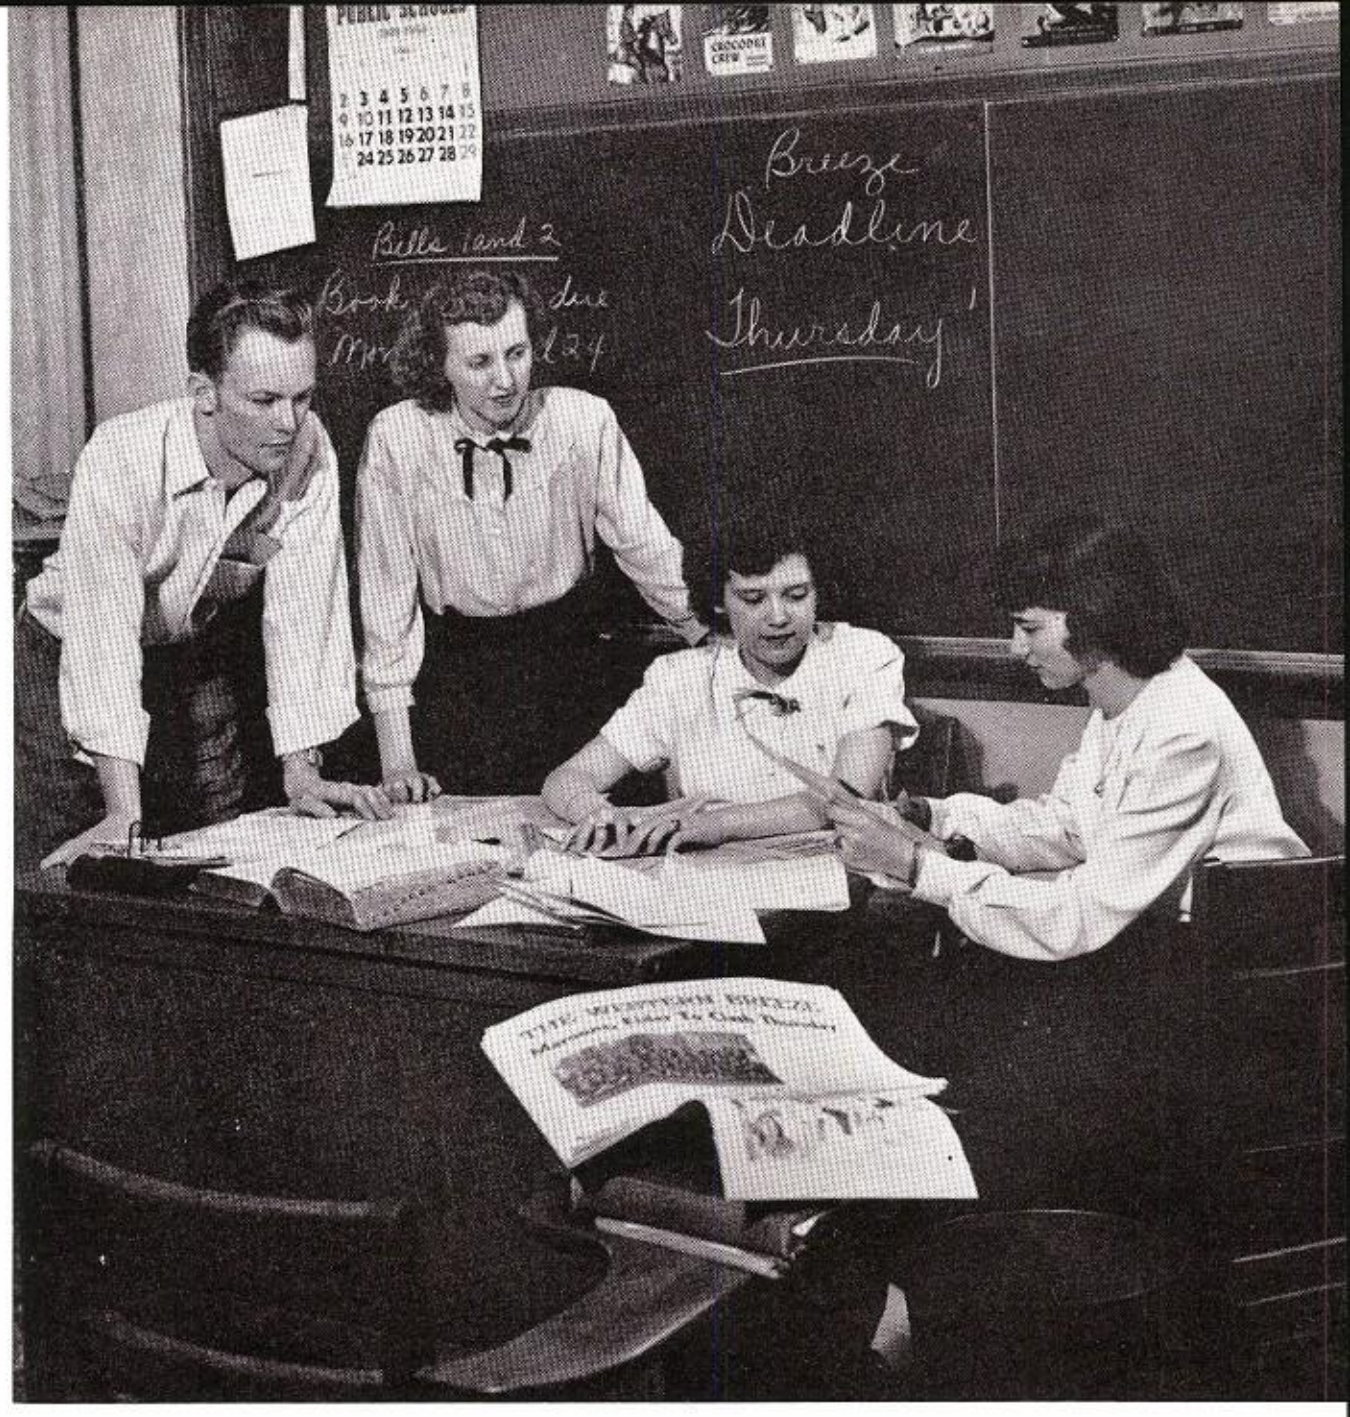
All the work on a newspaper can't be done in the staff room. S. Rammes, boys' sports editor; M. Planck, girls' sports editor; and M. Botsford, feature editor, check the press before the paper is printed. At center right we see B. Handshu interviewing Ray Mosely, our friendly efficiency man. Discussing the pros and cons of the last issue are: A. Adams, M. Waspe, R. Muddiman, J. Meyer, M. Johnston, and C. Doerner.

The Breeze is off the press! S. Tyndall and V. Gidney, assistant business manager, are putting the papers into the homeroom boxes while C. Wise, exchange editor prepares for mailing.



VORK ON THE "BREEZE."

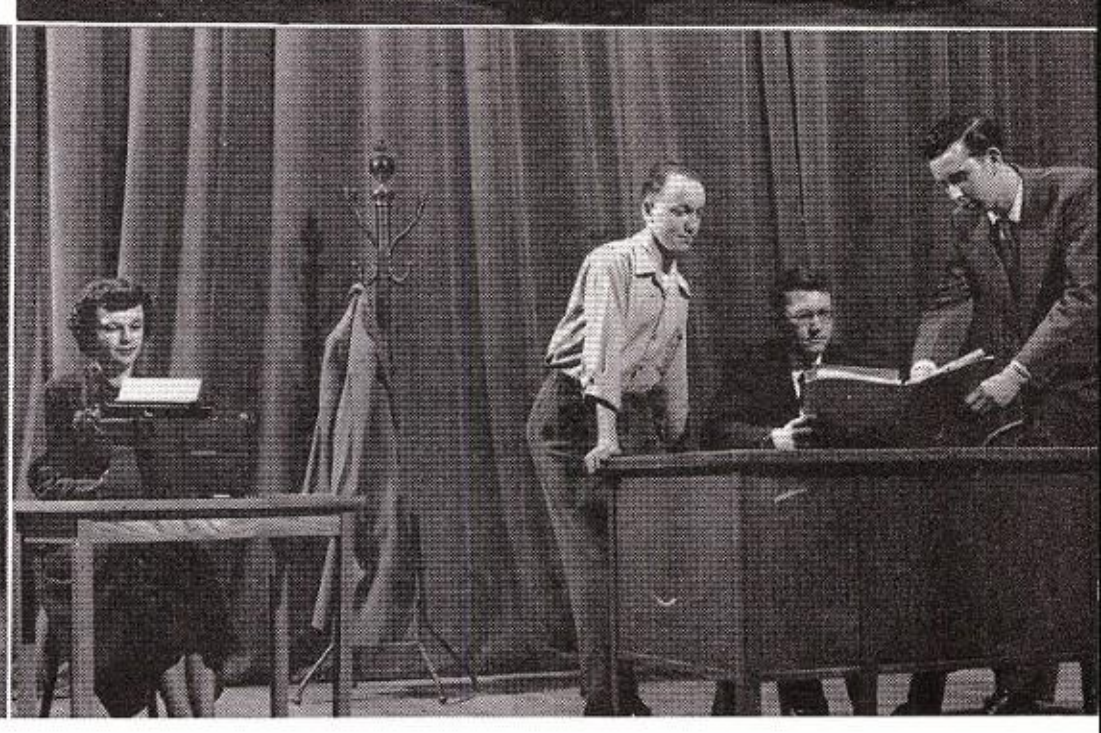
A big part of the job is the task of layout. Here we find Joan Falquet, editor-in-chief; Flora Mankamyer, assistant editor; Jim Book, art editor; and Miss Walters, faculty advisor busy at work. In this department there is always need for another opinion even if it is only, "Quiet".



THE MERCHANDISING CLASS

The lunchroom is made up of boys and girls who give their fourth bells to feeding the hungry mobs. In various jobs they work diligently and under the supervision of Miss Gates they make our lunchroom the smooth-working unit that it is. Pictured are the boys washing dirty dishes, cashiers, and the tray-room workers. Other duties which are taken care of by the students are selling candy and ice cream, keeping orderly lines, and carrying food out from the kitchen.

LUNCHROOM SQUAD REALIZE THE EXTENT OF THE WORKING WORLD.

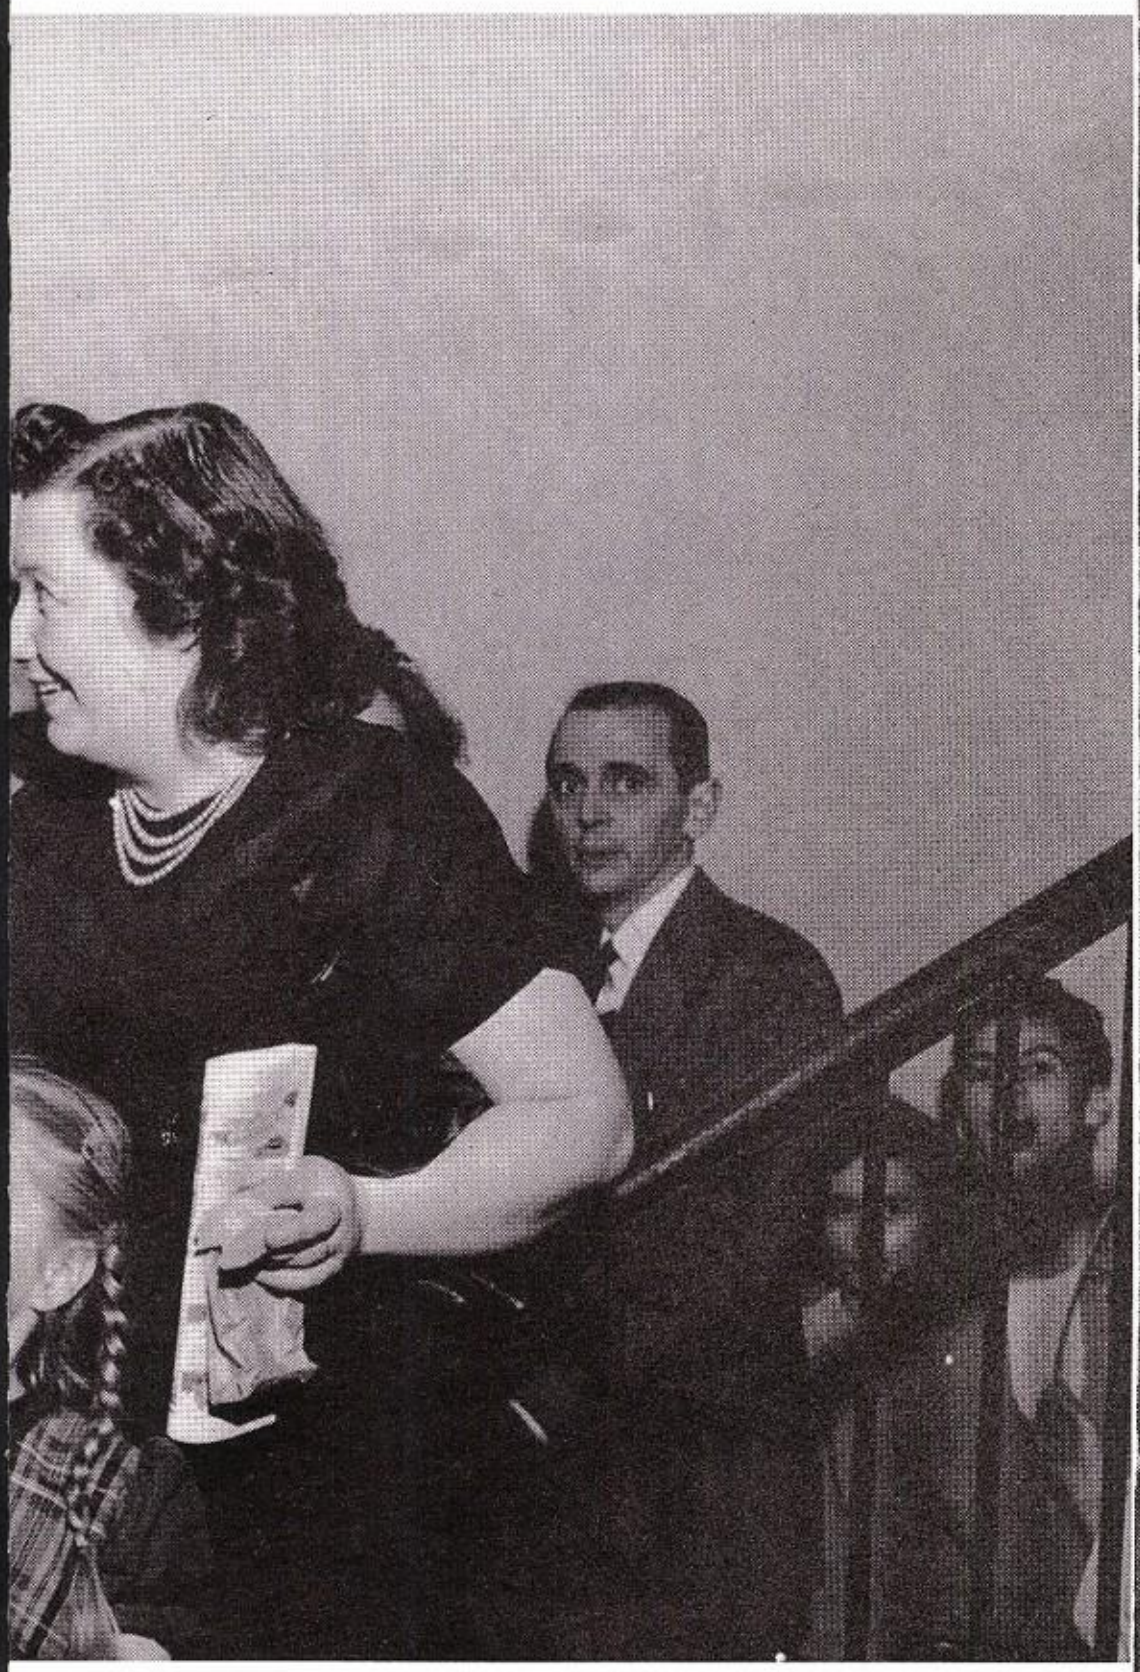


The Merchandising Course is given for seniors only. Students work three afternoons a week and on Saturdays in the department stores of the city. Here they are trained for both selling and non-selling positions. During the year these co-ops receive a regular salary from the stores, class credit from the school, and if their work has been satisfactory, an opportunity for a position in the store after graduation. Tuesday and Friday afternoons are spent in school discussing their work and store problems. On these days, also, these students participate in the extra-curricular activities of the school.

STEP RIGHT UP, LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

It's Carnival time and the whole school hums with activity as teachers and pupils alike work together to make the Carnival of 1950 a great success. A few of the many booths that vied for the crowd were the Book Booth, Ring Toss, Mexican Flower Shop, Snack Bar, and Chamber of Horrors. The band did their part by staging five shows in the auditorium which featured acts from "Bandwagon"; the Dramatics class, not wanting to be outdone, enacted two melodramas.

FUN FOR EVERYONE



The Carnival is here!

When the Carnival was in full swing the halls seethed with people as they bought balloons, popcorn, peanuts, and soft drinks from numerous vendors. All agreed as they turned homeward the Carnival was loads of fun as well as worthwhile.

LANGUAGE CLUBS ASSIST DURING CARNIVAL

The Mexican Flower Shop which was sponsored by the French and Spanish clubs added a great deal to the success of the 1950 Carnival. Kay Rauber, Mary Botsford, Jean Lowber, Pat Jones, Elaine Frank, Ann Pappas, and Nelda Sciarra are seen as they arrange the booth.

Step right up! Win a pound of coffee at the German Club's Ring Toss. Lore Boley, Jim Book, Jean Groppenbecker, and Edgar Levy give encouragement to Edith Crawford as she tries her skill.

Joan Abrose, Audrey Dick, Betsy Seivers, Bob Sinks, Hal Stevens, Joan Falquet, and Janet Crosthwaite check the books which will be sold at the Latin Club's booth at the Carnival. The Latin Club's Book booth with its attractive chalk drawings was quite the sensation of the Carnival.

18 Attended by Marcia Gies and Nancy Sweet, Mary Ann Keller reigns as Football Queen. To make the day complete we defeated Walnut Hills.

22 Only 28 more shopping days until Christmas or in plain English only 23 more days of school.

23 At a solemn ceremony the new Y-Teens members are initiated.

24 What a wonderful way to end the football season! The Maroons defeated Elder 18-6. Give the football team two weeks with pay! !

26 The Annual Staff visits Chicago during the Press Convention. Was it meetings that were interesting?

My hero!

2 Jr. Student Council opens the winter season by throwing a "Snowball".

6 You must'a been a beautiful baby. The basketball team dons booties and bonnets for a pep assembly to open the season.

7 Each senior girl shelters a rookie from the cruel world after the Big-Little Sister party.

13 Oh happy day . . . our hoopsters down Withrow 50-36.

15 It really seems like Christmas with the huge tree decorated in the front hall.

16 The choir presents the Messiah before a thrilled audience.

19 The terrified sophomores are seen leaving school to get their blood tests.

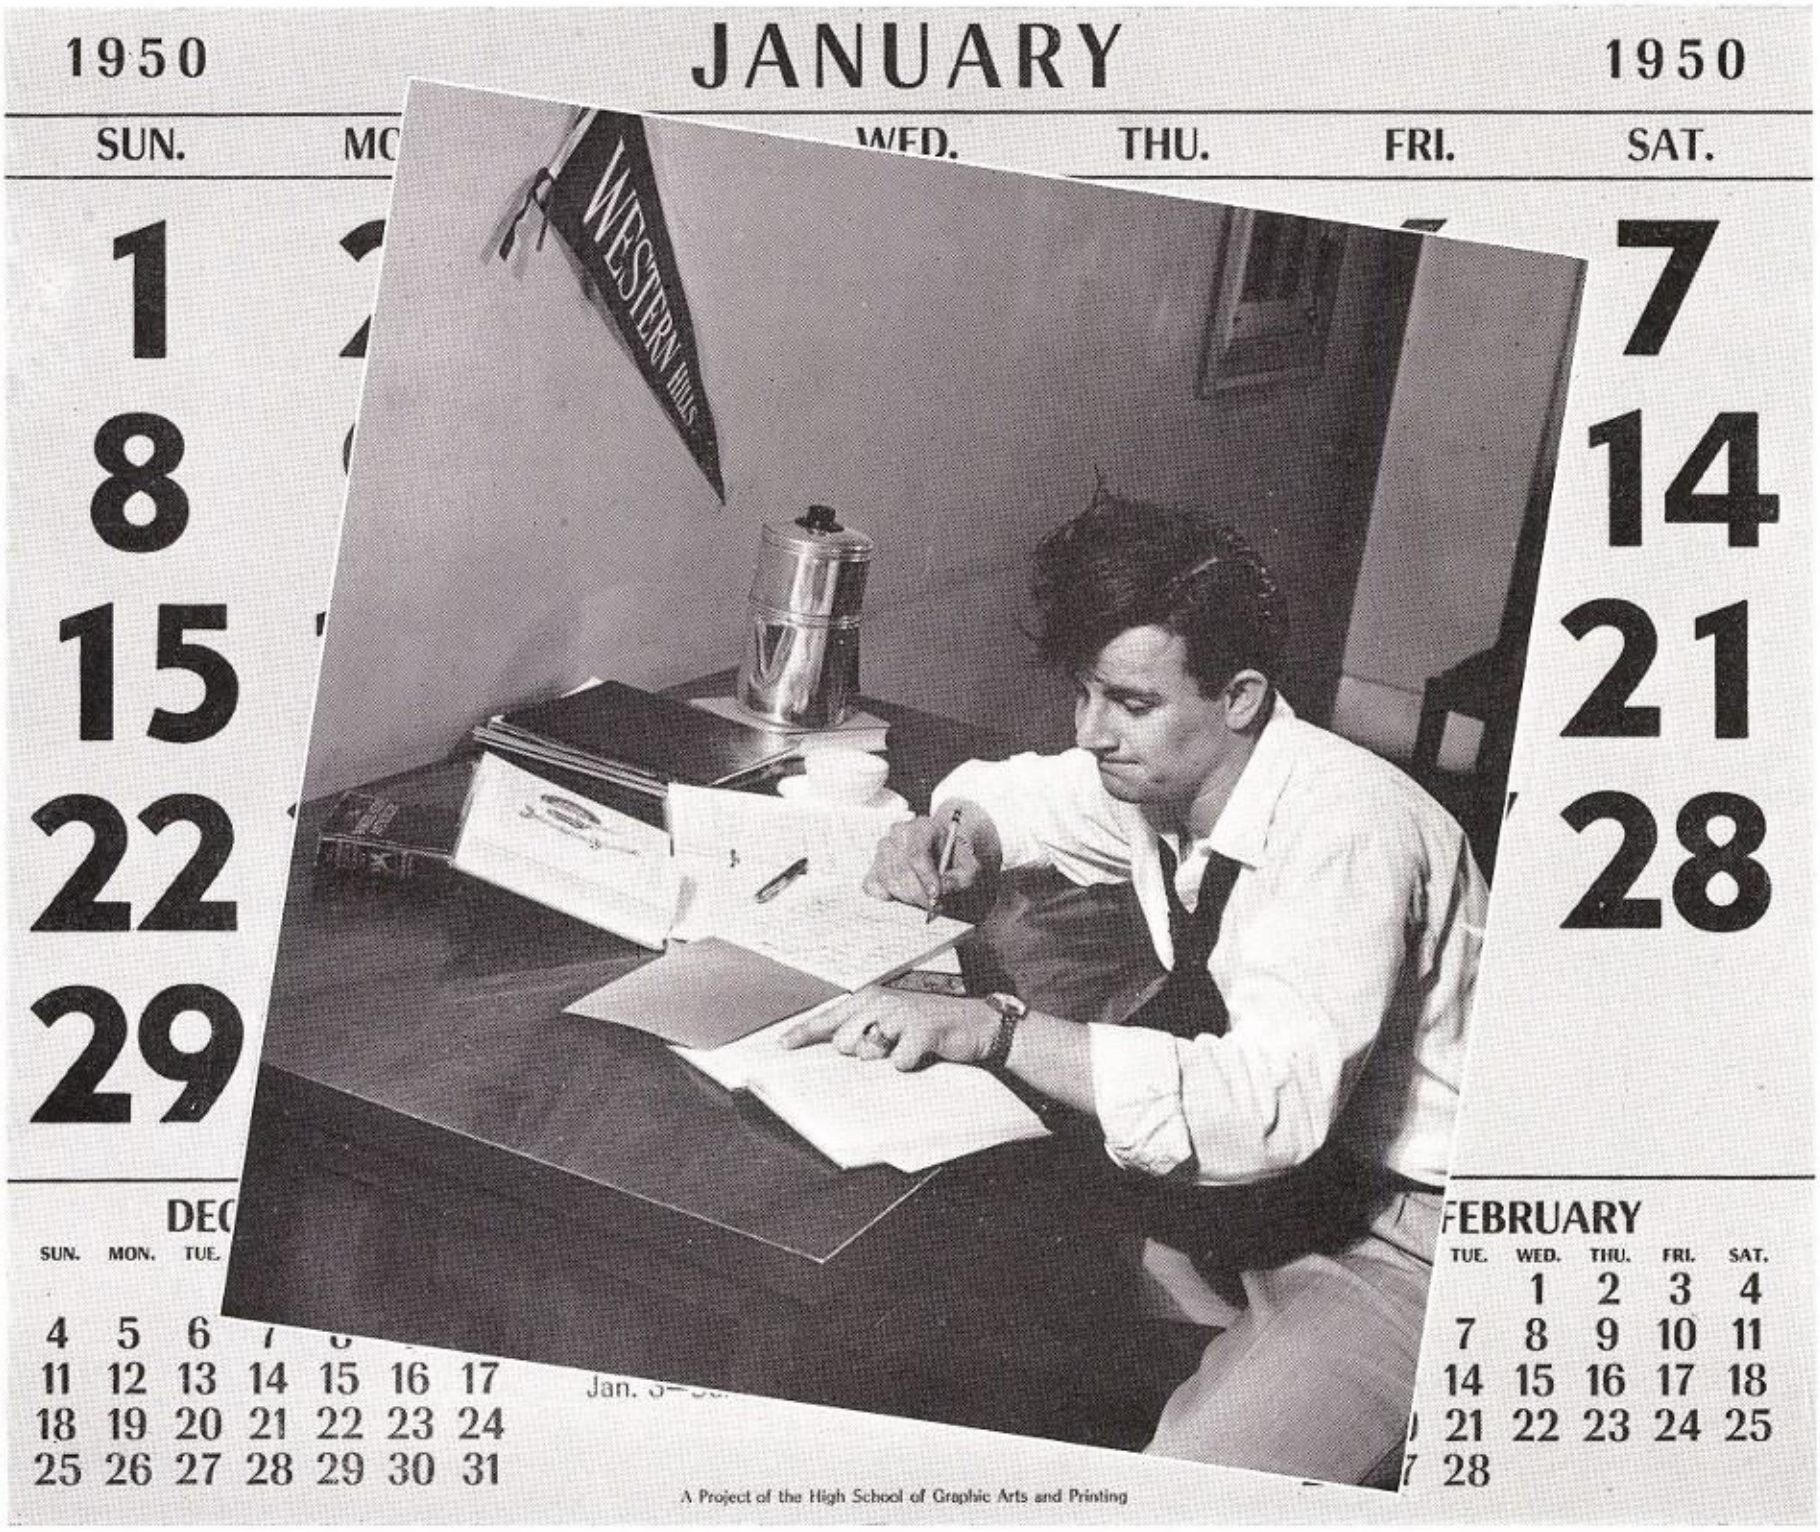
21 Jim Leonard tells the story of the "Littlest Angel" at the Christmas assembly.

25 Merry Xmas!

26 Formals.

27-28 and more formals.

31 Happy New year!



Concentrate!

1 Ohhh! Groan!

2 Is vacation over already?

6 Everyone fulfills their patriotic duty by writing a theme on the American Way as the teachers get out their bull whips.

7 It was so cold (chatter) but fun (chatter) at the Hi-Y dance.

10 Oh, bitter defeat—alas to Purcell.

12 Bill Longstreet is a man's man as the Dramatics Class presents the Admirable Crichton.

20 "Put some money in the pot, boy." No sneaking in at Bandwagon Tryouts.

23 The Mighty (?) Maroons are defeated by the Feeble (?) Faculty at a red-hot volleyball game.

25 A waste of

26 three perfectly good

27 days—exams.

30 Hang on to your wallet. G.A.A. girls start collecting pennies for the Mr. Western Hills Dance.

Blue Monday

2 The groundhog doesn't see his shadow—spring soon. Oh, oh, read on!

3 Snow and cold.

4 More snow and colder.

6 Oh, how pretty—red, white, and blue. Report cards are out!

8 "Sug" Lower is named Mr. Western Hills.

12 Lincoln's birthday has arrived. If we'd a knewed it was comin' we'd have baked a cake.

14 Be my Valentine.

16 The $64 question: "What to wear for graduation?" Formals and white coats won out.

21 Dances and more dances. Margaret Johnston is a real Dream of Maroon and Cream.

22 I cannot tell a lie. I chopped down the telephone pole with my little automobile.

24 Victory at last. We beat Woodward in a wonderful game.

28 The Senior girls win the swimming meet much to the disgust of the underclassmen. Congratulations!

Barney joins G.A.A.

7 Ruination—the girls run the school for a day.

8 Who said it is a man's world? Mary Ann Keller is Mayor of Cincinnati during Girls' Week.

15 Hip hip hooray! Hop

16 on the Bandwagon.

17 It's here again.

21 Everything but the kitchen sink is found at school; the Carnival collections started.

22 The Jr. Class selects their rings for next year.

24 Amid the strains of Stardust, Mary Botsford is named Prom Queen of 1950.

29 In spring the young man's fancy turns to thoughts of . . . baseball. West Hi opens the season in a game with St. Xavier.

31 Hurry, hurry, step right up. The Carnival is here again and better than ever.

Washington bound—Whoops, forgot something.

1 Mr. Dunkel's chemistry class blew up the lab.—April Fool!

4 "Do Teen Agers Have Enough Freedom?" The school clashes as Jr. Town Meeting presents the question.

5 Flash—President Truman caught in stampede as Western Hills invades Washington.

9 The busy world pauses in reverence for Easter.

10 Boy, we're really right in style; our school gets television! Oh, this younger generation!

14 Arbor Day.

15 Congratulations to the Band; they received superior rating at the district contest at Oxford.

19 G.A.A. elects J. Aneshansel next year's president.

25 The Seniors feel the end drawing near as the new dramatic class is announced.

28 Swing your partner, skip to my Lou at the Interfratority Barn Dance!

He loves me; he loves me not.

1 The senior girls greet the merry month of May by having Cotton Day.

10 Senior Choir is greatly honored by being allowed to sing in the May Festival.

18 Honors and more honors are given at the All-Sports Banquet climaxed by the announcement of All-Around Boy.

19 Jr. High joins in the spring fever campaign by giving a dance.

25 G.A.A. closes its year with the Girls' Sports Banquet where honors are mixed with tears of parting seniors.

26 We enjoy our schools' talent as the orchestra presents an auditorium session.

30 Everyone goes "pic-a-nicin' in the park" on Memorial Day.

JUNE-Now Our Day is Over.

"Now is the time of Youth's responsibility. It is now that you must determine the world's fate, not twenty-five years in the future." Thus spoke General Dwight D. Eisenhower to thirty-five hundred student delegates of the Columbia Scholastic Press assembled in convention in the Waldorf Astoria, March 11, 1950. "Can the student press take up this challenge?" Surely only with knowledge, prayer, and action! We appeal to all industry, religion, education to pray with us . . .

"My, what a fine selection of cosmetics West's has," remarks Margie Butler.

Now that you have seen the 1950 Western Hills annual we're sure you will agree that the photography is no small part of this book. All pictures, montages, and abstracts in our annual are due to the work of one man. Fine pictures have been produced in spite of wretched weather, over-crowded schedules, defective flash bulbs, and other incidents which hampered him. There were many times when it seemed like he could take all the confusing ideas in our minds, and mold them into one clear idea that could be illustrated. The Annual Staff of 1950 greatly appreciates the advice, patience and tireless efforts of . . . . . .

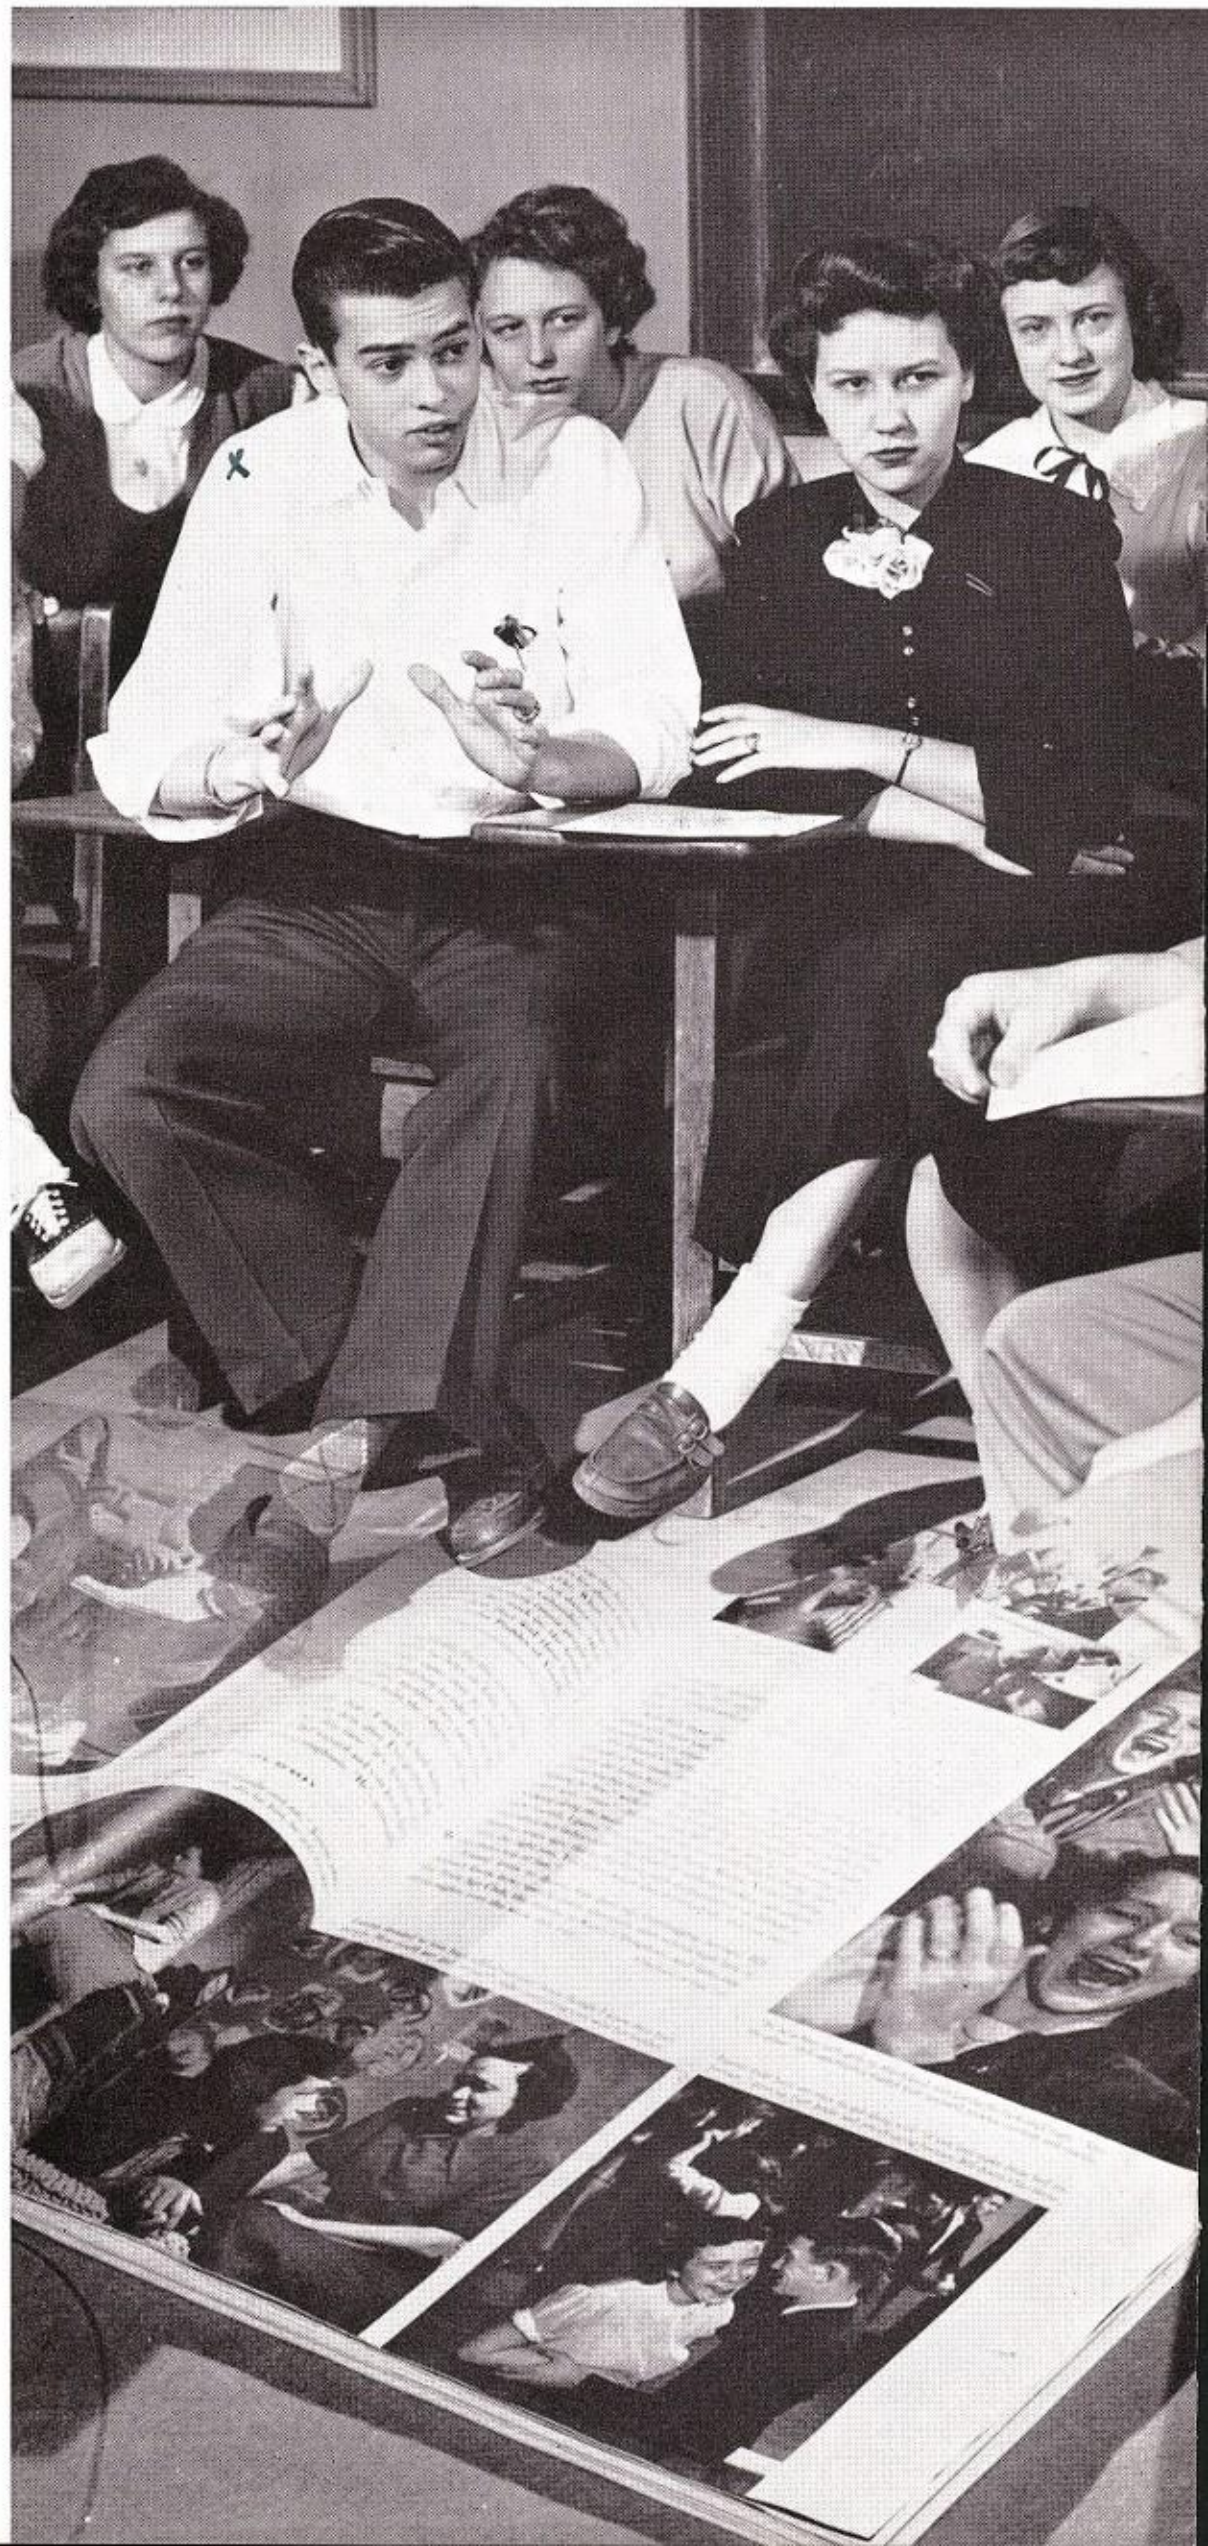
HOW CAN WE SUCCEED IN ACQUIRING ACCURATE

Isn't Dave cute? (Margie)

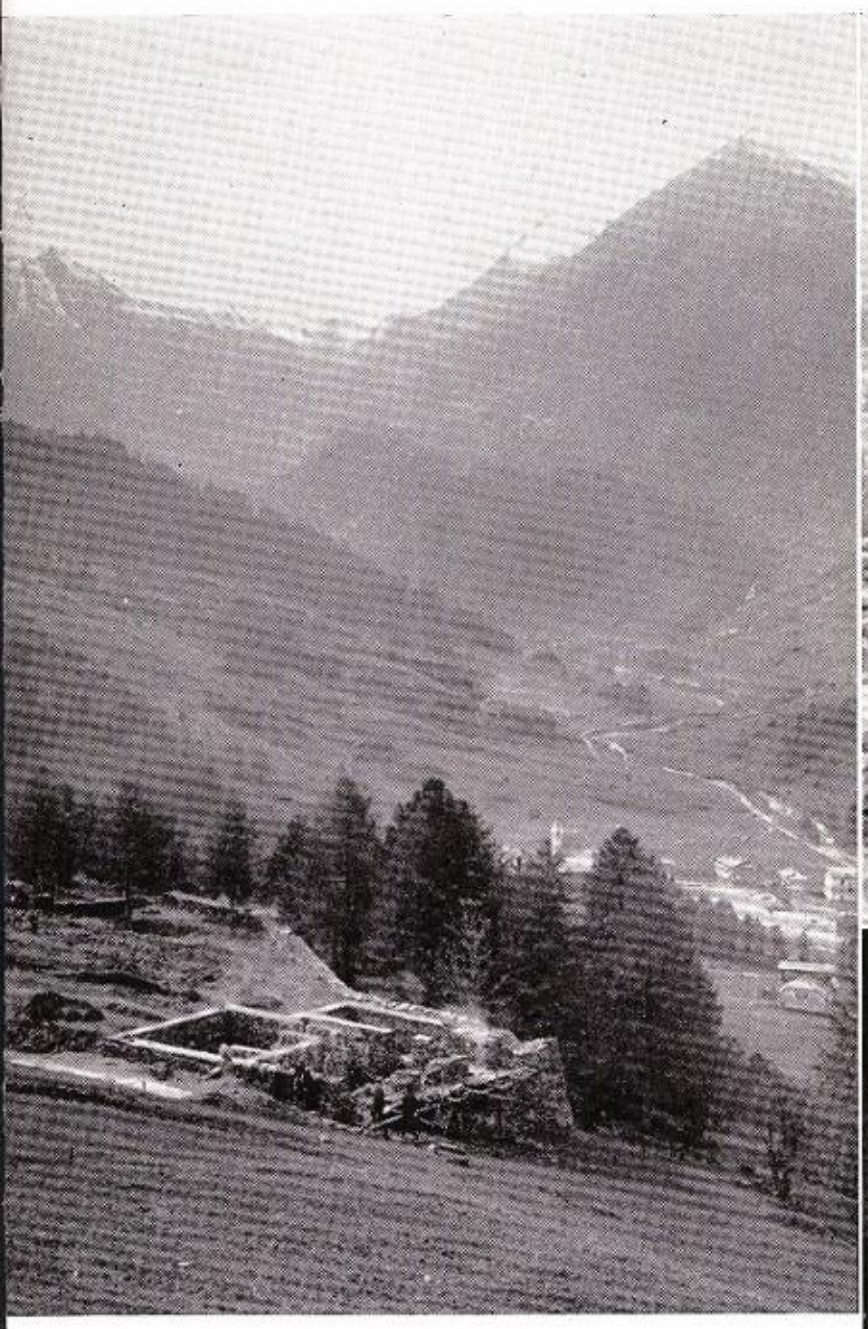
How can we gain knowledge necessary to take up the challenge of General Eisenhower that "The Time Is Now." Do we know the accomplishments of the various groups in society? Do we have a correct impression on controversial matters? Do we see the point of view of certain groups and understand the reasons behind such a view? Do we seek to acquire all angles to such questions and do we agree that a harmonious agreement of positive values is more to be desired than a mere compromise or tolerance.

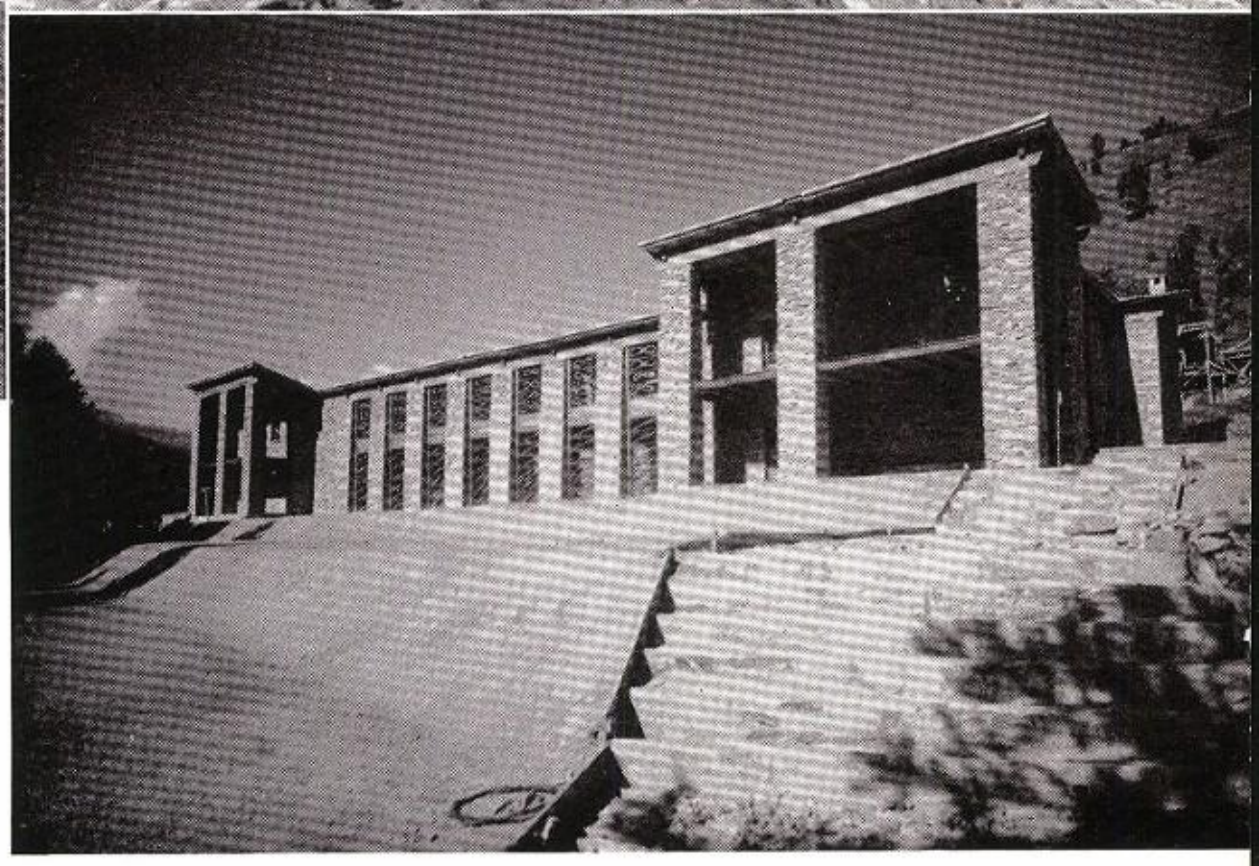
We must find a medium vital to us in which we can place our confidence because it has been created by and for youth to answer our ever-impending questions about prevailing current affairs. Then, and only then, will we, as youth become interested in world problems and thereby answer the challenge put to us by our elders.



KNOWLEDGE FOR OUR MANY RESPONSIBILITIES?

HOW CAN PRAYER HELP US TO ANSWER OUR CHALLENGE?





The picture at the upper right shows the little heap of stones which the Italian youth carried to the top of the mountain as a step toward the fulfillment of their dream. Below is the completed picture, the justification of their faith. The third picture reveals the foundation and the mountains which, perhaps, provided the inspiration.

Knowledge of controversial issues inevitably involves difference of opinion. Such resulting conflicts can be dissolved and unity established only by the power of prayer. As the prayers of Protestant, Catholic, and Jew ascend, each in their own way, may they be united in the common belief in God. Just so may the conflicting points of view about which they pray achieve a union that is above controversy, a union above the pettiness and greed of the world.

In Italy, from such a union emerged a vision of an international youth center to be built by the war ravaged youth high in the Italian Alps. From dawn to dusk Protestant, Catholic, and Jew worked side by side with picks and shovels until, last September, the beautiful, adequately equipped stone building called "Agape" (Love) was completed.

Surely we, as American youth, should also be able to make our own vision of "a medium vital to us in which we can place our confidence" a reality.

LEARN ABOUT INDUSTRY

HOW CAN WE TRANSFORM VISIONS INTO ACTION?

What medium is there in which we can invest our faith and realize our dreams? We, having had some experience with publications, can see the limitless potential powers of the press. Why not establish our own press? Why not have our own publications written by us, and illustrated with pictures of us and our activities?
We appeal to industry, to religion, to education, to answer our questions on our own editorial pages, to tell us by word and picture their point of view in our own newspapers, annuals, and magazines

Surely now is the time for action!

To Nancy
One of the best friends I've had at West Side Kep, that unconquerable optimist, and your wonderful outlook on life. I hope will always be as good friends as we have been this year, and I'm looking forward to being with you here "Broadway" after that, it's You're be the best thing that's ever Love, Alsap, Doris, Cecil B. + the Hollywood Gang!

P.S. Give my love to Cecil

To Nancy-better known as "Nan."

It's been great fun this year going to the banquets, downtown, and every place else with you & the trio and believe me those are things I'll not forget. Good luck in all you try for next year and after that. I know that with your personality and voice you're bound to go places.

As Ever,
